THE MINSTREL SHOW

On Saturday evening the men of the Highland Park Club presented a minstrel show followed by a vaudeville. The ball room was well filled with club members and their friends when the curtain arose upon the semi circle of dapper minstrels and the white interactor, Mr. Sturges of Winnetka took the part of interactor. Mr. A. R. Williams and Mr. Norman Mar were the end men. A number of solos were sung by Mr. Mason, Mr. Williams, Mr. Erickson and Mr. Putnam. Especial mention must be given Mr. C. Warren who made the hit of the evening in his song entitled "I've Got A Mother."

There were several jokes gotten off by the minstrels at the expense of such popular men as President Bourneque, Secretary McBride. Mr. Hately and Judge Grosscup. Following the show Mr. Warren gave a number of his slight of hand performances for which he is always so much in demand. A burlesque of "The Girl of the Golden West" was a sketch that was acted so well that the audience was thrown in to gales of laughter and much applause was awarded the versatile Mr. Golden as an attractive "Girl of the Golden West" with his long black braids and cow-girl dress. Mr. Putnam who is also a splendid actor was the hero—Others in the cast were Mr. Roger Vail as an Indian squaw, Mr. A. R. Williams as a sheriff and Mr. Tuttle was the soloist of the cow-boy chorus.

AMATEUR MINSTREL.

An amateur minstrel show was given at the Highland Park Club last Saturday evening. One of the features that the young men of the club introduced was a burlesque on "The Girl of the Golden West." The score and lyrics were written for the occasion by Norman Mason and some of the music by George Colburn. The end men were Allen Jones, Arthur R. Williams, Chas. Warren, John Tuttle and William Chandler. Dexter Sturges was the interactor.

Services at the Christian Science Church tomorrow at 10:45 a. m.—Subject—Spirit—Sunday school immediately after church services. All are cordially invited.

Mr. John Finney, our most obliging City Clerk, who has had a severe case of the grippe sticks to his post, attending to his official duties just as though the grippe was harmless, whereas almost any one else would have several doctors and a nurse or two. Mr. Finney likes all honorable officials, took an oath to serve the public lawfully to the best of his ability, and this he is doing even at times when you or I would not be able to be at our place of business. Not so with Mr. Finney, as you can always find him at his desk ready to give you any information desired in regard to city matters.
