MRS. SWAIN SAYS:

"During all the 33 YEARS that I have kept house I have never used a more satisfactory furniture polish and floor cleaner than NU-FINISH. Accept my highest recommendations for same."

is a marvelous dusting-cleaning-polishing liquid. With it you just dust in the usual way—but what a difference! No dust flying in the room to settle down again. Every speck is taken up and taken out—not just stirred up. And, at the same time, with no extra work, your furniture, woodwork and hardwood floors are cleaned and polished. Try a 25c bottle.

Earl Greeley is ill with scarlet fever and is at St. Francis Hospital in Evanston. "Which Witch?" A delightful little play presented by Miss White's pupils at the Elm Place grammar school on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons were well attended and those present were charmed with the Ginger Bread Witch who lived in a home of cakes and tarts with a ginger cookie fence about it and Hansel and Gretel who came near being made into ginger cookies but weren't. The naughty Ginger Bread Witch, who was Leslie Meyers, was overpowered and thrown into the oven and baked into a cake which the children gleefully ate and the ginger bread fence came to life, after the witch was overpowered, in the form of a number of children. There were forty-five children who acted and those having principal parts were: Hansel, portrayed by Harlen Pingrey; Gretel by Polly Wiles; Ginger Bread Witch by Leslie Meyers; Father by Dwight Moore; Mother by Merriam Metzler; Sandman by Keith Kuhlman, and Dawn by Tom Mann.

Your suits should be pressed and kept in repair by The Reliable Laundry's Tailors.

The Presbyterian church has set aside Saturday afternoon, April 26, as Arbor Day and at 3:30 o'clock the children of the Bible School and charter members of the church and others will engage in planting vines about the new building. The service will be preceded by a musical program in the church and followed by a service on the lawn ending with the planting of more than eighty vines which the various classes, clubs and organizations of the church are furnishing and will plant in the soil which has been especially prepared in advance. In case of inclement weather the service will be postponed.

Parents and Teachers' Association

South Division

On Tuesday afternoon, April 29, Mrs. Earl Spencer will address the mothers study class upon "How Shall we best Prepare Our Children for their Opportunities in Life?" Suggested discussion: How may we help to make opportunities of children more equal for all? The hostess of the afternoon will be Mrs. J. C. Morrison.

High School Division

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: Mrs. William A. French, president; Mrs. Charles H. Baker, secretary; chairman, membership committee, Mrs. O. L. Olesen; chairman, education committee, Mrs. C. G. Phillips; chairman, home and social committee, Mrs. A. L. Renning; chairman, vocational committee, Mrs. Thomas Findlay; chairman of committee on health and hygiene, Mrs. H. M. Bacon.

Elm Place Division

The annual meeting took place last Thursday afternoon and an election of officers took place. Mrs. Abbie B. Bastin, president of the general association, gave an inspiring talk mentioning the enjoyment gotten from the high standards of the meetings and she urged more co-operation of the programs among all of the divisions and suggested the frequent visiting of other divisions than our own and reported the total number of members to be two hundred and six. She also suggested that the program committees hold an early general conference and announced that the general division annual meeting will be held at the high school on May 23. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: Mrs. Thomas Clement, chairman; Mrs. Charles F. Drake, secretary; Mrs. Frank Laing, treasurer. The hostesses who served refreshments following the business meeting were Miss Whitney, Mrs. F. B. Green, Miss White, Miss Grunewald, and Miss Everett.

Send your flat work and rough dry to The Reliable Laundry. They launder fifty pieces for $1.00.

Highland Park Woman's Club

The annual meeting of the club held on Tuesday afternoon was most interesting. The officers for the ensuing year were elected and are as follows: Mrs. Charles H. Baker, president; Mrs. D. M. Erskine, first vice president; Mrs. Frederick A. Noerenberg, second vice president; Mrs. L. Leslie McPherson, recording secretary; Mrs. William Dooley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John C. Duffy, treasurer. Directors, Mrs. Maud J. Shannon, Mrs. Henry J. Thayer, Mrs. C. F. Drake, Mrs. C. G. Phillips. The retiring board presented Mrs. George H. Campbell, retiring president, with a bouquet of American beauty roses and Mrs. A. B. Holabird made an impromptu presentation address in which she expressed the belief that Mrs. Campbell has made the Woman's Club all that it stands for and that her sweet personality, thoughtfulness and tact have never deserted her no matter how trying the circumstances. It is with hearts full of love for Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Holabird said, that the officers were retiring. Another club member arose and spoke of the difficulty she believed the club would have in filling Mrs. Campbell's place. She spoke of Mrs. Campbell as a composer, not of music, but of differences, composing tending to soothe. Composite, she stands for uprightness, loyalty, truth, unselfish and a helper of the oppressed strictly following the teaching of the Bible "Never let the right hand know what the left hand doeth." Above all she possesses one grand trait in woman, simplicity, a key note to success. Following the business meeting refreshments were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Frederick Schaeffer, chairman; Mrs. A. A. Putnam, Mrs. William Lamborn, Mrs. George Bard, Mrs. E. P. Sedgwick, Mrs. Henry Prior, and Mrs. John Scott. Following is the list of ladies who have joined during the year: Mesdames Robert White, George M. Bard, Robert Pease, R. G. Gould, Henry Clay Miller, Henry S. Haskin, John P. Dieter, George O. Fairweather, August Johannesen, Joseph Schoeninger, William H. Lamborn, A. E. Van Hoesen, Sidney C. Yarbrough, Hamilton Smith, Mather Smith, and John E. Conrad.

What would a human being be without its five senses? The mind without any impression upon it would be a senseless spectator. It would have nothing to reason upon. The sense of sight is the one most depended upon to form judgements in matters of business. The mind by seeing can appraise values. In making investments you should use your eyes. It requires expert experience to appraise railroads and public utility values, but it is within the scope of your experience to appraise the value of the security pledged for the mortgages which we sell. Seeing is believing.
