

iveness of civic work accomplished by commercial organizations that great respect is shown the suggestions and recommendations along legislative and administrative lines made by the ston Chamber of Commerce, ing through its committee on municipal and metropolitan airs.

There are four thousand members of the chamber. The com-tee on municipal and metrolitan affairs consists of eleven, e chairman being Prof. William Munro, of Harvard. The other members represent various professions and business.

Meetings are held regularly every Friday afternoon, and legislative and councilmanic measures are considered. Likewise, official affairs are discussed. Nothing is insignificant for the committee to consider and investigate. Upon the results the committee acts, and, when necessary, the chamber gives its official sanction to proposals, complaints, protests and suggestions from the chamber carry great weight.

PRaises NATIONAL
Municipal League.

Pointing to the voluntary activity of the National Municipal League and other important national organizations as "one of the most hopeful signs of our times," the Galveston News says editorially:
"These associations have brought together some of the best minds of the country to deal with its problems from a non-political viewpoint and without regard to partisan politics. Through their efforts plans are laid and a healthy public sentiment is developed which eventuates in much good without governmental action, and demands of public servants, irrespective of political affiliations, that they shall do those things which are essential to the best interests.

"These organizations are teachings and demanding that partisanship should control only in those affairs where there is a well-defined republican way or a well-defined democratic way to do things, and that otherwise things should be done only in the right way."

PLEDGED TO GOOD
CITIZENSHIP

Members of the class of 1910 of the College of the City of New York have taken an oath to be active factors in the cause of municipal advancement and civic betterment. At their graduation the students listened to an address by Mayor Wm. J. Gaynor, who earnestly appealed to them to participate conscientiously in public affairs. In a letter to the Mayor the classmen wrote:

"To assure you that your advice was not in vain we, the undersigned, this day, after the manner of the Athenian youths of old, about to enter public life, take this ephebic oath, that:

"We will never bring disgrace to this city by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; that we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many;
that we will revere and obey the city's laws and do our best to incite to a like respect and reverence those who are prone to annul or set them at naught; that will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of public duty; that thus, in all these ways, we will transmit this city, not only not less, but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

A MERE SUGGESTION.

A mere suggestion of the schoolhouse as a civic center has inspired in a few years a general movement in this direction. Interesting phases of this subject will form one of the many important topics to be considered by the National Municipal League in its sixteenth yearly meeting, in Buffalo, November 14-18. This will be a highly interesting gathering, especially in view of the increased activity along municipal lines within the last year. As soon as the program shall be completed copies will be mailed to all editors.
