MRS. SWAIN SAYS:

"During all the YEARS that I have kept house I have never used a more satisfactory furniture polish and floor cleaner than NU-FINISH. Accept my highest recommendations for same."

NU-FINISH

is a marvelous dusting-cleaning-polishing liquid. With it you just dust in the usual way, but what a difference! No dust flying in the room to settle down again. Every speck is taken up and taken out-not just stirred up. And, at the same time, with no extra work, your furniture, woodwork and hardwood floors are cleaned and polished. Try a 25c bottle.

Mr. Harry Towner is visiting at the home of Mr. John Glass until the opening of Exmoor on the 22nd, where he will spend the summer.

Mrs. Josephine Holbrook had as her guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Butler of Chicago. Mr. Butler, who is the Sunday editor of the Chicago Record Herald, is a native of Highland Park and was born here about thirty years ago at Highland Hall, a seminary situated on the property of the present Northwestern Military Academy where his father, Dr. Samuel Butler, a member of the faculty of the Chicago University, was at one time principal. Mrs. Samuel Butler, the mother of Sheppard Butler died about seven years ago and is well remembered by the old residents here as Miss Shepard who resided in the house now occupied by the Simeon B. Chittendens.

Mrs. Ward Knapp was hostess on Tuesday at her home 500 Glencoe Ave., to the members of the Westminster Guild at the most interesting meeting yet held. It was the privilege of those present some twenty-two young women to hear an address by a brilliant speaker, Mr. Winifred Sinister Nickols, missionary to China, whose account, interestingly told and holding the closest attention, gave a vivid description of the languages and education of Chinese women and she spoke especially of an edict in China now eight years old pertaining to and prohibiting the binding of the feet of the baby girls. She told of the ignorance of the existence of such a law among the women who continue in the ancient practice. Education of the women alone can do away with this custom, said the speaker. Mrs. Nickols came to Chicago to take part in the Chinese exhibition at the World in Chicago, and it was indeed fortunate that she was secured to come to Highland Park. Refreshments were served following the program and Mrs. Ward Knapp was assisted by Miss Ethel Van Riper. The final meeting will take place at the home of the secretary, Miss Helen Coale of Linden Ave. on Tuesday, May 27.

Additional Observer Notes

Clarith Morgan on his twelfth birthday which was May 12 was greatly surprised in the evening by twelve of his boy friends whom his mother, Mrs. Anson Morgan had invited to dinner. The guests were Otto Morgan, Wallace Kimball, David Kimball, McGregor Willis, John Beatry, Dean Cramer, Carl Schaefer, Warren Schreurs, Vincent Schreurs, Herald Carr and Stanley Carr.

Mrs. C. W. Buckley of Ravine Place, was a hostess at a dinner on Friday evening.

Mrs. B. E. Schwalbe of Highland Hall had several young people in informally to play cards on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Theodore Kaufman of 866 Lincoln Ave., entertained a party for children on Tuesday afternoon.

A number of the society people here are looking forward to a dance to be given on Friday night at the Moraine by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones and Miss Catherine Cushing to the members and a number of their friends of the Thursday evening Tango class, which, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Clark, met weekly during the latter part of the winter and early in the spring. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Chittenden, Mr. and Mrs. John Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Preston, Miss Eleanor Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Baylies, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Boynton, Miss Caroline Shields, Miss Viola Shields, Miss Mary Clark, Mr. Harry A. Towner, Mr. Ellis Faxon, and Mr. Tom Trossel. Mrs. John Glass will entertain at dinner preceding the dance.

Mrs. Frederick Preston of 314 Central Ave., was hostess informally at bridge on Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Eleanor Brooks of East Orange, N. J.

Society is looking forward as it does annually at this time to the formal opening of Exmoor club on Decoration Day with its tournament for the men, followed by many dinners preceding the dance. Mr. D. F. Kelly, the president of the club, says the golf course is in the best condition that it has ever been at this time of the year. A fine season of record playing is looked forward to by the enthusiastic members and the club house, will be opened informally on the twenty-second. Heretofore it has been the cottage which has been receiving the members. The officers of the club are as follows: D. F. Kelly, president; S. M. Hastings, vice-president; Paul M. Benedict, secretary and treasurer; and the governors are Messrs. Richmond Dean, F. L. Deming, A. A. Anderson, C. K. Foster, and A. A. Clement. The athletic field for the caddies, an innovation of last year, will be again in evidence this summer under the direction of Mr. Larson, a Princeton student. There have been no alterations in the club house but everything has been freshened and the club is most alluring with its interior which has an effect of luxury and elegance and above all, comfort. The lawns are like the softest green carpets and the whole place is beautiful in its spring clothing.

Indications are that the performance of "The Importance of Being Earnest" which will be given at Ravinia theatre Saturday evening, May 24, as a benefit for the Y. W. C. A. will be an important social event. Many of the patronesses have planned dinner parties to precede the performance. The following young ladies will act as ushers: Misses Mae Merryweather, Katherine McCaughey, Annie Cobb, Olga Taylor, Cecil Vail, Blanche Mason, Marjorie Loudon, Dorothy Loudon, Marjorie Follanbee, Elizabeth Schumacher, Kathleen Bergen, Louis Taylor, Jean Ten Broeck, Dorothy Bastin, Mary Sedgwick, Helen Bournique, Viola Shields.
