Suggestions to Shippers of Christmas Packages by Express.

1st. Ship your package early—by the 15th of December if possible. The express company will give you a small label to paste on the package reading "Do not open until Christmas" This will give opportunity for the package to reach its destination before Christmas and give the additional pleasure to the recipient of the gift of having it on Christmas morning.

2nd. Use wooden boxes for packing, especially for glass and other fragile articles, which should be well protected. It may cost a few more cents, but the danger of damage will be very much reduced, and you should do your part to make the transportation of your gift safe.

3rd. Write the address in full—state county, city, street and number—on the box or package, with ink or crayon. Tags are frequently torn off and lost.

4th. If you want to prepay charges write the word "Paid" in large, plain letters on the package.

5th. Insist upon a receipt and see that the amount paid and the value is marked on the receipt and on the package.

6th. Write your own address in full on the package, following the prefix "From....."

7th. Enclose a card in each box or package reading:
From.....
(Your address)
To.....
(Consignee's address.)

This in order, that, should the outer markings be destroyed, the inner mark will insure prompt forwarding and delivery.

8th. If not convenient to ship in wooden boxes, use strong wrapping paper (not newspapers) and tie with a strong cord.

9. If package contains anything of perishable nature, write the word "Perishable" in large plain letters on the box or package, which will call for special attention and delivery.

If you will observe these suggestions, you will greatly assist in the prompt delivery of your gift in good condition.

The Red Cross Christmas Seal

E. S. MARTIN.

Buy me every chance you get,
Do you good? Just try me,
Lick me light and stick me tight
Buy me. Buy me. Buy me.
All good luck and Christmas cheer
All good will I carry,
I'm your friend and—never fear—
Truly sanitary.

I'm the Red Cross Christmas Seal
This that I propose is
To summon wealth, to fight for health
And beat tuberculosis.
Beat the greatest plague of all
Gast a pall of sadness,
I'll despair with food and air,
And lift it into gladness.

Buy me. Buy me. I'm your friend,
Help me win my battle,
Help me bring a scourge to end,
Men are more than cattle.
Help me help the suffering
I'm their supplication,
Skill that's brotherly shall bring
Healing to the nation.

I wish to draw your attention that Highland Park is quite noted for their bright women. The Eastern Star of Waukegan, Ill., has elected a Highland Park woman by the name of Sneider as their Worthy Matron and the Evanston Lodge of the Eastern Star has elected a Highland Park woman as their Worthy Matron Mrs. Samuel Levin.

The members of the Inner Circle who gave a Bazaar and Cake Sale last Saturday report a number of fancy articles remaining unsold will be glad to dispose of them very reasonably. Also a few fancy baskets made by the poorer classes in North Carolina. These baskets are sold on commission. It will be a charity to buy them. Anyone desiring to purchase any of these articles will find them on sale at the home of Miss Isabel Ewart, 108 East Park avenue.

Particularly interesting to the residents of the North Shore is the work at Gads Hill Center, where the summer outing work at the Encampment is followed up during the other months of the year. The families are visited in their homes and the conditions under which they live are so well understood by the workers that help can be given in a manner that does not at all take away from their self-respect.

Christmas is coming; Christmas dinners, Christmas treats and parties for the children. Here is an opportunity for compound interest in happiness on any investment. Who will prove to little Mary that she is not "too big for Christmas presents?" Address Gads Hill Center, 1959 West 20th Street, Chicago.

FIRE AT RAVINIA.

The fire which occurred at Ravinia last week was at the residence and store room of Mr. Charles Cowell, who for the past five years has carried on the grocery and meat market and up to the time of the fire was very successful, but it took only a few hours for the flames to consume a large portion of his five year's labor and had it not been for the quick arrival of our Fire Department he probably would have lost all; but for all this, Mr. Cowell did not get discouraged, and within 48 hours after the fire Mr. Cowell had his store replenished with goods, his wagons out delivering and his meat market running full blast. Mr. Cowell wishes through the North-Shore News, letter to thank the Fire Department for their prompt action in quenching fire.

Thomas W. Bell, father of Mrs. C. T. Boynton, died last Wednesday night at his daughter's residence, Ravenshok, Highland Park. He was born in Catskill, N. Y., seventy-nine years ago. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Jane Sague Bell, and two daughters, Mrs. Boynton and Mrs. Herbert Sanborn-Smith of New York. Mr. Bell came to Chicago about twenty years ago. The body will be taken to Catskill for burial.

A CHRISTMAS OPPORTUNITY

"I don't now have Christmas presents no more. My ma says I am to big."
"We had a good time last Christmas. We had a basket, 'n' cranberries,—Gee, it was swell!"
"We don't never git baskets. We wish we'd git one this Christmas; and the ten year old girl who was 'too big for Christmas presents' sighed wistfully. But when six people are living on eight dollars a week there is not much margin for Christmas celebration; and when these people prefer alms; any suffering to a formal application; for charity, there is little hope of a Christmas basket."
It is among people of this class that the social settlement is most useful.
