Highland Park Items.

NO ADVERTISEMENTS, LOCALS OR COMMUNICATIONS RECEIVED AFTER 10 O'CLOCK A. M., THURSDAYS.

Mrs. Royal P. Davidson has just returned from a Christmas visit with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Colwell of Avon Park, Florida. Mrs. Colwell spent the summer in Highland Park some six years ago, and sends New Year greetings to the friends who made her stay so delightful.

In spite of the weather, the work on the large building at the corner of Vine avenue and Sheridan road, is being rushed right along.

We will be compelled to omit a great many of our items this week on account of twenty-nine legal advertisements that the law requires to be published.

From the Waukegan Sun, it appears they have gambling dens in their small burg, something that our city can boast of not allowing within its jurisdiction.

Mrs. Wm. E. Salyards has been on the sick list the past two weeks.

One day last week while at Highwood on business, I called on Mr. John Garrity, proprietor of the grocery and market in that city, and was surprised as to the amount of business he is doing, both in groceries and meats.

Services at the Christian Science church tomorrow at 10:45 o'clock a. m. Subject, "Life". Sunday school immediately after the church services.

Thursday evening the alumni of the High School had a meeting to discuss plans for a play to be given this year. The plays which have been given by the alumni in the past have always been well acted and much enjoyed by every one.

Miss Helen Coale who has the honor of being a member of the chorus of the Grand Opera Company of Chicago, was unable to go with the Company to St. Louis because of an attack of the grippe.

Notice the new ad of Mr. Friebele's in this issue of the News-Letter. Mr. Friebele has not by any means gone out of business but is now better prepared than ever to promptly fill all orders, giving you the best of material and first class work. Call up 245 and let him give you estimates on your work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shelton expect to go to house-keeping in Winnetka shortly.

The season of Chicago's Grand Opera Company terminates on the 18th of January.

Major and Mrs. Davidson have just returned from a trip through the east and south. Major Davidson had business at New York, Washington and in Florida, and they combined pleasure with business. While at Washington, the Major arranged with the War Department to have Lieut. F. L. Beals, U. S. Army, retired, detailed to the Academy as instructor in Military Science and Tactics, and with the Navy Department for some additional equipment to the school's naval department.

Mrs. Barbara Wait, niece of Dr. and Mrs. Rogers, who has a number of friends in Highland Park leaves for Paris the first of February, to study under Jean De Reiske.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes lovely new home situated on Green Bay Road and Lincoln Avenue, is now completed.

Mrs. J. Rudolph of North Highland Park, is reported quite ill.

Mrs. Look, mother of Mrs. E. H. Brown, Linden Park Place, is recovering slowly from an attack of bronchitis.

The cadets of the Military Academy returned from their winter vacation January 11th. Instead of having a Spring and a Thanksgiving vacation, and holidays scattered throughout the year, the Academy combines the entire time in one period at Christmas. A large per cent of the students are from a long distance, and this enables them to enjoy the vacation to its utmost. The school's experience and observation has been that the entire vacation at one period is much better than to have the students continue to be interrupted throughout the term.

Major Davidson, the acting Superintendent, informs us that practically all the students have returned, and there will be a few new ones added to the roll.

Mrs. Jerome Steever of Highland Park died at her home on Sheridan Road on Monday evening of last week. The funeral was held at the Steever home Tuesday afternoon and on Wednesday morning, January fourth, the remains were taken to Milwaukee. Mrs. Steever's old home.

Highland Park Woman's club heard Mrs. H. B. Roberts read a paper on "One Woman's Busy Day." A program was given by Mrs. McAlister Spencer and Miss Alice Evans. The hostesses were Mrs. R. J. Beatty, Mrs. Frederick Schaeffer, Mrs. Joseph Learning, Mrs. L. A. Hine, and Mrs. Harry A. Sellery.

Mrs. John Sheahan, West Central avenue, who has been ill, is much improved at this writing.

Mr. C. E. Schaeffer returned this week from a trip around the world.

Lieut. F. L. Beals, U. S. Army, retired, has been detailed by the War Department as instructor of Military Science and Tactics at the Military Academy. Lieut. Beals has recently been on duty as Military Attache at Rio Janeiro, Brazil, and his training and experience has been such that he will, without doubt, be a great aid to the Academy in their efforts to make the institution the best of its kind in the United States.

A new schedule has gone into effect on the Chicago & Milwaukee electric line. The cars will run every twenty minutes, as in the past, ever since the winter schedule went into effect. The time of arrival and departure of cars will be five minutes earlier than formerly.

A very jolly sleighing party was given Saturday evening by the "hello girls", the Misses Agnes Garrity, Francis Susch, Elizabeth Deering, Hazel Simmers, Henrietta Rogers, Anna Mead, Lillian Whalen and Martha Wetzel. Refreshments were served at the home of Miss Garrity.

OSSOLI CLUB

On Thursday afternoon of last week a privilege that is not often accorded to one in Highland Park, was enjoyed by the members and friends of the Ossoli club. That of hearing a grand opera star sing informally, playing some of her own accompaniments. The Countess De Cisneros as the guest of Mrs. Frank R. McMullen, very kindly consented to sing several solo's. The Countess sang two solo's in foreign languages. Mr. Gunn, who was the speaker of the afternoon, had mentioned the American folk songs. And the Countess sat down at the piano and playing her own accompaniment sang "Way down upon the Swanee River." She next sang that old favorite "The Last Rose of Summer". Preceding her singing the Countess gave a brief and very interesting talk on the subject of "Grand Opera's in English" of which she is a very strong advocate. It was due to Mrs. McMullen's influence and wide acquaintance that the Ossoli Club and their guests had the great pleasure of listening to one so well known in the world of Grand Opera's as the Countess De Cisneros. We might add here that Mrs. McMullen has always taken a leading part in the past in working as diligently in keeping Ravinia Park a place where refined and cultured amusement might be had by the people in listening to the best orchestra's in the country.

HIGHLAND PARK WINS HONORS

Highland Park will have the honor of having the new cottage at the tent colony named, "The Highland Park Cottage."

This is due to the fact that the Highland Park ladies made the biggest record in the matter of Christmas seals during the holidays for the tent colony benefit. The Highland Park women disposed of $294 worth, or about 29,000 seals. This, it is felt, will exceed those sold in any other locality by a large margin.

The officials of the colony promised that the community which sold the most seals would have the cottage named after it and Highland Park carries off the honor.

The new grocery store of which Mrs. H. M. Kelly and Son are the proprietors have on hand a large stock of fresh canned goods and all kinds of groceries at reasonable prices. Give them your orders and be convinced. 169 Vine Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilcox have gone to Florida for the winter.

Miss Addie Inman who spent the holidays with relatives here, has gone back to her school in Petersburg, Va.
