After giving $687,500 to schools and charitable institutions Mr. Julius Rosenwald joined his family and a few friends and relatives at his home on Roger Williams Avenue Monday where he continued the celebration of his fiftieth birthday in the fashion in which a home-loving man delights. There were thirty-two present and following the luncheon three delightful and clever playlets written by two of the older children were presented by the little folks upon the beautiful terrace. In the evening a dinner was given at which only relatives and closest friends, forty-four in number, were included. It was a thoroughly enjoyable and informal occasion at which original poems and songs composed by the guests themselves were the most important and pleasing feature.

The beneficiaries of Mr. Rosenwald's gifts are: University of Chicago, $250,000; Associated Jewish Charities, $250,000; Chicago Hebrew Institute, $50,000; Endowment of County Club for Social Workers, $50,000; Booker T. LAKE FORESTERS PLAN TO BEAUTIFY CITY

WOULD REBUILD BUSINESS DISTRICT

Options on Present Building Have Been Secured and Plans are Under way

A plan, similar to the Wheaton proposition, which was advanced some years ago and fell through, for beautifying the business district of Lake Forest has been put under way by a number of the town's wealthy citizens who have secured options on all the business property save one piece. The Lake Forester prints the following regarding the plan, which at present appear rather indefinite:

"A number of our wealthy citizens whose ideas of the beautiful are not realized by our uneven and unsightly business street, have joined together for the purpose of making a harmonious and beautiful city business district. The idea is to adopt some plan that will put the business houses, which are the first view a stranger gets of our city on stepping off a train, in keeping with the residence district instead of what is at present termed a disgrace to a city of our character and wealth.

It is proposed to buy all the property between Anderson's block and the Griffith block, take out all the wooden buildings, widen the street and put in new buildings with harmonious fronts.

Options have been secured on all the buildings but one. Money for carrying out the plans has been subscribed and if the final deal is made, work will begin at once.

Definite plans have not yet been decided upon. Three or four plans are being considered and the final plans will be decided on in a short time."

Obituary

Harry Joseph Broddard the six week old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Broddard died suddenly on Saturday August tenth. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon. Interment was at Moseley's Cemetery.

SOCIETY ARRANGED.

The great mistake being made on both sides of the Atlantic is that smart society is so engrossed with castle building that it loses sight of the fact that at any moment the master builder may call to them to drop their toys or tools and give an account of their stewardship. The reason we have so many divorces is that men and women become repellent to each other from the lives they lead. There is work enough for all women to do if only they address themselves to do it. Than doing nothing at all it would be better to take in a little washing. -Father Bernard Vaughan.

THE CHURCH AND PUBLIC HEALTH.

We are accustomed to estimate the state of Christianity by the number of church members and not by the figures of the bureau of vital statistics. Can it be that a community where the death rate is suspiciously high is at the same time one in which Christianity languishes? The afflictions of humanity, which are largely preventable, make it unnecessarily difficult for Christianity to fulfill its spiritual responsibilities to the world. Single handed, even with all its abundant resources, the church could not adequately sweep these obstacles from its path, but government, clothed with authority of the whole people, if supported by the co-operation of the church, can wrestle successfully with the problem. Thus, although Christianity has established its hospitals, its asylums, homes and dispensaries and its children minister to the sick and suffering, there remains a multitude of accidents and diseases with which she is as yet little acquainted and over which she is not sufficiently exercising herself. The church must now learn to discern the missionary in the doctor, the sanitary engineer and the health official, and these in turn will learn to appreciate the spiritual function of an organization that interprets Christianity by concern for the health of its community. -R. Fulton Cutting, New York Philanthropist.

Hard Task.

"What's the matter, my dear?" "Oh, I'm trying to tell that Gotrox person how perfectly beautiful we think her horrid old wedding present is." -Life.

Ravinia Park Notes

The finest lecture yet given at the theatre under the supervision of the Ravinia Club was that of Mrs. William Spencer Crosby on Thursday afternoon, August eighth when under difficulties such as the extinguishing of the electric lights by a severe electrical storm which lasted throughout the entire performance, she told the wonderfully fascinating story of Parsifal with music. Because of the inclement weather the audience was not large. At half after two o'clock Mrs. Frank R. McMullin came upon the stage and addressed the children of the audience asking those who were enjoying the weekly lectures to assist in bringing new members to the Ravinia Club. She introduced Mrs. Crosby whose constant attendance and devotion to the ideals of Ravinia Park and its high musical standard is so well recognized and appreciated. She is a lecturer of rare talent as well as an excellent pianist and held the attention of her audience through an hour when the elements seemed to be doing their worst to drown the lecturers voice.

On Sunday evening a large number of people, at the first indication of pleasant weather, gathered at the park to hear "Madame Butterfly." In the boxes were Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. McMullin, Mrs. Charles T. Boynton, Miss Edith Boynton and Mrs. Everett Millard, Mrs. J. McGregor Adams, Mrs. Wiegand, Mrs. Oscar A. Woodruff and Miss Drake.

A well filled house enjoyed the presentation of Lucia Di Lammermoor by the opera company on Monday evening. Among Highland Parkers seen in the boxes were Mrs. Charles T. Boynton, Miss Edith Boynton, Miss Margretta Brown, Miss Floyd, Miss Louise Floyd, Miss Irene Floyd, Mrs. Ryther, Miss Everett, Mrs. C. W. Buckley, Miss Sadie Buckley and Miss Elizabeth Buckley.

In addition to the regular program by the Thomas Orchestra the children who attend Ravinia Park next Thursday afternoon are promised a rare treat when Miss Abercrombie, Mr. Baron and Mr. Kreidler will be heard in a program of old songs. This concert will be given in the theatre before the concert as the sixth in the list of special events prepared for the children and is entirely free, as is the admission to the park, for them.

This is to make a handicap tournament. The drawings and handicaps will be determined on Wednesday evening the twenty-first.

The guests tennis tournament, which is under the charge of Mr. Tom Dean, will be played on Saturday the seventeenth.

The dance which took place last Saturday evening was the largest of the season and was preceded by many dinner parties given by the hotel guests and people from neighboring towns.

Preparations are being made for the Arden Shore benefit which will take place on the evening of Tuesday the twenty-seventh. A local talent committee is interested in this event and it is expected to be a brilliant affair. Mrs. Robert B. Gregory will give an illustrated lecture on her trip to India where she was one of the few American women to have the honor of attending the Durbar.

PLAN THIRD TICKET IN COUNTY

Progressives may Name Candidates for all County and District Offices

It is highly probable that the Progressives in Lake County will put a complete county ticket in the field and that Congressman Foss and the Messrs. Olson, Shurtleff and Vickers will have opponents who will canvas for votes under the flag of the Bull Moose. The latter part of the program has been practically decided upon and the matter of a county ticket will be taken up at a convention to be held the latter part of this month.
