

Lawn Grass Seed

If your lawn is in good shape you don't want grass seed; a liberal dose of fertilizer consisting of bone meal, dried blood and sheep manure, pulverized will keep it good—but if you have a poor lawn give it a raking over to loosen up the surface, put on a layer of fertilizer followed by a heavy sowing of the best seed money can buy. If you haven't a light roller to press the seed down with we will let you have ours and order a warm rain free of charge and if that lawn of yours doesn't improve it is due to not having made use of Bahr's grass seed. Yes! we had to put in another phone; if you hear a sizzling noise on 85 try 78 and get the old man himself.

Bell  System

Every big undertaking has some one big idea back of it. The one big idea back of the Bell Telephone System is Universal Service.

Intelligent and unfaltering adherence to this ideal, has evolved a service so vast, and yet so flexible, that Bell patrons everywhere can talk to points one hundred or fifteen hundred miles distant with equal ease, and at moderate cost.

For rates to any point, call "Long Distance."

Dishes For Convalescents.

Orange Egnog.—Two tablespoonfuls sirup stock, juice of an orange, one teaspoonful lemon juice, half a cupful cold water, an egg. Mix together sirup stock, orange and lemon juice. Separate egg, beat yolk light, combine, adding water. Pour on to stiffly beaten egg white, beat well and serve at once in a tall glass.

To make sirup stock for sweetening acid drinks, boil together two cupfuls sugar and a cupful of water for five minutes, using as needed.

Grape Juice and Egg.—One egg, half a cupful rich milk, a tablespoonful sirup stock, a quarter cupful grape juice. Separate egg. Beat yolk light and add milk, sirup stock, a quarter cupful grape juice and pour into glass. To the beaten white add a little powdered sugar and a taste of grape juice. Serve on yolk mixture. Chill all ingredients before using.

Oyster Stew.—Three-fourths cupful rich milk, six oysters, a quarter cupful hot water, a teaspoonful butter, salt and pepper. Wash oysters, discard liquor and steam over hot water till edges are curled. Scald milk, add to it the butter, pour in steamed oysters and liquor, and season and serve with hot toasted crackers.

Coddled Egg.—One egg, half a cupful milk, a teaspoonful butter, one-eighth teaspoonful salt, speck of pepper. Beat eggs and seasonings together slightly. Have milk scalded. Pour into egg mixture, return to double boiler and cook until set. Serve on buttered toast or wheat crackers.

Game of Fly Away.

Five or more children may play this game either in the schoolroom or playground. The children are seated with their hands in their laps. When "it" says, at the same time raising his hands, "Fly away, mosquito," or "Fly away, robin," or "Fly away," followed by the name of any other thing that flies, the rest of the players are to raise their hands. When he says, "Fly away," followed by the name of some animal that does not fly, the players are not to raise their hands, although the leader raises his. Any one making a miss, either by not raising his hands at the right time or by raising them at the wrong time, becomes "it."
