The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Mrs. William Ruffner entertained informally at bridge on Thursday afternoon of last week.
 Mrs. Joseph Holbrook was a luncheon hostess for out of town guests on Saturday, Monday and Wednesday of last week.
 Another benefit for Arden Shore is the one to be given tonight in the garden of Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Jr., of Winnetka. The Paulist Choir of forty voices will furnish the program.
 A luncheon for eighty ladies at the Lake Shore Country Club followed by an afternoon of playing golf or bridge whilst as the guests chose, was given on Tuesday by Mrs. Richard S. Kirchberger, Mrs. William Kirchberger and Mrs. Edgar Kirchberger.
 Mrs. Robert B. Gregory will entertain as her guests at dinner on Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bartlett of Lake Geneva and Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Smith of Lake Forest preceding the concert to be given by the Paulist Choristers for the benefit of the Arden Shore encampment fund in the beautiful and artistic garden of Mrs. William G. Hibbard of Winnetka.
 A marriage of interest to many Highland Park friends is that of Mr. Frank E. Matthews of Highwood, Ill., to Alice Mary Neitman of Waupun, Wis. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Dowling, pastor of St. Joseph's Church at Nuptial High Mass at 9 o'clock on August thirteenth. The groom was attended by Mr. Joseph Nevotti of Highwood, Ill. Irene Jeanie Greening of Chippewa Falls, Wis., a cousin of the bride acted as bridesmaid. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neitman. The couple left on an evening train for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home to their friends at 1843 Camp Avenue, Rockford, Ill. The bride is a niece of Mrs. D. P. Sheahan of this city.

The younger set entertained at a beach party on Tuesday evening.
 The members of the First United Evangelical Church gave a farewell surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moon at their home on North Green Bay Road on Friday evening. During the evening a handsome mahogany chair was presented to them. Mr. and Mrs. Moon leave in a few weeks for their new home in Senton, Michigan.
 Highland Park Day, celebrated on Thursday of last week, was the most important social event of recent date and was in every way a great success. Former residents and people from neighboring suburbs were present at the festivities of the afternoon and evening. The weather, though somewhat too cold, was pleasant and the dancing pavilion was well filled for each number was the drawing feature of the evening for both young and old.
 THE PRESS believes that too much publicity cannot be given benefits arranged for such a charity as Arden Shore, so, although a detailed account was given last week, we again call attention to the illustrated talk on India and the Durbar which will be given by Mrs. Robert E. Gregory in the Moraine Hotel ball-room Tuesday evening at eight-fifteen o'clock. A number of young women dressed in oriental costumes brought home by Mrs. Gregory, will sell Indian necklaces, flowers and candy. Following the talk there will be an informal dance. Among those in costume will be Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Jr. of Winnetka, Mrs. Everett L. Millard, Miss Ruth Gregory, Miss Caroline Shields, Miss Edith Lobdell, Miss Sadie Buckley, Miss Margretta Brown, Miss Ruth Boynton and Miss Alice Buckingham. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Millard or at Gsell's Drug Store. The prices are one dollar and fifty cents for admission and fifty cents extra for reserved seats.
