MANIAC KILLS THREE

Turns in False Alarm and Fires Volley at Former Companions.

THEN SLAYS WIFE AND BABE

Dismissal From Service Inspires Triple Tragedy—Insane Slayer Makes Escape in Dark—Police Start Systematic Man Hunt.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 2.—Bert S. Durham, a former fireman, shot one city fireman dead, mortally wounded a second, and seriously wounded a third after ambushing them near a fire box from which he sent in a false alarm. He then went to his home and, with a heavy bludgeon, beat his wife and little child to death. He escaped and still is at large.

At the first shot Driver Don Grant fell from his seat to the ground, dead, with a bullet in his head. At the second shot Hoseman Guy Elliott pitched to the ground with a bullet through the stomach. Durham then leveled his revolver at Sampson and fired twice, both bullets piercing Sampson's lungs.

Two Shots Go Wild. Two more shots, fired at other members of the crew, went wild, after which Durham drew another revolver, and with it he covered his retreat as he started to run from Assistant Chief Snedecor, who had driven up in answer to the fire alarm.

The victims of the shooting were rushed to St. Joseph's hospital in one of the hose wagons, where hurried operations were performed on Sampson and Elliott. The surgeons say Sampson suffered a severe hemorrhage, and they hold out no hopes of his recovery. Elliott has a chance.

Many Police in Hunt. Within half an hour after the shooting a score of police officers and deputy sheriffs were on the scene in automobiles and had begun a systematic man hunt.

Owing to the poorly lighted section of the city Durham had a decided advantage.

During his service in the department, which terminated several months ago, he had a reputation for being quarrelsome. Firemen with whom he worked thought him insane.

WHY WOMEN GROW OLD EARLY

Through a Mistaken Idea of Duty She Permits Her Life to Become a Treadmill.

Why do some women grow old and others keep the secret of perpetual youth? Here is one answer: One reason why the average woman wears out, grows plain before her husband, is that, through a mistaken idea of duty, she lays out for herself at the beginning of her married life a scheme or plan of duty and employment for her time, every hour filled with work, with rare and short periods of relaxation.

This she follows religiously for years, feeling that she has done her duty, because every household event occurs regularly and on time, while she soon becomes merely a machine, a thing without life of itself or volition. She settles into a rut, and goes round and round on the same track overlastingly.

Can any woman keep brightness, originality of thought or speech, or even mere prettiness with such a life? And without those things how can she keep her husband and growing children full of loving admiration, which is the strong chain by which she can bind them to her? How bright and jolly the neighbor's wife seems when she calls, in nine cases out of ten it is because the surroundings and talk of your home are variety to her, and rouse her to originality and brightness of speech.

Cultivate a broad attitude toward the world and its people. Let your interests be far-reaching, and there will be renewed vigor when it comes to solve the problems of the home.

WANTED PAY FOR HIS WORK

British West Indian Who Wanted Recompense for Building His Own House, Materials Furnished.

An English naval officer tells of being on a war vessel which took provisions to St. Kitt's, one of the British West India islands. A hurricane had left many of the inhabitants in a destitute or even starving condition. Hungry crowds gathered at the wharf, but refused to help unload the food that was to be given to them unless paid for their work. A similar story sheds light on the Jamaican negro. Five or six years ago a hurricane devastated the island, and a large relief sum was raised, much of it in England and the United States. The committee having charge of this fund sent a wagon load of lumber to a husky black man whose house had been scattered over the parish. He and his family were living in a rude shack, made out of odds and ends.

"What's that fur?" he asked of the men who were unloading the material in front of his patch of ground.

"That's for your new house," was the reply. "It's from the relief fund and won't cost you anything."

"Who's goin' to build mah house?" "You are, if anybody does."

"Who's goin' to pay me fur mah work?"

WOUNDS INFANT; ENDS LIFE.

James Wallenius, Chicago, Estranged From Family, Visits Wisconsin—Tragedy Follows.

Appleton, Wis., Aug. 2.—James Wallenius shot and fatally injured his 4-month-old daughter and then killed himself here at the home of August Bach, where the Wallenius family, who live at 2907 Evanston avenue, Chicago, had been visiting for a week.

The baby was shot through the left eye while it was asleep in its crib and Wallenius sent a bullet crashing through his right eye. The child may live a few hours, while the father died instantly.

Mrs. Wallenius and daughter came to Appleton two weeks ago, after having had serious trouble with her husband. Wallenius arrived here a week ago.

No family quarrels have marred their visit, and it was believed that the difficulties between the couple had been mended.

STRIKE MOB ATTACKS CARS.

Governor Harmon Fails to Settle Columbus Trouble—Troops Are Kept Busy.

Columbus, O., Aug. 2.—Governor Harmon has failed thus far to settle the street railway strike here. The company offered to take the union men back as individuals if they would discard their union buttons. This the strikers refused to do. They demand recognition of the union.

Two Leonard avenue cars were attacked by mobs and had to be abandoned. The police stopped an attempt to burn the cars. The company has called on General Dick, the command officer, to place adequate detachments of troops at certain points where large bodies of men pass.

Troops are patrolling the streets and few people are riding in the cars.
