FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

Here is a design in the Craftsman style of architecture that is especially planned for a short lot. The house is carefully arranged and well equipped. There is a living room across the entire front, with sun room adjoining. The sun room gives a habitable piazza the year around. There is an open fireplace at one end of the living room and an open stairway at the other. The dining room and living room are thrown together by a square columned archway. There is a grade door under the main stairs. In the second story there are three large chambers, bathroom and closet space; also a large balcony over the sun parlor. There is a full basement. First story, nine feet; second story, eight feet. Finish throughout first story birch or red oak; finish in second story pine to paint. Birch or maple floors throughout entire house. Size over main part, twenty-five feet wide and twenty-five feet deep. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,800.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains 254 up to date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000.

TARIFF IN HOUSE

Plainly Bears Imprint of President Wilson's Handiwork.

CAUCUS MAKES FEW CHANGES

Underwood Act is Formally Presented in Lower Branch of Congress. Will Be Reported Favorably Tomorrow and Called Up for Debate Wednesday.

The tariff revision bill with its reductions, its long free list, augmented at the last day's session by the ways and means committee, and its income tax, was presented by Majority Leader Underwood for debate in the house of representatives.

The bill will be reported favorably by the Democratic caucus as amended in two weeks' discussion, the bill was reported favorably by the majority of the ways and means committee and called up for debate.

Mr. Underwood predicted that the bill would be passed in the house by May 15. Two months, the administration leaders believe, is a generous time to allot to the senate for its consideration and passage, and unless it is decided to bring in a currency bill hereafter congress should be ready to adjourn about July 15.

Wilson's Views Prevail.
 The bill as approved by President Wilson came through the caucus unscathed. Democratic opponents of free sugar in three years and of free raw wool made the most vigorous fights on the president's suggestions adopted by the ways and means committee, but they were hopelessly outvoted.

The caucus ratified the bill with its minor amendments by an overwhelming vote, some members taking advantage of the rule granting them freedom from the caucus pledge to support the bill in its entirety.

Members who were released from the caucus pledge were Brunsard, Dupre, Lazare, Morgan of Louisiana, on account of sugar; Ashbrook, White and Francis of Ohio, because of wool; Bremner and Kinkead of New Jersey, on account of cattle; Donovan and Kennedy of Connecticut, because of hats; Burke of Wisconsin because of farm products and Fowler of Illinois because of linseed oil.

Changes Not Numerous.
 The principal changes made in the bill were:

Shoe machinery, buckwheat, rye, rabbit fur and phosphoric acid transferred from the dutiable to the free list.

Onyx reduced from 65 cents to 50 cents a cubic foot, to put it on the same basis as marble.

Cut diamonds increased from 15 to 20 per cent.

Castor oil reduced from 15 to 12 per cent.

Cod, seal and herring oil reduced from 5 to 3 per cent.

Sperm oil increased from 5 to 25 per cent.

Vanilla beans reduced from 50 to 30 cents a pound.

Salts and other compounds and mixtures of which bismuth, gold, platinum, rhodium, silver, tin and uranium constitute the chief value cut from 15 to 10 per cent.

The caucus adopted an amendment fixing May 1, 1916, as the date when raw sugar should go on the free list. The time when the income tax shall become effective was left subject to future disposition by the house.

PJPE IS MUCH STRONGER

Assisted to Chair and Sits Up for Half an Hour.

At Rome, Italy, the Osservatore Romano, the official organ of the Vatican, announces that it will continue to print daily all news as to the pope's convalescence notwithstanding the fact that no further bulletins will be issued by the physicians.

The pontiff was lifted out of bed into an easy chair and sat up for half an hour. He was propped up by pillows.

LEGISLATOR IS EXPELLED

Unusual Action Taken Against Member of New Hampshire House.

At Concord, N. H., Clifford L. Snow, member of the house of representatives from Manchester, was expelled from that body, the vote of his former associates being 119 against expulsion and 176 in favor. The action was taken on recommendation of a special committee of investigation which found Snow guilty of offering to sell his vote on several specific occasions.

FLOOD RECEDES AT CAIRO

Ohio River Rapidly Dropping Below the Danger Mark.

The Ohio is falling at Cairo and will be below the danger mark in the next few days. The gauge registers 52 feet, a fall of eight-tenths in twenty-four hours.

The steamer Three States left Cairo for Shawneetown to take off the troops stationed there. Adjutant General Frank Dickson left with a big load of supplies for the flood refugees in the Wabash river bottoms.
