In printing the following letter in the column usually occupied by The Man Across the Street the editor of this paper is carrying out the policy which he and the papers publisher decided upon...

EDITOR HIGHLAND PARK PRESS Dear Sir:

I have noticed a tendency in your paper, more or less pronounced to favor the third term candidacy of Mr. Roosevelt and to support his so called Progressive party...

During Mr. Roosevelt's two terms in the presidential office, barring a few episodes of minor importance, I heartily endorsed his administration and admired the man...
