WHITNEY OPERA HOUSE
It is not often that a clergyman voluntarily writes commending a theatrical manager on the excellence of his offering. However A. G. Delamater, manager of William Norris in, "My Cinderella Girl", now in its third month of record breaking receipts at the Whitney Opera House, Chicago, is in receipt of a number of letters from Clergymen and the officers of various women's clubs, endorsing the entertainment in most praiseworthy terms. The following is only one of many similar letters received from prominent Chicago divines. Over five hundred of whom have seen the play.
Mr. A. G. Delamater, Manager
"My Cinderella Girl" Co.,
Whitney Opera House.

MY DEAR SIR:—
A successful play should always be measured by its power to compel one so to enter it and become a part of it as to breathe its atmosphere and forget, for the time being, his own surroundings. This I believe "My Cinderella Girl", does. The situations recall incidents of real college life and one enjoys being transported years back to the alarms, anxieties, the excitements, the pleasures of old Alma Mater. Your play is a clean, bright farce and one which I thoroughly enjoyed. I most cordially endorse it and wish all were as good.
Very sincerely,
CHAS. K. THOMSON.

The Real Victim.
After a man has been sick a week his wife looks worse than he does from taking care of him.—Atchison Globe.

Unton.—The opening statements were made in the Snell will case and the examination of witnesses begun. The attorney for Richard Snell, who seeks to break the will, made the alleged insanity of the testator, Col. Thomas Snell, the principal feature of his argument and cited the accumulation of $200,000 in worthless securities in the last years of his life.

Maywood.—Seventeen tramps who were arrested on the Northwestern tracks were put to work mowing the lawn of the Congregational church. There have been so many tramps in the village recently that Marshal Kemphouse and Rev. Mr. Barker, pastor of the church, hit upon this plan to make the community unpopular with the restless fraternity.

Sandwich.—The body of Mrs. Agnes Beveridge Patten, mother of James A. Patten, was brought to Sandwich for interment. A prayer service was held early at the home of the wheat king by Rev. George Whiteside of the First United Presbyterian church, Evanston, who went to Sandwich and officiated at the funeral.

WOMANLY WISDOM.

Vanity bears flowers but no fruit. Charity always goes farther than it is sent.

Preaching and practise are twins that often get separated.

Caring for things is better than working hard to get money to buy things.

A woman without wrinkles on her brow seldom knows much of the real joys or sorrows of life.

Put your dried sweet corn through a coffee-mill before cooking. This will make it much more tender.

The side of an old berry crate cut to fit the bottom of the boiler makes a good support to set jars on when canning.

Few of us ever have all we would like. It is better for us so. It is like a spoiled child that gets everything he cries for.

Cut out some of the really unnecessary house hold work and take some time out of doors with the children, and thus renew your youth.

When you go to bed at night, sweep your mind clear of everything and go to sleep.

Failures, hopes, dreams everything; let all go and rest up for the day that is coming.

A safe cure for constipation which has relieved chronic cases, is the free use of cold water; drinking a glass full after each meal and one between meals. This simple practise has rendered the use of drugs unnecessary to persons who had depended on them. Don't think it is a waste of time rest a little while, now and then lie flat on the bed, or even on the floor; stretch out at full length, let go of everything and shut the eyes and rest. Most of us keep keyed up too tight; it wears us out more than the work we do.

Times Have Changed.

It has been stated that on the continent of Europe, two hundred years ago, there was always a prayer-desk in a printing office, so that when an unusually bad piece of copy was received the printer could offer up a prayer for the author, two hundred years have brought a material change in the printer, we fear.—Caxton Magazine.

The man who attempts to run his business without advertising is like the man who attempted to teach his horse to live without eating; just as the horse got used to it, he up and died.—Rusty Mike.

Poetry is of some value after all J. O. Carter, an inmate of the Stillwater penitentiary, wrote poems for the Prison Mirror of such merit that they attracted the attention of the editors of the Century Magazine. They investigated his case and interested themselves in his behalf, with the result that his sentence has been commuted. We expect this will result in a large crop of would-be poets at Stillwater.
