A PRACTICAL AND COMPACT PLAN.

Design 745, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

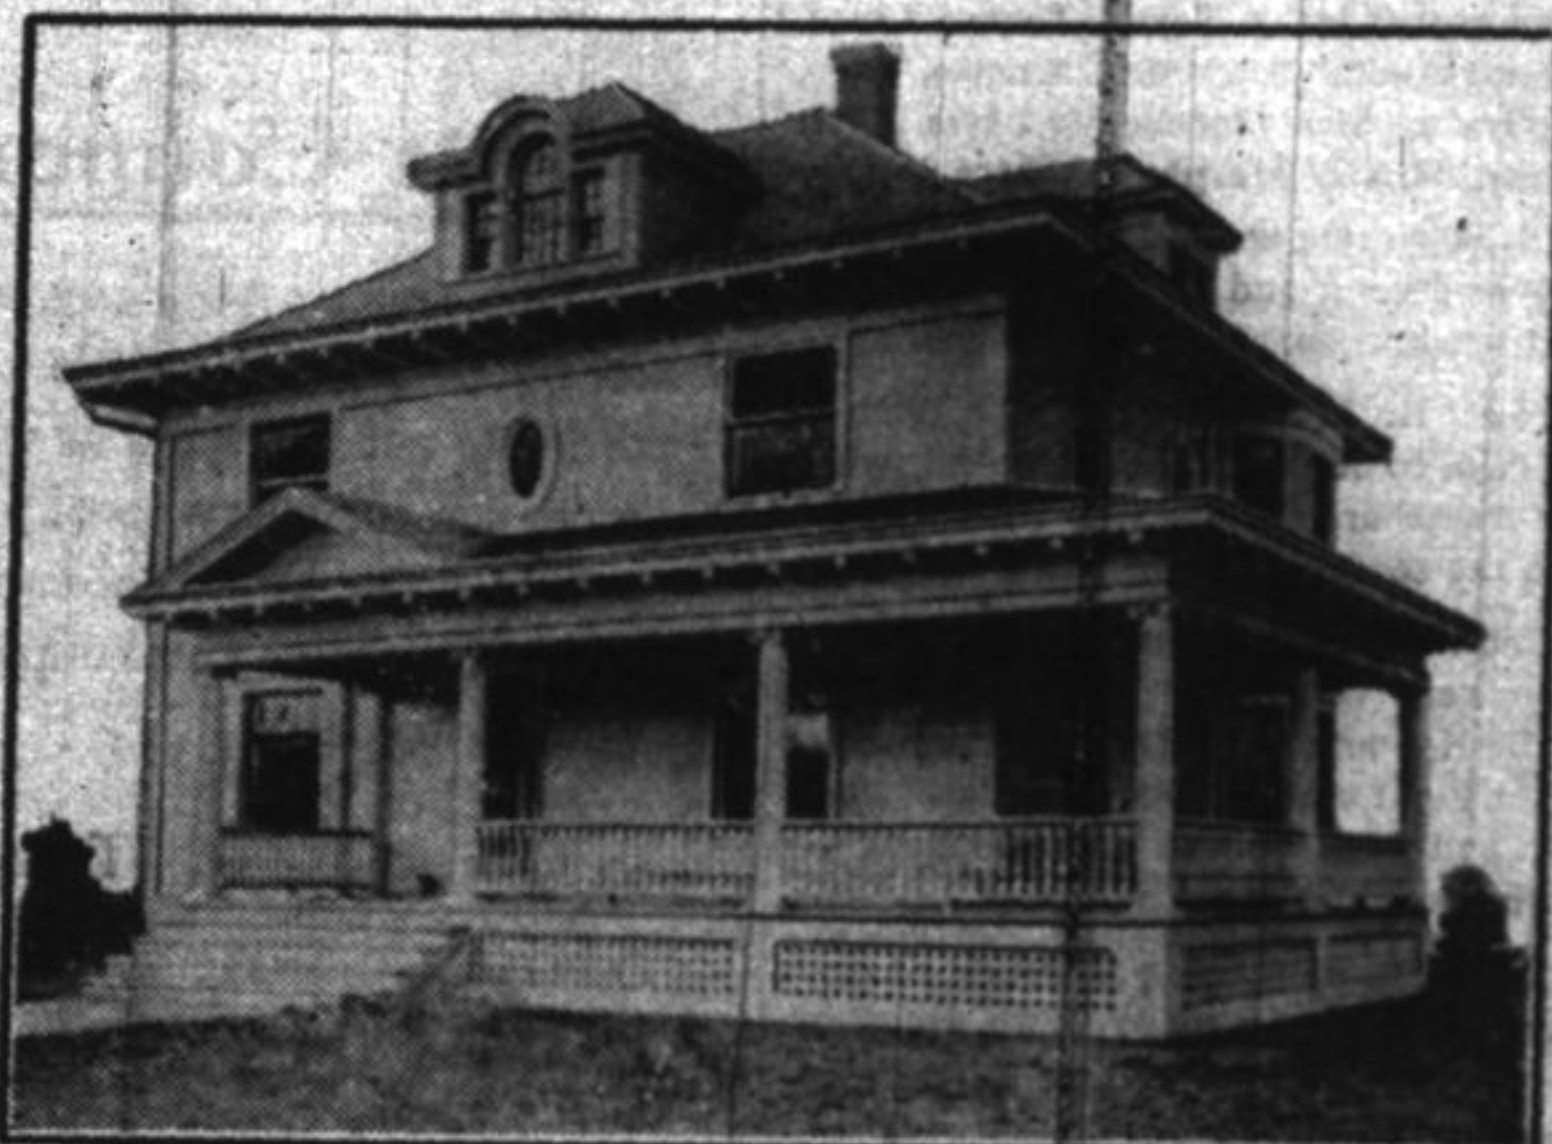

FIRST FLOOR PLAN. SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

This plan is arranged with four living rooms in first story—a reception room, large living room, dining room and kitchen. There is also a pantry, combination stairway and coat closet. Second story has four chambers, well lighted, with abundance of built-in space. Balcony over the one story end in rear, which can be made into a sleeping porch, with main roof carried out over it. Full basement. Red oak or birch finish throughout first story, pine to paint in second story. Birch or maple floors throughout both stories. Size, 28 feet wide and 30 feet deep. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $3,200.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains 254 up to date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000.

A SPACIOUS TWO STORY COLONIAL.

Design 747, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN. SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

Wish to call your attention to the spacious piazza, which practically covers two sides of this colonial home. There is a central hall and large vestibule in this plan. Sitting or living room on one side and library or den on the opposite side. Kitchen, pantry and dining room across the rear. Dining room has bay window across the end; also a built-in sideboard. Kitchen is good sized and has space for all the kitchen fixtures. The refrigerator is built into the wall, doors of which open directly into the kitchen, making a very convenient arrangement for the housewife. Second story has four large chambers, ample closet space and bath with large closet. Size, 34 feet 6 inches wide and 30 feet 6 inches deep. Full basement. First story, 9 feet; second story, 8 feet. Red oak finish throughout first story, birch or Georgia pine in second story. Oak floors in first story, birch or maple floors in second story. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $4,500.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains 254 up to date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000.

GENERAL NEWS.

WASHINGTON—President Wilson was greatly delighted when he received a telegram from political friends at Trenton announcing that a caucus of the state legislature voted overwhelmingly to adopt the compromise jury reform measure which was agreed on at the conference he held with the legislators at the Cateret club in Jersey City last Friday. The president's friends consider that this action by the caucus foreshadows final victory for him in the fight he made for jury reform, culminating in his recent speechmaking trip to Jersey City.

ALBANY, N. Y.—Governor William Sulzer's state-wide direct nominations bill which a Solishes party state convention was defeated in the state senate when it came up for final passage by a vote of 8 to 42. Every one of the fifty senators voted. After the bill was defeated the minority leader, Senator Eion R. Brown, wanted to resuscitate it and pass it after eliminating the provision abolishing party state conventions, but his motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was lost was defeated by a vote of 18-27.

PRINCETON, N. J.—Dr. Francis Tandy Patton, D. D., LL. D., who for the past eleven years has been president of the Princeton Theological Seminary, tendered his resignation to the board of directors of the institution at the annual announcement. It is a curious fact that although the greater part of his life he has been connected with Princeton, Dr. Patton is neither a graduate of the university nor an American citizen. He is of Scottish ancestry and was born and reared in Bermuda.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.—A cablegram from Tokyo to the Japanese-American, a Japanese daily paper of this city, asserts that the Japanese government cabled instructions to Baron Chinda, Japanese ambassador at Washington, to make formal protest against the alien land bill enacted by the California legislature and now awaiting Governor Johnson's signature.

NEW YORK — President Wilson returned to New Jersey to speak in support of a proposition to reform the system of drawing grand and petit jurors which is to be considered at a special session of the legislature next Tuesday. He spoke to large audiences in Newark and Elizabeth and denounced the influences that are seeking to thwart the reform in scathing language.

GARY, IND.—Being arrayed in the uniform of a policeman, Grace Smith, slayer of Clarence C. Murphy in his father's roadside in Gary was hurriedly taken to Crown Point and placed in jail. An alleged plan of friends of the slain man to seize the Smith woman while on her way to the county seat in an interurban car and lynch her was thus frustrated.

CHICAGO — The twenty-seventh anniversary of the bloody Haymarket riot was observed by forty members of the Veterans of the Haymarket Riot association with a meeting held at the Dearborn street police station. The meeting was devoted to reminiscences of the riot and discussion of the police pension bills now before the state legislature.

LONDON, ENG.—A militant suffragette, caught early in the day by the police in the act of placing a bomb at the entrance to the Grand hotel, which is crowded with American tourists was brought up at Bow street police court later in the day and remanded by the magistrate for further inquiries. She gave the name of Ada Ward.

WASHINGTON — Many protests against provision of the pending tariff bill continue to pour into the state department. Acting Secretary Moore said he is following the practice begun by Mr. Bryan and transmitting all communications from foreign governments regarding the tariff bill to Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN. — Major Robert Wilson McClaughry, for fourteen years warden of the federal penitentiary here and one of the best-known criminologists in the United States, has sent his resignation to the department of justice. The warden, who is seventy-four years old, said he thought he "had been on the job long enough."

CHICAGO — Judge Burke has refused to instruct the grand jurors that contracting for voting machines at the expense of the city was in violation of the law and that the election commissioners, Edward S. Taylor and Charles H. Kesslerman, who signed the contracts, were guilty of a criminality.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—A resolution asking the circulation of a petition among the state societies protesting the temporary removal of the liberty bell from Independence Hall, was unanimously adopted at the twenty-second annual meeting of the General Society, Daughters of the Revolution.

You pay a compliment to the intelligence and comprehension of a man of affairs when you transact your business with him by telephone.

Moreover, you show such confidence in the excellence of your proposal that he need not fear it will require tedious and fruitless discussion.

You seem to say, "This case is clear, and I can state it in a few words. You can understand and decide it at once." Such is the impression made by a telephone call.

Successful men convey their impressions in just that way, by the use of the Long Distance Telephone.
