DEATHS

CUNNINGHAM:—Catherine, beloved wife of Thomas J. Cunningham, died at her home in Libertyville, Lake County Illinois, Thursday, December 22, 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham came to Highland Park thirty-one years ago, and resided here until in November, 1910 after which they sold their home and moved to Libertyville. Mrs. Cunningham had been ailing several months before moving but after going to Libertyville her health began to fail more and more until at last she passed away.

Mrs. Cunningham was a true and faithful christian, belonging to the Catholic church from which her funeral ceremony was officiated by the priest at the Libertyville church.

She was a woman that was happy in her home and church, besides being a loving wife and kind neighbor in peace and joy she passed away according to God's will; For full of comfort was her heart So calm and still, So doth God his promise keep And death to her was but a sleep.

Vandalia.—William Fraley, twenty years old, living northwest, found a dynamite cartridge and when he attempted to dislodge the contents with a knife it exploded, tearing away two fingers and lacerating the other hand. His face was badly burned.

Springfield.—The Illinois state highway commission has promise of a busy time in the way of speechmaking in January. Thirty-three engagements for speakers at the Farmers' Institute have been made, and other meetings where road construction is under way are planned. State Highway Engineer A. N. Johnson has been invited to attend state road conventions to be held next month in Wichita, Kan., and Lincoln, Neb. He will attend nine institute meetings in this state in addition.

McLeansboro.—The rabbit crop in Hamilton county appears much larger this year than usual. T. D. Martin of this city bought more than 600 rabbits. More than 20,000 have so far been shipped out of the county this season. The great demand for them in the cities is largely due to the high price of meats.

Centralia.—Newton Essington of Carlisle struck his wife over the head with a stick of stove wood when he found her fondling the picture of another man. The woman's skull was crushed and she may die. Essington was arrested.

Decatur.—Two sisters married two brothers at St. Elmo in Fayette county. A brother of the sisters was also married at the same time, making a triple wedding. The sisters are Frances V. and Harriet Ayo, and they married T. C. and Leroy Young. Their brother, F. G. Ayo, married Grace Holmes.

One reason New York city is so congested is that they can enlarge the island only upward and downward.

Even an earthquake and a fire cannot stop San Francisco.

The coachman who was given $10,000 received it without coaching.

Time's New Lucky Bag

Master Nineteen-Eleven Offers a Bag of Mystery

So may the New Year be a happy one to you, happy to many more whose happiness depends on you! So may each year be happier than the last, and not the meanest of our brethren or sisterhood debarred their rightful share in what they were formed to enjoy.—Dickens.

Hail and Farewell!

A New Year's Wish.
I wish you happiness throughout the coming year, and tho' I may not always tell you so, the thought and the wish will be yours just the same. Whatever joy or success comes to you, it will make me glad.

Seeing In the New Year

New Year's eve is looked upon in many lands as a time of great rejoicing. The new year is hailed with great honors, and on this night the coming guest is given a rousing welcome.

Friends gather in crowds and the free spirit of fun is allowed full sway. Town clocks are surrounded and watched, and on the stroke of 12 bells are rung, pistols fired, horns are tooted, and amid loud noise the new year is ushered in.

It is probably human nature to rejoice at the turning over of a new leaf, and the knowledge of one more chance to start anew gives vent to happy and noisy greeting.

His Arrival

A Wish for You.
A glad New Year for each of you, Dear friends, wherever you be— A glad New Year, a kind New Year, And much prosperity.

May sunshine brighten all the days, The stars shine out each night; May roses grow in all your paths, Each hour bring new delight.

And may the old year, passing on, Steal all your cares away, Speed the old, so hail the new, Good luck with New Year's Day.

A Food Combine.
"Oh, John," exclaimed Mrs. Bayside, laying down the paper, "isn't it just lovely! You remember that young couple who were upset off here last summer in their sailboat? Well, they fell in love and got married. And they're so well to do, too. Her father's a rich packer and his father is a prosperous farmer."
"Oh," sniffed the summer hotel keeper, "a sort of corned beef and cabbage combination, eh?"

ILLINOIS STATE NEWS

Pittsfield.—The annual show of the Pike County Poultry association opened in the Hesley building on the east side of the square with between forty and fifty exhibitors and over 500 birds on display. The largest single exhibitor is Julius P. Heck, who has 82 fine specimens from his pens, all of the single strain. Following are the Pittsfield exhibitors: C. S. Winans, Willis Smith, Cella Harder, Johnson Jex, Merle Barber, Glenn Woodward, V. Williams, Ruth P. Heck, Mrs. H. J. Westlake, Mrs. Anna Sedberry, Mrs. Julia Caldwell, Theodore Bates, H. W. Brant, L. P. Medaris, Paul Carlton, Frank Colver, F. W. Sittley and T. J. Foster.

Belleville.—Residents of Smithton, seven miles south of Belleville, are greatly mystified by acts of an unknown person who, after the midnight hour, passes about the village, alarming the residents by hammering upon their doors until they answer his call. As soon as a light is shown in a room the party flees, and all efforts of the village marshal to apprehend him have proved futile. An organization of the citizens has been formed and it is expected that they will be able to capture the slumber disturber some evening when he is on his rounds.

Chicago.—There will be no more toboggan slides in the parks of Chicago. This is the decree issued by superintendents of parks in every division of the city. Chicago's mild winters the officials say, have condemned the slides, where thousands have enjoyed the sport. In former years there were no fewer than 12 big toboggan slides in the various parks. It is too expensive, say the park managers, to erect and maintain toboggans, when only a couple of weeks of toboggan weather is allotted to Chicago. The money that is spent in making toboggan slides, they say, can be better expended in fooding skating rinks and keeping the same in condition.

Chicago.—Six thousand Bibles are to be placed in the hotel bedrooms of Chicago. They will not be chained down. If a guests steals a Bible to read it, the book will be replaced and the loss charged to the credit account, because the purpose of the project is to encourage Bible reading. The Gileons, an association of Christian traveling men of the United States, in back of the movement. During the year this organization has placed over 50,000 Bibles in the hotels of most of the big cities of the country. Reports from every direction endorse the idea.

Mattoon.—The lives of 200 children were in jeopardy for a few minutes when fire broke out in the Columbian school building. A panic seemed certain, but danger was passed when the pupils fled down the building in fire drill, which is a part of the school curriculum. The property damage was slight, being confined to the roof.

Springfield.—From every part of Illinois telegrams, telephone messages and special delivery letters are pouring into the offices of the Illinois live stock commission calling for aid for hogs that are threatened with cholera. Wild-eyed stockmen, when they find that messages do not bring the serum that will save the lives of their swine, drop everything and rush on Secretary Charles A. Lowry of the commission, or Dr. Albert T. Peters, director of the state biological laboratory. But in most cases the appeal for serum to stop the ravages of the dread disease is unavailing, for the simple reason that the biological laboratory is unable to produce the serum in sufficient quantities to meet the enormous demand.

Sterling.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watkins of Manlius celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary. Mr. Watkins is seventy-eight years old and his wife is seventy-six. They were eighteen and sixteen years old when married.

A bad cold is the new excuse for a "Joy ride."
