The Highland Park Club

Attention of members is called to the notices recently issued regarding the regulation of visitors cards to the club. Members wishing these cards are asked to apply as far in advance as possible in order that they may be mailed to the guests in time for what ever occasion they are required particularly so if they are wanted for the dances and moving pictures. Quite a number of telephone messages are received on the day of the events, too late for invitations to be mailed.

Rehearsals for the Southern Musical party are well under way and under the competent direction of Mrs. Charles Schaffler, an unusually good entertainment will be presented on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. tenth. The amateur performances given in the past at the club, have been extremely popular and a great amount of excellent talent is to be found among the members. Rehearsals will be held on the evening of Monday, Dec. 2nd and a full dress rehearsal on December 9.

The moving picture exhibitions will be resumed on next Friday, Nov. 29 and will commence promptly at eight o'clock p. m. The Pathe Picture of Current Events will be the second on the program.

The Thanksgiving eve cotillion will take place Wednesday under the leadership of Mr. Alvar Bournique. It is to be a brilliant affair and dinners will precede the dance. Among the hostesses are Mrs. Henry Doty, Miss Margaret Deming, who will entertain several friends informally as will Miss Marjorie Pöllansbee.

Ossoli Club

An excellent meeting was held on the afternoon of Thursday, November twenty-first at the Highland Park club at three o'clock when Mr. Lester Bodine, Superintendent of Compulsory Education, addressed the members of the Ossoli. Preceding Mr. Bodine's address a brief talk was given by Dr. Halsey of Lake Forest, president of the board of directors of Deerfield-Shields, who mentioned the needs of the high school and spoke of the appreciation felt by those who were interested when anything was done to further the interests of the school. Principal Jesse L. Smith and Miss Guiney of the Elm Place Grammar school also appeared on the program. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Ira J. Geer, chairman; Mrs. John Putnam, Miss Bliss, Miss McCord, Miss Miller and Miss Guiney.
