Ossoli Club

The annual election of officers and a luncheon for members only took place at the Highland Park Club on Thursday. It was a beautiful entertainment and luncheon was served at small tables arranged in the ball room which easily accommodated the eighty two guests. Everything for this luncheon was daintily prepared in the club house by competent cooks. The gathering was a fashionable one and the weather being warm there were many of the latest spring fashions to be seen in the way of alluring costumes and chic little hats. An address of unusual interest was made by Mrs. John Harvey Brown, of Diverson, Vice-President at large of the state and she chose as her subject, "The New Woman and the Old." The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Mrs. W. J. Fyfe; Vice-President, Mrs. Eugene A. Bournique; Recording Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. R. F. Peyton, Jr.; Corresponding Secretary Mrs. A. L. Drum; Board of Directors, Mrs. Daniel Cobb, Mrs. Marshall Sampson, Mrs. Charles C. Hughes and Mrs. Rex Jones.

Highland Park Woman's Club

The annual meeting of the club (for members only), will be held in Library Hall Tuesday afternoon, April 22, at 3 o'clock when reports of committees will be made and the election of officers take place. The list of nominees is as follows: For president, Mrs. Charles H. Baker; for vice president, Mrs. D. M. Erskine and Mrs. A. B. Holabird; for second vice president, Mrs. Frederick C. Noerenberg; for recording secretary, Mrs. A. Leslie McPherson; for corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Dooley; for treasurer, Mrs. John C. Duffy; for directors, Mrs. Maud H. Shannon, Mrs. Henry J. Thayer, Mrs. J. F. Leaning, Mrs. C. F. Drake, Mrs. C. G. Phillips, Mrs. O. E. Olesen, Mrs. L. J. Rice, and Mrs. H. B. Roberts.

There never has been in former years greater interest in the club work manifested than under the four years presidency of Mrs. George H. Campbell, retiring president, whose unprecedented success is an example of her ability which must be indeed flattering. The reason for this success is not far to seek—she is a rare woman who has given much of her time, exceptional good judgment, energy and sincere efforts to make the Highland Park Woman's Club broader in its scope of work and increase in number of those attending, all of which it has done to a surprising length. In fact, the membership has doubled since Mrs. Campbell first took the reins of the presidency into her competent hands. The duties and demands which necessarily come to one in the position she held, were fulfilled and on every occasion of out of town woman's club meeting when she considered it to the interest of this club to be represented, she managed to always be among those to attend. There is much more that could be said in compliment to the retiring president and that which she has accomplished but it would indeed be difficult to do justice in a brief newspaper article. She has had the good fortune to be ably assisted by efficient officers and during the past season those who have served are as follows: Mrs. G. H. Campbell, president; Mrs. Charles H. Baker, Mrs. Frederick C. Noerenberg, vice presidents; Mrs. Thomas C. Williams, recording secretary; Mrs. John A. Putnam, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John C. Duffy, treasurer; Mrs. A. B. Holabird, Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Mrs. Henry J. Thayer, and Mrs. Maud Holbrook Shannon.

The Highland Park Club

The final dance of the season took place on Tuesday evening and was an informal affair at which there were about seventy-eight present. There were a number of people who were onlookers and at one time during the evening there were twenty-five ladies who seemed to enjoy watching the dancers of the new dances quite as much as those participating.

The annual dinner and election of officers will take place on Saturday evening at 6.30 o'clock. An elaborate menu has been prepared and members are requested to notify the steward not later than this evening so that a reservation may be made. The directors have announced an unusual program for the occasion. Dr. Roe of Chicago will give his popular musical selection of topical songs. The chairman of each committee will give an interesting account of the Club's management during the past season. An amendment to the laws of the club will also be asked. There will be motion pictures on Friday evening, April the eighteenth at eight o'clock.

On Friday evening the twenty-fifth it is expected that an unusually good motion picture exhibition shall be given. It is the last picture exhibition of the season and special efforts are being made to obtain one of the latest and best films produced.
