The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Mrs. W. A. Alexander and Mrs. C. G. Alexander entertained informally at bridge this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clifton G. Alexander, 710 St. Johns Place.

Mrs. Charles C. Buell was hostess at a bridge party this afternoon at her home, 406 Laurel Ave.

Mrs. John Grenville Mott entertained several friends informally at luncheon and bridge on Wednesday.

Mr. Leonard Wolcott entertained a few friends informally on Saturday evening. The guests were a number of the young people from the high school and were the Misses Ruth Beardsley, Dorothy Bastin, Rowena Bastin, Mary French, Meriam French, Margaret Phillips, Elizabeth Schumacher, and Messrs. Goodrich Schaffler, Leslie Schaffler, Samuel Bingham, Jack Varcoc, Leigh Shaddler of Rockefeller and Thomas Findlay of Lake Forest.

Master Bobbie Seyrath of Sheridan Road celebrated his fifth birthday on Tuesday afternoon, May 6th, and had as his guests, several of his playmates who were Elizabeth Holland, Leah Lamborn, Bernice Beatty, Frank Griffith, Fred Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bournique will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on June 14 at their home in Chicago.

On Monday night the ladies of the First United Evangelical church arranged a surprise for Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Sr., at their home on Second St., the occasion being in celebration of their Golden wedding anniversary. At the close of the evening a dainty lunch was served.

Of great interest to Highland Parkers was the announcement on Wednesday of last week of the engagement of Miss Adele Deming, daughter of Mrs. Henry Halbert Deming, 4356 Greenwood Ave., Chicago, to Arthur Henry Emerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Emerson of Providence, R. I. The engagement was announced at a luncheon given that day by Miss Deming's aunt, Mrs. William Godfrey Sage, 64 East Elm Street. The Deming family have spent several summers here in the residence of Mr. George M. Millard on Lake Ave. and the Ward Knapp home on Ravine Drive, and Miss Adele Deming was one of the most popular members of the younger set.

An entertainment by girls of the West Division Mission of Chicago, under the management of the J. B. and I. C. clubs of the Presbyterian church will be given in the chapel of the church on the evening of May 29. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the Mission and its work. The I. C. club has a membership of girls and the officers are president, Rowena Bastin; secretary, Esther Hicks; treasurer, Lois Green. The J. B. membership consists of the young boys of the church and the officers are Gray Stubbs, B. B.; Jack Baker, L. B.; F. W. Schumacher, Jr., S. and C. B., and Mr. H. D. Faxon, G. B.

It is said in Evanston and Chicago that there is a marked increase in the number of devotees of horseback riding and that those who talk about the automobile taking the place of the horse are mistaken. In Highland Park this ideal location for just such a sport, the Observer notices we are unlike our athletic neighbors in Lake Forest and Evanston, who daily in the early morning or late afternoon, enjoy a ride, in that the equestrians which habituate the beautiful drives here may be counted on the fingers of one hand. For several years in the crisp cold dawn of winter morns, Mr. C. W. Buckley and his daughter, Miss Sadie, with several dogs following in their wake could be seen by early risers dashing along the roads. Later the younger daughter, Miss Elizabeth who is now in Paris with Miss Buckley, joined her father on his day break gallops. Miss Sadie Buckley, however, who is an excellent horse-woman of the most up to date type, never neglects this exercise. It is a pleasure to observe Mr. A. A. Putnam who, in faultless riding attire, creates admiration by those who so frequently see him correctly sitting on his sorrel horse. Others who indulge in the sport almost daily are Mr. Bowen Schumacher who is often accompanied by one of his daughters, Miss Catherine or Miss Elizabeth; and then there is Mr. Freeman Hitchcock who rides a splendid black horse. During the summer season several guests at the Moraine enjoy riding and among these is Mr. Dudley Rutter who daily is seen in Chicago in the winter days on the Lake Shore drive bridge path, who is an excellent polo player and a member of Onwentsia. The old residents remember the well and miss the familiar forms of the now young matrons, Mrs. Thomas W. Bellhouse, formerly Miss Helen Morgan, who with her sister, Mrs. Frederick North of Winnetka, formerly Miss Julia Morgan who was a daring rider, devoted many hours to the sport and rode wonderfully well in the side saddle, always correctly habited. Miss Hazel Ritchie, who several years ago kept her saddle horse here gave it up because of the lack of equestriennes in this city. She is a well known winner of blue ribbons and annually takes prizes at the South Shore Country club horse show as well as at the Chicago, at one time taking the honors for which the famous horse-woman, Miss Rasmussen was trying and in preceding years had won. Miss Ritchie uses the side saddle.
