Salyards, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Clow, E. Maechtle, Miss Inman, Mr. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, Harry White, and Mr. and Mrs. Bloomfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Biddlecom of Waukegan announce the engagement of their daughter, Miriam to Harry F. Prussing, son of Eugene E. Prussing of Chicago, formerly of this city. The betrothal is the second announcement made in the family of Mr. Prussing within a month; news of the engagement of Mrs. Ella Jorgulesco of Berlin, formerly Ella Prussing, to Herr Walter Friedeberg of Berlin, having come from Berlin a few weeks ago.

About forty of the telephone girls enjoyed a jolly sleigh ride party on Saturday evening, driving to Ft. Sheridan and returning to the home of Miss Frances Sash where a very delicious dinner awaited them. The tables were attractively decorated with red roses. After dinner the evening was spent in games and dancing.

Of interest to many of the friends of Miss Olive Berry, who was a former student at both the Elm Place school and Deerfield-Shields, is the announcement by her parents, Col. and Mrs. Berry of Ft. D. A. Russell, Wyo., formerly of Ft. Sheridan, of her coming marriage to Dr. Robert C. Mac Donald of the Medical Corps, U. S. A. which will take place in April.

Mrs. Joseph Leaming was hostess to the Daughters of the American Revolution at their regular meeting on Monday afternoon, March third. A delightful program was presented and Mrs. Frank R. Cain, who has an exceedingly charming voice, sang several selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles E. Weeks.

Mrs. William Louderback was hostess at a very attractive luncheon party to eight guests on Tuesday of last week in honor of several of her army friends among whom were Mrs. Robert M. Getty, Mrs. C. C. Clark, and Mrs. John Irwin Marshall. The center piece of the luncheon table was composed of corsage bouquets of violets which at the close of the luncheon were presented to the ladies.

An engagement of interest to a number of Highland Parkers which was announced on Monday is that of Miss Marguerite White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew White of Rogers Park, to Dr. Floyd Donoville of Dwight, formerly of Chicago. Both Miss White and her fiancée have been frequent guests here during the past three years.

The wedding of Miss Lucia Osborne Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sherman Ford of the Moraine to William McMurtrie Rutter of Chicago took place on Tuesday morning, March 11, at ten o'clock at Trinity church. The ceremony was performed by Dr. P. C. Wolcott. It was a very simple and quiet wedding only the immediate families of the bridal couple being present. The bride has lived in Highland Park for a number of years and is well known for her interest in Hull House where she was at one time private secretary to Miss Jane Addams and she is also an ardent worker in the cause of Woman's Suffrage.

A number of Highland Parkers enjoyed an informal Tango party at the home of Mrs. Frederick Baylies of Central Ave. on last Thursday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Boynton, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Chittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, Mr. George H. Merryweather, Miss Merryweather, Miss Shields, Miss Viola Shields, Miss Clark, Miss Mary Clark, Miss Dorothy Clark, Mr. Thomas Troxel, Mr. Harry Towner, Mr. Harry Miller, Mr. Culver Shields, Mr. Allen Jones and Mr. Walter Egan.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Adolphus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf Adolphus, 5554 Sheridan Road, Chicago, to Mr. Wilbur Hattery, Jr., took place on Wednesday evening at six o'clock at the home of the brides parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hattery will go to the coast on their wedding trip and will be away six weeks. Miss Adolphus, who has acquaintances in Highland Park has been among the guests at the entertainments given by Miss Cecil Vail.

Mrs. George E. Nichols, who is Recording Secretary of the Chicago Ogontz Association, Mrs. Joseph Terbell and Miss Catherine Cushing, who are members of the Board of Directors and Mrs. A. B. McCaughey are interested and will take part in a benefit to raise money for the day nursery which the association supports and which is now located in its new building at 1600 So. Allport Avenue. Through the courtesy of the Chicago Kennel club, the association will receive receipts for the first day of the dog show on Wednesday, March 25, at the First Regiment Armory, Michigan Ave. and Sixteenth St. It is expected a great many Highland Parkers will attend the show on the 26th and each ticket purchased for that particular day means enlarging the fund for the babies benefit. Mrs. George Nichols has the sale of tickets in Highland Park and will be glad to send them to people upon request. The day will be in a measure a social affair for many prominent women are members of the association and plan entertaining at luncheon preceding the show as well as taking great interest in the sale of tickets.

The farewell reception given at the Baptist church on Friday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Brown who left this week with their daughter, Miss Lurene Brown, for Panama City, Fla., where they will occupy a bungalow overlooking the bay, was a very pleasant affair, and the old friends of the guests of honor who are among the oldest residents here, gathered to enjoy a social time. The refreshment tables were prettily decorated in jonquils and lighted with yellow shaded tandles. Mr. D. M. Erskine acted as toastmaster, fulfilling the capacity in a manner which delighted those present. He made a clever presentation speech which showed he had a fund of humor in command, in presenting to Mr. and Mrs. Brown as the gift of their friends in the church, one dozen silver spoons of the Madame Jumal pattern as a token of their appreciation of their devotion to and work in the Baptist church for the past twenty-eight years. Mrs. Brown had filled the office of president of the Missionary Society for a number of years and had been one of the most able and interesting of presidents since its organization while Mr. Brown was a trustee of the church. Mrs. F. B. Green, Rev. Henry Clay Miller, and Mr. F. D. Everett made addresses which were exceedingly enjoyed and appreciated.

There has been much comment made upon the unusual amount of entertaining and lack of the observance of Lent this season by society in general, never the less the ladies of Highland Park have devoted the greater part of their time to working and planning in the interest of the bathing beach benefit which is taking place today at the Highland Park Club. Heretofore the afternoon tea table has been an attractive drawing feature but today was served by Mrs. James L. Martin and her assistants from an attractively decorated and restful booth is successfully taking the place of the tea table. A very good menu at not an exorbitant price will be served at the cafeteria supper between the hours of five thirty and eight thirty o'clock in the ball room and maids in white cap and apron will give the most competent service. Mrs. C. C. Hughes is chairman of the supper table committee assisted by Miss Catherine McCauley and Miss Annie Cobb. Among the young ladies waiting on table are the Misses Donna Drew, Viola Shields, Marjorie Leaming, Kathleen Bergen, Marjorie Mihills, Olga Taylor, Louise Taylor, Marjorie Loudon, Dorothy Bastin, Ruth Beardsley, Jean Ten Broeck, Ruth Kerfoot, Margaret Kerfoot, Esther Kerfoot, Cecil Vail, Catherine Cushing, Helen Rudolph, Grace McKee and Marguerite Schaefer. To Mrs. Rex Lyander Jones, a woman whose executive ability is combined with rare tactfulness, the main responsibility was given when she was appointed chairman of this Domestic Arts and Science Day and Highland Parkers having seen her manage and direct the well remembered and apparently impossible feat in the way of raising an enormous fund at a church bazaar as that of the Presbyterian sale, which took place over a year ago, the success of this immense undertaking is not questioned.

Had Poor Taste.
"That's a valuable dog of yours."
"Yes, but he doesn't know he's a valuable dog. Look at him, will you, scratching yonder in that cheap dirt when he might as well be up the boulevard scratching in ground worth $500 a front foot!"—Washington Herald.

An interesting and attractive program of music which enlisted the services of pupils from Everett, Sbermerville and Deerfield was given by the piano students of Miss Frances Biederstadt at the home of A. Miss Lillian Dollard of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. J. Antes, Jr. this week.

Miss Sadie Galloway was the victim of a pleasant surprise last Saturday night, when a sleigh load of friends poured in upon her about ten o'clock. The party had started in good season, but alas, when half way to their destination, the old bob sleigh acted like the famous "one horse shay," and it took some little time to pick up the pieces, the sleigh having utterly collapsed and spilled its load in the snow. However, no one was hurt and amid much laughter, the various boxes of lunch were found and the men rigged up a rough conveyance out of the debris and the party went on their way, arriving at the Galloway farm at 10 o'clock where they made merry until 12 o'clock when they started on the home run with much better results. All who were on the load say it was a pleasant evening despite the "spill."

Last Tuesday the Luncheon and Card club which meets semi-monthly, was entertained by Miss Woodman. Luncheon was served at one o'clock after which the ladies played 500 from 2:30 until 5 o'clock. The first prize, a cut glass oil cruet was won by Mrs. O. Beecham; second prize, a cake plate, was won by Mrs. Kress, and the "booby," a handkerchief, was taken by Mrs. L. Pettis.

The musical event of the season was the delightful piano recital given by Miss Ida Knaak assisted by her sister, Miss Emilie Knaak who read a number of interesting pieces. The affair took place in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening and was enjoyed by a great many eager listeners.

QUEER WAYS OF THE ARAB.

His Methods of Life and His Contempt For Womankind.

An Arab on entering a house removes his shoes, but not his hat. He mounts his horse upon the right side, while his wife milks the cow on the left side. In writing a letter he puts nearly all the compliments on the outside. His head must be wrapped up warm, even in the summer, while his feet may well enough go naked in winter.

Every article of merchandise which is liquid he weighs, but he measures wheat, barley and a few other articles. He reads and writes from right to left. He eats scarcely anything for breakfast, about as much for dinner, but after the work day is done he sits down to a hot meal swimming in oil or, better yet, boiled butter.

His sons eat with him, but the females of his house wait till his lordship has done. He rides a donkey when traveling, his wife walking behind. He laughs at the idea of walking in the street with his wife, or of even vacating his seat for a woman. If he be an artisan he does work sitting, perhaps using his feet to hold what his hands are engaged upon.

He drinks cold water with a spoon, but never bathes in it unless his time be on the seashore. He is rarely seen drunk, is deficient in affection for his kindred, has little curiosity and no imitation, no wish to improve his mind.—Everyday Life.

FEEDS THE BRUTES.

London's Restaurant That Caters to Domestic Animals Only.

One of the most interesting restaurants in the world is one in which the only diners are domestic animals. The restaurant is in Westminster, London. The sign on the window reads: RESTAURANT FOR DOMESTIC ANIMALS. ENGLISH MEAT ONLY. FRESH TWICE DAILY.

The restaurant is arranged so that the domestic animals which patronize it may be perfectly comfortable while they are getting their meals. Those that wish to do so may sit down while eating. The women who serve the diners are very fond of animals and know the wants of each particular customer. One of the regular callers at the restaurant, a dog, prefers having his meals in private, so instead of eating his luncheon in the restaurant, he walks from his home to the place every day, buys his luncheon and carries it home. He pays his own bill at the end of each week, carrying the money tied in a little wallet around his neck.

Cats, canary birds, goldfish, parrots, monkeys, squirrels and goats are also provided for in the restaurant. There is a branch of the establishment at 125 York road, Battersea.
