JUST BETWEEN YOU AND I.

Not long ago a gentleman in this city went to his groceryman and got his 20 ticket to Chicago; at the same time was indebted to the merchant $22.00. He got the ticket, went to Chicago, laid out $55.00 for groceries, came home, returned the ticket to the merchant and told him to charge the price of the ticket to his account. Check, well if you are in need of any, just hunt this man up.

I understand that Swift & Co. have in their cold storage room an old turkey gobbler that has hung there for sixteen years. Now I have an idea that I can purchase this bird for about $10.00 per lb. he weighs about 25 lbs., and get this old centarian for a Thanksgiving dinner which just takes the price of one year's subscription (or the amount you owe for 1910) to the News-Letter, that I can get it. If not I will stand my lather off for a pound of hamburger steak made from a beef that was killed in 1880.

The large stock of foot wear which Mr. John Kline has in stock surpasses any that has ever been brought to our city, and at prices that will hold you from wasting time and money going to Chicago and paying two prices for goods that Mr. Kline would not have on his shelves.

The most up-to-date hotel in Northern Illinois is the Highland Park Hotel of which Mr. Byron Stevens is the proprietor. While on a trip over to Michigan, and while sitting in a hotel reading the daily paper, I overheard some Chicago salemen discussing about hotels, one made about the same remark as mentioned above.

You very seldom hear of people going to Chicago to purchase their hardware now days, especially since our former mayor, Mr. Alexander Robertson, opened up his large stock of hardware at 12 West Central Avenue. People have become convinced that they can do far better at this large hardware store than getting to Chicago. Next week I will give you all the new brands of stoves which Mr. Robinson carries in stock.

A Chicago drummer selling Furniture Polish from door to door last Tuesday, frightened several ladies in trying to force himself in their residences. But our Chief of Police Mr. Sheahan, who is always on the alert detected him and politely informed him that his presence out of town was more preferable than in town. He went.

Those young men, yes, and a few old guys that stands on the street corners criticising ladies as they pass by should go a little slow, as our Chief of Police has an eye on several of you, and as you old guys, the first thing you know you will be borrowing from some member of your family a sufficient amount to pay your fine.

The best and largest stock of drugs in our city is that carried by Mr. Dale Sweetland. Don't forget that he also has in stock a large supply of school books, besides other stationary of every description. Phone Store 200. Residence 2512.

Have you visited the up-to-date market of which Mr. Bowden is the proprietor, if not, and you wish a good fresh porterhouse or any other kind of fresh meat, this is the place to go.

For good real estate deals call on Mr. James Duffy.

Subscribe for the North Shore News-Letter; will try and make it interesting for you.
