

ALBERT LARSON

Stationer

Dealer in all best grade goods

- Morse's Fine Candies
 - Spalding's Athletic Supplies
 - Dennison's Labels and Tags
 - Eaton, Crane & Pike's Fine Correspondence Stationery
 - Dixon's Pencils
 - Esterbrook's Pens
 - Sanford's Inks
 - McClurg's Books
- And as choice a line of Cigars as you can select from.

Deerfield News Items

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ludwig and daughter Marjorie spent Sunday with relatives in Chicago.

Miss Rehm of Downers Grove was the guest of Mrs. John Vetter the past week.

Mr. Holly and family of Chicago have moved on to the chicken farm formerly owned by Mr. Danson.

Miss Johnson of Champaign, Ill. was a guest at the home of Mrs. Gungel during the week.

The Y. P. M. S. of the United Evangelical church will hold a business meeting and social Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Stryker.

Miss Ludwig and Miss Hassel of Moweaqua, Ill. were the week-end guests of Miss Emma Selig.

Miss Eleanor Meyer and Mildred Knickerbocker were guests of Mrs. Glass of Chicago over Sunday.

Mrs. Adams and granddaughter Lois Adams were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Adams of Grayslake, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Galloway of Sheridan Park were guests at the home of James Galloway Sunday.

Messrs. Henry Segert and Rollo Pike and Misses Ruth and Florence Carroll of Libertyville were week-end guests of Miss Ida Segert.

Mr. Munson entertained his sister of Morris, Ill. the past week.

Albert Clapper was the guests of friends in Chicago Sunday.

A number of Deerfield people attended the annual Lake County Sunday school convention which was held at North Chicago Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. H. E. Moore spoke in "Graded Lessons in Small and Large Schools," Mr. H. E. Moore on "Hand-Work" and Miss Irene Rockenback on "Annual Promotion."

Mr. J. P. Schneider and family have moved to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Easton and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Mason of Half Day, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Frantz and Mrs. E. Frantz were guests of Mrs. Henry Kiest of Shermerville Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pfister of Highland Park were guests of Mrs. C. Antes Sunday.

Mr. Phil Parsons and Miss Virgie Parsons were guests of Miss Margaret Veder Thursday.

John Woodman left Monday night on an extended business trip to St. Louis, Kansas City and Oklahoma.

Mr. Fred Selig has sold his farm and will move into the village in the spring.

Mr. James Woodman of Waukegan was a guest of his mother, Mrs. L. P. Todd Sunday.

The chicken pie dinner given, by the Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church Thursday evening was well attended. The ladies realized the sum of forty-six dollars.

Elliot Lidgerwood of Chicago was the guest of his brother D. N. Lidgerwood, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ives of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Easton over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hatch are now occupying their new residence in Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vetter and Miss Jennie Vetter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Vetter of Chicago Sunday.

Miss Edith Stryker of Oak Park spent Sunday in Deerfield at the home of her brother.

Miss Mildred Whiting entertained a party of young people Saturday evening. The occasion being the anniversary of her birthday.

Quite an excitement prevailed in the village Sunday afternoon when a large straw stack on the George Antes farm caught fire and the Deerfield volunteer fire department was called out. An immense crowd of people gathered in a short time including forty or fifty automobiles which chanced to be passing. The Deerfield engine refused to work but the Wheeling fire company were more successful and soon had the fire under control so no further damage resulted.

The Muhlke family celebrated a family reunion by a dinner given at the home of R. M. Vant Wednesday afternoon, October seventh. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Vant and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kret and daughter Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Arno Frantz, Mrs. C. G. Muhlke and daughter Laura of Highland Park, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Muhlke and son Orrin of Libertyville, Mr. and Mrs. George Brand, Miss Charlotte Brand and Irving Brand of Highland Park and Mrs. Will Clark and daughter Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brand of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Muhlke and son Harry of Deerfield. It may be of interest to know that four generations were represented at this gathering.

A settlement worker from Chicago will speak on slum work at the United Evangelical church Friday evening. All are invited to attend.

Mr. Almon Powers was the week-end guest of Miss Mildred Whiting.

Announcement is made of the wedding of Miss Maud M. Rectenwald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rectenwald, to Mr. John Rhode of Kenosha, Wis. which took place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of the bride. Only immedi-

40,000 DRUG STORES

There are more than 40,000 drug stores in the United States and Canada. If all these stores were so located that you might just as easily avail yourself of the services of any one of them, and if you had a prescription that you were very anxious to have rightly filled, you could do no better than to bring it to us.

DALE SWEETLAND'S PHARMACY

ate relatives and friends of the family were in attendance. Rev. F. Boswold, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church officiated. Miss Julia Flament was bride's maid and Mr. John Rectenwald, brother of the bride was best man. The bride wore a gown of white net and a tulle veil. The home was prettily decorated with flowers and ferns. Following the ceremony a supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Rhode left Sunday for their home in Kenosha.

Obituary

Harriet Wilson Curtis

On Thursday, October seventeenth, nineteen hundred and twelve, Harriet Wilson Curtis, wife of John Fitch Curtis, of 338 Linden Avenue, departed to the spiritual world. As the leaves seer, gently falling, so was the termination of her life in this world. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. William H. Moore, and Mrs. Ida McWhinney of Chicago, Mrs. Eugene A. Bournique and one son, Mr. John F. L. Curtis of Highland Park, eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Mrs. Curtis was born in Rochester, N. Y. in 1836 and was married to Mr. Curtis in 1860. Their Golden Wedding was celebrated on Christmas day of 1910 at their lovely home in this city.

The funeral services were held at her late residence on Sunday October twentieth. Rev. Percy Billings, pastor of the New Church, at the corner of Woodlawn and 46th Street, of which she was a member, officiated and in commencing his remarks he declared that we do not stand in the presence of death but in the presence of resurrection and that her life in this world was manifested through this material body which is now dead, but that she still lives. The interment took place at Rose Hill. The pall bearers were her nephews and grand-children, Mr. D. B. Curtis, Jr., of Milwaukee, Mr. W. L. Loveland, of Kalamazoo, Mich., Mr. Edwin and James Wilson of Chicago, Mr. Curtis A. McWhinney, of Chicago, and his brother Mr. Wilbur F. McWhinney, of Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. Mary L. Brand

Mrs. Mary L. Brand died Sunday evening, October 20, at six o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg. Mrs. Brand was the daughter of Gerhardt and Wilhelmina Wessling and was born March 20, 1851 in Northfield, Ill., where she attended school and where she was united in marriage to the late Silas T. Brand, who died in June, 1911. Shortly after their marriage they moved to this city and four children came to bless their union. Following the death of her husband her health began to fail and last spring she became seriously ill.

The departed was converted in early youth and united with the Evangelical church of which she remained a loyal member to her last hour. Her home was the first meeting place of the Evangelical church in Highland Park. She loved to work with children and for eighteen years had charge of the primary department of the Sunday school and for many years she was superintendent of the Cradle Roll and leader of the Mission Band. Well known in the city and having many friends she was an active worker for the poor in their need. Three daughters survive her, Mrs. Mable W. Noerenberg, Mrs. Gertrude Decker, and Mrs. Elsie Grant, the fourth child, a son Elmer having died in early youth.

Funeral services were held from the United Evangelical church Wednesday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock. Rev. Van Evert preaching the service. Interment was in Northfield cemetery.

Mr. Henry Hellmuth

Mr. Hellmuth, who has been well known Highland Park for the past six years, died Tuesday evening at seven o'clock in the Cook County Hospital where he was taken after an attack of paralysis Thursday morning about ten o'clock. Mr. Hellmuth, who is seventy-five years of age made his home with his daughter, Mrs. M. Dietrich of W. Central Avenue and was in the habit of taking morning walks. When he left home Thursday and did not return before noon Mrs. Dietrich did not worry but about one o'clock she sent her daughter, Miss Emma Fossbender to search for her grandfather and he was found by her at Benson's ice house where he had fallen into the pit, apparently when over taken with paralysis. Besides Mrs. Dietrich two other daughters, Mrs. Louisa Drake of Dennison, Iowa, and Mrs. Lena Poltera of Coldwater, Kansas, who are here for the funeral survive him. Funeral services were held at Priors Undertaking Rooms this afternoon, interment being in Mooney's Cemetery.

Owing to a mistake the above notice, after being put in type was omitted from last week's paper.

Christmas Suggestions

Our handsome assortment of "things for Christmas" is now on display and the early buyers will have their choice of the finest line of Jewelry, Hand Painted China, Cut Glass, Toilet Articles, etc., ever shown in Highland Park, and DON'T FORGET that with every 50c cash purchase we are giving a coupon which entitles the holder to a chance on the following prizes:

- FIRST PRIZE Ladies' or Gent's 17 Jewel Elgin Watch
- SECOND PRIZE $5.00 in Merchandise
- THIRD PRIZE $3.00 in Merchandise
- FOURTH PRIZE $2.00 in Merchandise

Charles M. Schneider
13 St. Johns Avenue Telephone 331

The Parisian Hat Shop

Second Floor Rood Building will have on display for your inspection, the latest styles and ideas in Seasonable Millinery
Mrs. Geo. Hall Evanston

Our "Want ads" bring results

FORD

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Now---you can afford a Ford. The price is within easy reach---down to where the man who has to count his dollars must count his time of small account---if he does not drive a Vanadium-built Ford.

- Runabout - - - - $525
- Touring Car - - - - 600
- Town Car - - - - 800

These prices, f.o.b. Detroit, with all equipment. An early order will mean an early delivery. Get particulars from

A. H. MUHLKE
Deerfield, Illinois

Good Writing Paper

- Lord Baltimore Linen, per pound - - - 25c
- Bokhara Linen, per pound - - - - - 35c
- Symphony Lawn Linen, per pound - 50c
- Steel Embossed Initial Box Paper at 35c
- Best Correspondence Cards, box - - - 25c

Schumacher's Drug Store

The Rexall Store

Everything For Halloween

Our display of Halloween novelties cannot be duplicated in Highland Park. You will find all kinds of decorations, Witch Cats, Pumpkin Heads, Horns, Favors, Japanese Lanterns, Candy Boxes, etc., at lowest prices.

THE BEE HIVE BARGAIN STORE

212 E. Central Ave. E. G. Burrill, Prop. Highland Park

CLEANING AND PRESSING

Save money by getting your work done at John H. Honaker's 17 W. Elm Place, one block north of Central Avenue, near Second Street.
Tailoring of all kinds. All work guaranteed