The discovery that two can talk on one wire is nothing. Party line subscribers long ago discovered that three or four can listen on one wire.

The man who experiments in fruit growing may produce a strawberry so big that it will fill a box by itself, and leave no room for deception.

When a real London desperado gets into action he puts a Rocky mountain train robber into the amateur class.

The government has again changed the name of the life-saving station at the west end of Nantucket island, which used to be "Great Neck," from "Maddequet" to "Maddaket," but we shall not learn to spell the new name until we have some assurance that it isn't going to be changed again.

Maine has been one of the great sources of the eastern seaboard's ice supply, but even Maine, where the ice crop seldom falls, is ceasing to depend upon the weather. Artificial ice has been made for some time at the plant of the Maine insane hospital in Augusta and now a large ice manufacturing plant is to be established in Lewiston.

"Filthy Lucre."

The expression "filthy lucre" is of biblical origin, and is to be found in the third chapter of the first book of Timothy, where the qualifications necessary for the office of a bishop are thus set forth: "This is a true saying. If a man desireth the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. A bishop must then be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, nor covetous."
