ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Adelaide and Ambrose Reesman returned Sunday from a weeks visit with their grandparents in Constantine, Mich. Mr. John Sneider of W. Central Ave., is at St. Luke's hospital suffering from cancer of the throat.

Another of Highland Park's lovely homes has changed owners. Mr. Frederick Page has disposed of his residence located at the foot of Roger Williams Ave. and overlooking the lake to E. Mandel of Chicago. The residence contains about fifteen rooms and the grounds are extensive and adjoin the place of Morris Rosenwald which was formerly the Frank R. McMullin home.

Moraine Hotel Notes

Bookings are coming in rapidly at the Moraine and give indications of a full season. The regular dances will commence about the middle of June. On Thursday evenings during the season there will be an entertainment in the ball room under the management of Miss Laura Kittredge Kennedy. Miss Kennedy promises a variety of entertainments and has a well known ability in this direction and gives assurance of many enjoyable affairs.

A new refrigerating system has just been installed and is a promised success. Many of the old guests will be back on time as usual, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. George Marcy, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Comes, Mr. and Mrs. Mary J. Insull, Miss Virginia Insull, Mrs. C. H. Chappell, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bowman, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Austrian and family.

The tennis courts which were not very satisfactory last summer are being rebuilt and will be in first class condition by the opening of the playing season.

Your suits should be pressed and kept in repair by The Reliable Laundry's Tailors.

Highland Hall News

Highland Hall will open on June 15 and this will commence the second season of the hotel which gives every indication of being successful, under the management of Mrs. W. E. Schwalbe. This hotel adds but another attraction to our suburb for the management does everything in its power to make the hotel buildings and grounds attractive and the furniture and drapery of the hotel rooms are artistic and homelike. The red brick buildings in their excellent location in the surrounding of ravines and woods and the tennis courts, baseball field and swimming pool in the gymnasium will doubtless prove even more attractive this summer than last to the gay motoring parties which tour from Chicago and other cities through the North Shore.

Many families plan renting or giving up the care of their homes in the summer and going to Highland Hall where they can rest and be near Ravinia Park with its delightful open-air concerts. During the summer season dances will be given every Saturday night and many hostesses will give dinners preceding these popular affairs. The Business Men's Association which gave such a successful banquet and dance at Highland Hall last season are making plans to do so again in the near future.

In the dining room, which is made attractive with pretty window hangings and immaculate damask, will be served excellent meals prepared in the Cuisine to which special attention is given.

ERROR IN TREASURER'S REPORT

Treasurer of Highway Commissioners Hessler Corrects Auditor's Statement.

HIGHLAND PARK PRESS Gentlemen: I wish to call attention to an error in the report of the treasurer of Highway Commissioners published in your paper April 24. The fourth item of "receipts", March 20, 1913, from W. J. Obee, Deerfield Township collector, the amount should read $4,637.75, total receipts, $10,522.41. After the statement was made Collector Obee discovered that he had turned over $175.29 too much. This amount was returned to him but the board of auditors failed to change my statement. Thanking you in advance for publishing this correction, GEORGE HESLER, Treasurer.

RAVINIA PARK WILL OPEN SAT. JUNE 28

ORCHESTRA AND GRAND OPERA SEASON

Chicago Symphony Men Under Stock for Concerts then Conductor Parelli and Opera Stars

Ravinia Park's third season under the direction of the Ravinia Company will begin Saturday, June 28, with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, with Mr. Stock directing and all the soloists in their seats. Mr. Stock will remain for four weeks during which time the usual afternoon and evening concerts will be given at which specially engaged soloists will appear. The popularity of classic dancing with the audiences last year has caused the management to seek contracts with some of the most noted dancers of the world and an announcement will be made shortly of the engagement of one and perhaps two of these artists.

Grand Opera Prospects Bright

When Mr. Stock leaves the conductor's baton will be assumed by Signor Attilio Parelli, an associate leader with Campanini during the Chicago opera season, who will direct the performances of grand opera which will be presented for the remaining six weeks of the park's season. Signor Parelli will have the assistance of the members of the Chicago orchestra and singers from both the Metropolitan and Chicago Grand Opera companies. Included in the latter group will be Jennie Du Fau, soprano of the Chicago company; Lois Ewell, soprano, who after her wonderful success here two seasons ago, will need no introduction to park patrons; Louis Kreidler, baritone, who has been a favorite here for the past two seasons and who lately scored a hit with the Metropolitan company, has been re-engaged; Florence Mulford of the Metropolitan forces will be the contralto while the tenor parts will be sung by Samaloff, who has been the star of the Aborn forces for a number of years, and a singer yet to be engaged. Others now engaged are Wm. Schuster, bass, and Phillip Sein, baritone.

Plans for Casino Changes

Mr. Edward Welsh, who up to the time the present company purchased the park, managed the Casino has returned in that capacity; an assurance that the mistakes of the past two years will be rectified and that department of the park become once more an attraction and source of income. Improvements are already being made in the building and equipment.

Ft. Sheridan Notes

Mrs. S. M. Smith has gone to Ft. Reilly, Kan., to visit her parents, Major and Mrs. Davidson during the absence of her husband, Lt. S. M. Smith who is in Texas Town, Texas.

Mrs. Meredith entertained at dinner on Friday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Syme of Worcester, Mass.

A number of ladies have gone to join their husbands at Texas Town, Texas. Among them are Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Manchester, Mrs. P. W. Brown, Mrs. E. Murphy and Mrs. Beebe.

Lt. Stevenson was transferred to Fort Wayne, Detroit and he and Mrs. Stevenson and son left last week.

Capt. H. R. Hickok was ordered to Chicago to act as captain general while the troops are in Texas. Mrs. Hickok and the captain left last week.

Capt. and Mrs. Moore and son Kenneth were here last week from Washington while Kenneth took the examinations for West Point which were held last week. Mr. and Mrs. Moore and Kenneth returned to their home Saturday.

Lt. H. J. Reilly has a leave of four months and has gone to South America. Mrs. Emory has gone to Ottawa, Canada to visit.

Because so many ladies who were members of the afternoon card club are away, the parties are held Friday evenings and the few husbands and bachelors who remain at the post are allowed to "set in" and fill the tables. Mrs. Saville entertained last week and Mrs. Getty will be hostess Friday evening.

Lt. L. GREGG, who is now stationed at St. Augustine, Fla., was among those who successfully took the examination for promotion to the grade of captain held at that place a short time ago and will shortly receive his commission to that rank.
