FINAL OPPORTUNITY

To see the season's most substantial success.

The impending engagement at the Studebaker of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, beginning on Monday evening, October 31, makes necessary the termination of the Elsie Janis record-breaking run in "The Slim Princess" on Saturday evening, October 29. But two weeks remain in which to see the radiant young star, whose portrayal of the agile daughter of the Turkish Governor General, has been heralded as the most satisfying and refreshing performance ever given by the young lady. "The Slim Princess" has proved sufficiently alluring to Chicagoans to fill the Studebaker at every performance during the past two months. Even Wednesday matinees were added to the schedule of performances in order to accommodate the crowds which insisted upon seeing the latest Dillingham Success, "The Slim Princess."

Probably no musical play in which Miss Janis has ever appeared has been so acceptable a vehicle for her peculiarly attractive abilities, as "The Slim Princess." Primarily or originally, a widely read story from George Ade's pen, Mr. Dillingham commissioned Henry Blot to provide the book and Leslie Stuart the music. The result of their collaboration is a comic opera of vastly greater interest and beauty than any other similar form of stage diversion produced in many seasons. Added to this is a Dillingham production, splendidly mounted and tastefully elegant in all of those details for which one producer is identified from another, the resultant entertainment is one of consummate brilliance.

Mr. W. F. Connor announces that the American tour of the great French actress, Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, will open at the Studebaker on Monday evening, October 31. Mail orders accompanied by cheque made out to the Studebaker Theatre, or Post Office order, will be filled in the order received. The box-office sale will open on Thursday October 27. Prices $1, $2 and $3.
