 gram of twenty numbers was given and enthusiastically received by the audience which numbered about forty people.
 Cordial invitations were extended to Miss Biederstadt, by the mothers of the pupils offering the use of their homes for similar occasions. Miss Biederstadt believes that in coming in contact with each other in this manner the students will not only receive fresh enthusiasm and be better fitted for future work but will receive the benefit of public appearance. She desires (through the PRESS) to thank the parents for the hearty co-operation that has been given her and wishes to announce that she is ready for the coming season.

 This Heart," by Emerson. At the evening service at 7:45 the Sermon topic will be "The Name of the City." The chorus will be assisted by several soloists.

The Social Side of Life

Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Miss Frances Hawkins of E. Laurel Avenue, entertained at a bridge party on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. S. Hexter of 315 E. Central Avenue, was hostess at a dinner, for twelve on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James Reilly entertained a number of her former schoolmates at lunchon on Thursday, August 22.

Mrs. Marshall Sampsel entertained the members of the embroidery committee, who are preparing for the Episcopalian bazaar, at luncheon on Tuesday.

Mrs. William M. Dooley had as her luncheon guests preceding the concert at Ravinia Park on Saturday Miss Catherine Kenney and Miss Effie Kenney of Edgewater, formerly of Highland Park.

September 7th is the date for the Lake Forest Horse Show. The event will take place on the Onwentsia Club grounds and the proceeds will be equally divided between the Alice Home Hospital and Lake Bluff Orphanage.

On last Saturday evening the usua dance was given at Highland Hall. It was in the nature of a Japanese party, the guests coming in costume. Preceding the dance a recital was given by some of the guests at the hotel.

Of interest is the announcement made last week of the engagement of Miss Harriet McClure, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James G. K. McClure, to Mr.
 Robert Douglas Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stuart of Chicago.

Miss Marjorie Mihills will entertain at a luncheon on Sunday in honor of Miss Katherine Joy Mauck of Hillsdale, Mich., who with her mother, Mrs. Joseph W.
 Mauck, wife of the president of Hillsdale college, is spending this week in Evanston attending the national convention of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Miss Jean Ten Broeck will be hostess on Friday afternoon at a tea in honor of her two out of town guests, Miss Cornelia Kelliger of Milwaukee and Miss Marsia Hemstead of Des Moines, Iowa. It will be a large affair and the guests will make up a gathering of the young people who leave in the fall for both college and preparatory schools.

Mrs. Jerome G. Beardsley and Mrs. A.
 B. Bastin have as their luncheon guests today a number of relatives among whom are Mrs. Betts and her two daughters, the Misses Betts of Geneva, Ill.; Mrs.
 George Tramer, and her son, Forsythe Tramer of Chicago and Mrs. Otis Beardsley of Highland Park.

Ravinia Park Notes

On last Thursday afternoon a delighful program composed of the songs of childhood was given at the theatre by Jane Abercrombie, Louis Kreidler and Henry Baron. A harp solo by Walfred Singer was also greatly enjoyed. The most familiar melodies were selected by the soloists and the children fancied pleased when the young folks were requested to join in the chorus of such songs as My Old Kentucky Home and Old Black Joe. Following the program the concert given by the orchestra in the pavilion was excellently attended. In Mrs. McGregor Adams' box were Mrs.
 Ward W. Willets and her two daughters and little son with their guest, Miss Sarah Kerfoot, while in the box adjoining were two of the Julius Rosenwald children with their governess.

This afternoon the first annual childrens carnival is being held on the athletic field. The children in costume will be led by the Allendale and Glenwood school bands through the grounds.
 Dances in costume by children of the North Shore towns, Boy Scout maneuvers and an especially arranged musical program will form a part of the entertainment. Miss Jessie Armager Power, 5407 Woodlawn Avenue, is to entertain the young people with songs and stories with Mrs. Percy J. Powers assisting at the piano.

On Friday the florists held their annual convention at the park and the evening found almost every seat in the pavilion reserved for the presentation of the fourth act of Verdi's opera Rigoletto in which Jane Abercrombie, Frances Ingram, Henri Baron, Louis Kreidler and Hugh Anderson sang. Seen in the boxes were the following Highland Park people: Mrs. Charles T. Boynton, Mrs. A. O.
 Mason, Miss Marion Mason and Miss Blanche Mason. Miss Floyd and a party of friends, were in Mrs. J. McGregor Adams' box and the Julius Rosenwald family were present in their box.

On Thursday evening at the presentation of Il Trovatore a box was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Green, Mrs.
 Ford Hall, Mrs. George Hall and Miss Isabel Dennison. In another box were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Rutter, Miss Helen Brown and Miss Lydia Brown of Lake Forest.

Seen in the boxes on Monday evening at the opera "Tales of Hoffman" were Mrs. Charles T. Boynton, Miss Boynton, Mrs. J. McGregor Adams, Mr. and Mrs.
 Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McMullin, J. C. McMullin, Miss Sadie Buckley, Miss Elizabeth Buckley, Mrs. Heath, Mrs. V.
 H. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H.
 Harrington.

Lodge Meetings and News

Eastern Star

A large attendance of members and their friends together with a delegation from Waukegan assisted in conferring degrees on eight candidates for Campbell Chapter, O. E. S., Saturday afternoon and evening. Following the afternoon work a banquet was served to the members and guests. The dining room was attractively decorated with cut flowers and the tables were loaded with all the good things of the season. Campbell kids used as place-cards caused considerable amusement.
 Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening work.

North American Union

The regular monthly meeting of Highland Council, N. A. U., was held Wednesday evening, August 21, with a majority of the one hundred members present to hear addresses by L. H. Zimmerman, Orator of the Supreme Council, and Charles M. Olk, Deputy Supreme President. Seven applications for membership were received and the accumulated business disposed of.

Moraine Hotel News

Rumors which are continually being circulated to the effect that Mr. Frederick W. Cushing has sold the Moraine Hotel are absolutely without foundation.

Among the recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bennet, Mr. Alonzo J. Bennet, of St. Louis, Miss Harriet E.
 Hovne of New York, Mrs. Palmer Smith of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Pohatten Clarke and Miss Clemens of St. Louis, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mullen of Hamilton, Canada.

The hotel has been gay during the past week with a number of unusually large dinner parties.

The annual handicap tennis tournament will commence September seventh.
 Entry fees will be fifty cents per person for both singles and doubles. The tournament is in charge of Mr. C. M. Vail of Highland Park. Entrees must be made not later than Thursday, September fifth, on which day the handicaps and drawings will be made. Sixteen entries have already been made and from the amount of interest shown it will be the most important tournament ever held at the Moraine.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness during our bereavement and Rev. Schultze, Mrs.
 Maechtle and Miss Geiser for their

Makes Sewing a Pleasure

If you could eliminate the tiresome drudgery of pedaling--wouldn't sewing be a pleasure instead of a task?

A sewing machine motor attached to your machine does all the work, giving any speed desired by a mere pressure of the foot on the treadle.

Current can be drawn from any one of your electric light sockets--at any time--in any room--at a cost of but a half-cent an hour.

Prices $16 to $25
