

HIGHLAND PARK

Mr Antes of Deerfield was a caller at the News Letter Office last Monday.

The Highland Park Hotel continues to do a thriving business, being upto-date in every respect, and with Mr. B. Stevens, the most obliging Hotel proprietor in the state, what would hinder it from doing a good business.

A very quiet wedding occurred at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday evening, Oct. 19th. Gardner C McDurand and Miss Louise Junrend were the happy couple. Rev. M. D. Tremaine tied the knot.

Are you aware the abuse the manager of a newspaper gets, when he thinks he is oblidging his readers by giving them a send-off now and then. What does he get in return? He gets it in the neck.

Don't fail to visit the Northwestern Department store when in need of groceries, dry goods, clothing, in fact any thing from a clothes pin to the finest furniture.

Mr. Thomas Redmond, a young man well known both here and at Highwood died at his home at Everetts last Friday, and was buried at the Courderoy Cemetery last Monday.

The North Shore News-Letter under its present management has gained within the past five months 250 new subscribers, having at present a list of 1000 subscribers; our gain in advertising is also increasing, and as to job work, we are kept busy, and thinking strongly of putting a new job press in.

The Highland Park Fuel Company whose office is at 126 east Central avenue carries a large stock of Building material, wood and coal. Their phone number is 336 and you will find it to your interest when in need of either of the above to give them a call.

Ed Sachman, a Waukegan youth, gave Justice of the Peace William Taylor a hunting license Saturday night on the eve of his wedding to Miss Ada Campbell. The guests were gathering to witness the ceremony. The Justice, however, delayed the festivities until Sachman had routed out the assistant county clerk and had obtained the proper papers. The intended bride was called again from her room and the knot was tied. Seahman says it was the clerk's fault.

The most beautiful suburb along the North Shore is Highland Park, nor is Mr. W. Dooley, Mayor of our city, neglecting anything that goes toward making it more beautiful, of course everything cannot be done at once, but the time is coming when Mr. Dooley will give more of his attention to the south portion of our city.

Have you noticed the large stock of stationary carried by Mr. Larson, if not don't forget to give him a call as they have everything in the above line, while their prices are reasonable. See their ad in this issue of the North Shore News Letter.

The very purest of drugs can be purchased at the Drug store of Dale Sweetland on the west side. Should you need a good old genuine smoke it's here you can get it, or would you rather have an Ice Cream Soda, you can get it, in fact anything in the drug line or stationary can be had.

One hundred soldiers searched in vain in the woods and fields about Fort Sheridan until late last Friday night in an effort to run down two prisoners that escaped from a sentry at the fort in the evening.

The large stock of Dry Good Notions etc., carried by Mr. William Anderson will surprise you. Don't fail to give him a call.

I gave one of my relatives a grand puff in last weeks News Letter, thinking I was doing a great favor to the party, but imagine my surprise when called up over the phone and told to never make mention of the name again, as it got all over town, of course all I could say, was that I was glad so many read the North Shore News Letter.

REMARKABLE PRESBYTERIAN FAMILY

Five children in the Ministry.

The Rev. R. Calvire Dobson who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church of Highland Park and will occupy the pulpit Nov. 6th next comes of a remarkable Presbyterian family. His parents are old residents of Limestone, in the mountains of eastern Tennessee where Mr. Dobson was born 35 years ago this month. The family has been prominent in the affairs of the Presbyterian church in that section for many years, his father Dr. A. N. Dobson M. D. for 50 years an elder in the church and for 40 years superintendent of the Sabbath School has given five children to the Presbyterian ministry, three sons having been ordained to that office and two daughters having become the wives of ministers.

It speaks volumes for the religious atmosphere of any family and the consistent christian lives of the parents which can inspire five of the children to devote themselves to a life of good works and ministry to the spiritual needs of others. Herein may lie some explanation of the qualities in the son who comes to Highland Park which so endeared him to the members of his last charge and to the people of Bloomington generally, which he now leaves.

Let a man go out of town and do his dealing and you will hear our merchants houl, but go and ask some of them to assist in supporting their home paper by advertising and letting the people know what they have to sell, and they will give you but little attention, therefore why find fault when a man goes to Chicago to do his dealing, when you begrudge your home paper the price of an advertisement. Advertise, let the people know what you have, and you will readily see that people will patronize their home merchants.

Miss Amelia Schwartz, office lady at the News Letter Office took in the Whitney Theatre in Chicago last Tuesday. She reports the play, "Lower Berth 13" as being worth your while seeing.

The most charitable worker we have in this section is Mr. John O'Keif of the Railroad Mens Home. When Mr. O'Keif the manager of the Home first came here, there was but two or three old dilapidated frame buildings in which to shelter the unfortunate inmates, but look at the Home today one of the finest and best furnished buildings in the state, costing over $100,000 all of which has been accomplished by Mr. John O'Keif, manager. In talking with several of the inmates I am informed that there is nothing to good for the men and that the great care taken of them when sick, is really wonderful. Nor is Mrs. O'Keif idle, as she is continually on the lookout for the welfare of the inmates.

You that are in need of footwear can do no better than call on Mr. J. Kline. His stock is large, and prices reasonable. Don't forget the place, 1st door east of Erskine Bank Building.

That American Eagle which escaped from the Railroad Men's Home was out just long enough to confiscate two of my best chickens, after which he was caught and returned to its home. The loss of a chicken means a great deal to a printer; printers can't afford to eat chicken only about every Christmas, and not then, if one was not given him.

We have in our city the most obliging City Clerk of any City in the State. Go to Mr. John Finney any time of the day, it makes no difference how busy he may be, he is ready to give you any information you may ask in regard to City matters.

While waiting for a mid-night Street car going south one night last week, I saw a man crossing the street, coming toward the platform, from the looks of him, I should judge he had about ten whiskies and twenty schooners, anyway he got across the street and reaching a telegraph pole, he put both arms around the pole and started talking politics, getting no response, he yelled out, "you know nothing about pol!" and the last I saw of him was when he was starting to Europe.

I probably will give our readers a short sketch of what I have seen under the arc lights (after night) in our city. That is if I can make up my mind that I will not have to purchase a yard or so of sticking plaster afterwards.

Big Republican Rally

Much enthusiasm greeted the speakers of the opening meeting of the fall campaign for the Republican ticket, held Tuesday evening in our City.

Candidates George Edmund Foss, County Treasurer Westerfield, Sheriff Green and County Clerk Hendee, were present at the meeting and all made short talks.

Everything considered the meeting was a rousing success and indicate nothing more than always takes place in Lake county—a complete Republican victory on Nov. 8th.

Everybody works but father: Not so here, as I worked last week three successive nights besides my eight hours a day throughout the week not only I, but our entire force all on job work at the News Letter Office.

Are you in need of any second hand bed springs, baby buggies, bicycles, milk cans, old barrels, tin buckets, old trunks, old buggy wheels, spittoons, chairs, dish pans, old rockers or in fact anything that can be manufactured; if so, just go to the first ravine north of the Ravinia depot, and there you will see the dump.

Don't fail to see the Reliable Laundry ad in this issue.

I stepped in the hardware store of which Mr. Robertson, formerly Mayor of our city, is the proprietor, and I was astonished to see the large stock of shelf-goods, stoves, in fact everything that goes to make up a first class hardware store, and as to prices, I simply wish to say "Don't spend carfare going to Chicago" as you can do better at home.

say, by the way, you cigar smokers, have you tried the different brands of cigars which Mr. Grant Green carries in stock, if not give him a call.

RAVINIA PARK THEATRE TO OPEN

Inaugral Performance to be given Friday evening, November 18th.

North Shore residents will be pleased to learn that Ravinia Park Theatre will, by arrangement with the Receiver, again open for the winter season under the management of Mr. W. M. Lowrie. Many lookings with Clubs and Societies from Evanston to Lake Forest have already been arranged and it is believed that the beautiful and well equipped theatre will be extensively patronized this winter.

The first play is to be given by the North Shore Dramatic Club, an organization which came into existence two years ago and has given many pretty plays. The piece chosen for performance November 18th is a translation from the German of Moser's farce, "Der Bibliothekar" and arranged as a musical comedy by Mr. W. M. Lowrie, under whose direction it will be staged. The music has been composed by Mr. Harold O. Larsen, of Northwestern University, set to lyrics by Mr. Lowrie. The cast comprises twenty-four of the best amateurs on the North Shore, almost every town being represented, and the piece, which is described as a farce comedy with a laugh in every line, will be given as effectively by them as it has been by professionals. Those playing the minor parts will form the chorus to assist in interpreting the ten songs which will be given with many novel and beautiful stage effects. No one knows more about getting the full benefit of Ravinia Theatre well equipped stage, than Mr. Lowrie and it is promised that the settings will eclipse all former efforts. Reserved seats are now on sale at Subumachers, Highland Park, and Hill and Leffingwells, Evanston and are being rapidly taken. The price is 50 cts for any location.

WHITNEY THEATRE

The Whitney has another of its usually delicious musical successes in "Lower Berth 13" the new Howard Gillespie and Arthur Gillespie, with book and lyrics by Collin Davis and music from the ever flowing fountain of Joseph B. Howard, and the excellent start it has gotten it is safe to predict a duplicate success of the "The Three Twins."

The play is in a prologue and three acts. The prologue depicts a party on a sleeper, the defection of the bride-groom to the smoking room for the balm of a cigarette to soothe the nerves tortured by the customary outrages perpetrated by friends. Here he meets brethren traveling men who prove his undoing by frequent toasts. He is then put into an unoccupied berth, where he awakes in the train to find that she has gotten off the train in search and he leaves it at another place himself. Mistaken for horse thieves he, and the porter who followed him and was left by his train are jailed. His wife arrives in search and is also jailed as an accomplice. Through several tricks they all escape and arrive at home and become involved in divorce proceedings. The whole affair is finally cleared up by a friend on the police force, which has surrounded the house with every one made prisoners, and everything ends happily.

The comedy vein, throughout, is cleverly handled and in the hands of good comedians. The music is by far the best ever written by Mr. Howard, and Mr. Sobike has applied his magic hand in developing two of the greatest novelty hits of his career. Anna Fitzhugh, the bride, is seen to advantage and sings three fetching songs while Ruby Fitzhugh, the prima donna with a musical comedy, put over two numbers in excellent fashion.

Arthur Deming, as the Pullman Porter and Edward Hume, as the jaiier opera house manager and holder of half a dozen other positions of the village of Lonelyville are the principal comedians and manage very easily to keep the audience in a continuous uproar of laughter.

The attendance is exceptionally good and seats are now selling four weeks in advance.

THE GREAT BERNHARDT

For two weeks at the Studebaker, Chicago

Madam Sarah Bernhardt, the greatest actress, the most remarkable woman and always the incomparable artist, will open her American tour at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, on Monday evening, October 31, in one of the most popular roles of her repertory, that of "L'Aiglon." Her engagement will be limited to two weeks with matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays. Her recent appearances in London, where she was the most brilliant critics agreed that never had the wonderful actress better demonstrated her right to the title of the world's most artistic interpreter of emotional characterizations, established a new speech in the brilliant career of this ever brilliant star.

Mr. W. F. Connor, under whose direction Mme. Bernhardt comes to America for her last visit, has signally honored Chicago and the West by bringing the opening of the tour to this city and his preparations for the event have been adequate and elaborate. Fifty plays, the entire company from the Sarah Bernhardt Theatre, Paris, will be included in the organization which will present a repertory of unequalled magnitude. The first week's bill includes the following offerings:

Monday, Oct. 31 .....L'Aiglon Tuesday, Nov. 1 .....La Tosca Wednesday matinee, Nov. 2 .....L'Aiglon Wednesday evening, Nov. 2 .....Les Bouffons and La Bais Sere Thursday, Nov. 3 .....Camille Friday, Nov. 4 .....Frederic Saturday matinee, Nov. 5 .....Phedre Saturday evening, Nov. 5 .....Jeanne d'Arc

The price of seats for the engagement of Mme. Bernhardt will be $3, $2, and $1. Seat orders accompanied by cheque or money order, made payable to the Studebaker Theatre, will be filled in the order of their receipt. The sale of seats from the box-office opens Thursday morning, October 27, at nine o'clock.
