MRS. SWAIN SAYS:

"During all the 33 YEARS that I have kept house I have never used a more satisfactory furniture polish and floor cleaner than NU-FINISH. Accept my highest recommendations for same."

NU-FINISH

is a marvelous dusting-cleaning-polishing liquid. With it you just dust in the usual way—but what a difference! No dust flying in the room to settle down again. Every speck is taken up and taken out—not just stirred up. And, at the same time, with no extra work, your furniture, woodwork and hardwood floors are cleaned and polished. Try a 5c bottle.

Highland Parkers have given generously to the flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana and collections were taken on Sunday at a number of the churches. The collection at the Christian Science church amounted to two hundred dollars and at the Presbyterian to eighty-eight dollars. The Episcopalian church joined with the Y. W. C. A. in sending a donation of clothing to the people of the flooded districts.

The people of Highland Park deserve a great deal of thanks for their generous donations to the flood sufferers. On Monday morning three huge boxes packed to their utmost extent, were sent to Ohio by the members of the Y. W. C. A. The merchants donated very willingly. Mr. Bjornahl and Mr. Kline gave shoes and mended old ones, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Warren donated the boxes and Mr. Bowden gave an enormous amount of corned beef. The men's clothing contributed was unusually fine.

The Harder hardware store is being completely remodeled and enlarged. The fixtures and shelves are new entirely and an extension is being added to the rear of the store while the workshop formerly occupying space on the first floor has been moved to the second. Mr. Harder has also purchased a stunning new auto truck manufactured by the Chase Co., which arrived here Tuesday.

Members of the Campbell Chapter of Eastern Star entertained at an informal dance at Ravinia Park Casino on Wednesday evening.

The Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church held an unusually successful meeting on Monday and luncheon was served to seventy-five guests by the following hostesses: Mrs. Tillman, Mrs. Frederick Schumacher, Mrs. Beardale, Mrs. F. B. Knight, and Mrs. A. L. Reining. A plea for clothes for the flood sufferers had been sent out to the ladies of the church and as the result a large box was packed with the many donations and sent off on Monday. Following the luncheon the Foreign Missionary Society held their program. Mrs. Henry M. Bacon, vice president, occupied the chair in the absence of the president, Mrs. Charles C. Schaffner. The speaker of the afternoon was Miss Mary Foreman, a missionary from India who returned recently to this country after ten years devoted to the natives of India of whose home life she gave such an interesting account. She spoke especially of the women and girls whose life is such a martyrdom in whom she takes the greatest interest. The spirit of India was present in the music of the afternoon. when Miss May Johnson of Chicago, who has a rarely beautiful voice, sang a group of Indian lyrics.

The Westminster Guild met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Carolyn Shields. The study of China was resumed and among the topics discussed were Confucianism, Taoism, and Buddhism. Especial study was made of the peculiar form of worship of idols by the Chinese to whose religion their seems to be no depth. Mrs. George Washington Childs, who had visited in China, told of the different manners in which the people worship idols and Mrs. Ward Knapp spoke upon Taoism. This was followed by the Bible study when Miss Edith Holmes gave an interesting talk on the Life of St. Paul. A new plan of study was adopted for the first time and found to be successful. A social hour followed and Mrs. Tillman poured at the tea table. Among those present were Mrs. C. G. Alexander, Mrs. A. Lawrence Mills, Mrs. Francis N. Bard, Miss Moss, Mrs. Gerard Van Schaick, Miss Edna Van Riper, Miss Mildred Coale and Miss Yoe. The next meeting of the class will be held on Tuesday, April 15, at the home of Mrs. Frederick A. Watkins.

The Highland Park Club

Thursday night the young people were well represented at the Junior dance which came during the Easter holidays and there were sixty-eight in attendance. Among those who gave dinners preceding the dance were Mrs. Carleton Moseley, dinner for ten young people in honor of her daughter, Miss Marion Moseley; Mrs. Eugene Andrews entertained in honor of her daughter, Miss Grace who had as her guests, the Misses Caroline Schofield, and Helen Warner and Messrs. Fairchild Doty, Lawrence Karcher, and Seward Baldwin. Mrs. Charles Follansbee entertained in honor of her daughter, Miss Marjorie and among the guests were Miss Marjorie Loudon, Miss Dorothy Loudon, Miss Kathleen Bergen, Miss Jean Ten Broeck, Miss Mary Pierce, Miss Dorothy Bastin, Miss Rowena Bastin, Miss Elizabeth Schumacher, Melville Cobb, "Billie" Cregier, Robert Warner, Clarence Parliament, Lloyd Bergen, James Pierce, Leonard Wolcott and Robert Patton.

It is really amazing how popular the moving picture exhibitions are, an example of which was evidenced on Friday evening when two hundred and fifty people formed the audience to enjoy "The Millionaire Cowboys" and other interesting films. The majority of people are grown-ups who seemingly take great enjoyment in the entertainment as do the children too, of course. There will be moving pictures on Friday night, April 4, at eight o'clock sharp, on Friday, April 11, on Friday, April 18, and on Friday, April 25.

A great amount of interest is being taken by the ladies of the club to make the final card party of the season, a success. Both bridge and five hundred will be played and prizes given on the evening of April 8.

A dance is scheduled for Tuesday evening, April 15.

The annual dinner for men will take place at half after six o'clock on Saturday, April 19 when the retiring officers will give their reports and there will be a general discussion of club affairs followed by election and inauguration of new officers. The ticket of men nominated is as follows: President, George A. Schofield; first vice president, J. V. Norcross; second vice president, Thomas Clements; treasurer, E. R. Phelps; secretary, Fred A. Preston; directors, Dudley Putnam, H. R. Loudon, L. F. McClernan, Everett Deming, and J. B. Card.
