The Old Oaken Bucket.

A Revised Version.

How dear to my heart is the steady subscriber,
Who pays in advance at the birth of each year.
Who lays down the money and does it quite gladly,
And casts round the office a halo of cheer.
He never says: "Stop it; I cannot afford it,
I'm getting more papers than now I can read."
But always says: "Send it; the family likes it—
In fact, we all think it a real household need."
How welcome he is when he steps in our sanctum,
How he makes our heart throb, how he makes our hearts dance.
We outwardly thank him; we inwardly bless him—
The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

THE PARENTS AND TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Parents and Teachers Association met at library building Monday evening for the last Ibsen reading. Miss Guiney gave a very interesting review of "Brand" a poetic drama by Ibsen. An excellent reading of "The Master-builder" was given by Mr. Sandwiche. Next Monday will be a Rortand evening and Miss McCormack, whose ability as an elocutionist has been so well shown in the rendering of several of Ibsen's plays, will read Chanticleer.

The meeting of the Association are steadily gaining in popularity and well they may for they are both instructive and entertaining.

CHURCH INVITATIONS

On Thursday afternoon fifty people, representing all the churches of our city, braved the storm and cold, to carry to all the houses of our city a church invitation and to secure a church and Sunday School record which will be of great value to the churches. It is the earnest desire of these workers to make this record complete and correct, and if any member of any family, or living with a family, has been overlooked, if they will kindly send that name and address by mail or telephone to Mrs. W. T. Underwood it will greatly help in this work.

There will be a sale of fancy articles, aprons and home baked goods. Tea and coffee will be served.

The Finance Committee of the Baptist Church will hold a sample sale at the same time and same place. Groceries and laundry articles to be used in the laundry will be on sale.

A LECTURE

An interesting lecture by Mr. F. W. Newman was given at the Highland Park Club last Tuesday evening. The subject of the lecture was "Through African Wilderness." Motion pictures of Colonel Roosevelt and his son Kermit in the jungle were shown. In speaking of Mr. Roosevelt's expedition Mr. Newman said that to his personal knowledge he could state that our ex-president did not go to Africa to wantonly slay. As an instance Mr. Newman said, that when Mr. Roosevelt had camped for one night in the most beautiful spot in the jungle of Africa and had secured but two of the wild animals he ordered that camp be broken in the morning. Mr. Cunningham the voted guide and huntsman protected saying that here was a place where the beautiful and unusual game in Africa was most abundant. Mr. Roosevelt answered: "I have secured the two specimens I came after let us go on with out killing more. That, says Mr. Newman, is characteristic of the man.

Mr. Newman also gave other beautiful pictures of his experiences through the African wilderness.
