Y. W. C. A. Association

The girls who are making a canvas for subscriptions to the Press are earning a good sum for the Association's treasury. Members should remember that every subscription or renewal of a subscription turned in by them means a good commission for their organization. Miss Wales will furnish particulars and subscription blanks.

On Monday evening, October 28th, the Highland Camp Fire gave a dinner at the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Central Avenue. According to the rules of the Camp Fire Girls the meal was prepared and served by two members of the Camp, Helen Ewart and Edith Davies. The table center piece was of fagots and autumn leaves, with a crane and little old iron kettle (a treasure brought from Scotland). At each place the Camp Fire idea was carried out by an arrangement of candy sticks tied as fagots. The dinner was well prepared and daintily served. Two other members will serve a dinner at some later meeting.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 30th, a club of high school girls gave a Hallowe'en party to some of their friends. The decorations, entertainment, refreshments, prepared entirely by the girls showed originality on the part of the hostesses.

This evening the Embroidery class will celebrate Hallowe'en. This class is becoming very popular. Between twenty and thirty girls are members.

Friday afternoon the Blue Eagle Camp made up of Junior members of the Y. W. C. A. will prepare their first meal at the Association rooms. The mother of one of the members of the group will direct the girls in their first cooking lesson. We hope to have the assistance of other mothers for future lessons.

Monday, 3:30 to 5:00 p. m.: Meeting of Blue Eagle Camp Fire Girls; 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., meeting of Highland Camp Fire Girls every other week. On alternate Mondays the Monday evening Club holds its meetings at the club.
