MAHARAJA HAT.

This Style Gives a Sprightly Look to Face.

OF SATIN STRAW IN BLUE TONES.

This new tuban type gives a sprightly look to the face, and its uprising feather lends inches to the figure.

The hat pictured is of satin straw braided in graduated shades of blue, with trimmings of blue and white fancy ribbon and a white wing ornament banded with black.

DON'T BE A FAULTFINDER.

An Easy Habit to Acquire, but Difficult to Break.

It is very easy to get into the habit of finding fault. Nothing can be as easily acquired as the complaining spirit, and nothing is so difficult to rid oneself of as this same spirit after it has once gained control over us. Nothing seems right to some people, and if it happens to be a father who is afflicted with such a disposition his homecoming at night is dreaded rather than welcomed.

Popular people are not chronic complainers. Go through the list of your friends for proof of this.

The basis of popularity is a cheerful heart and a sympathetic soul, and a curping critic never has either.

What if the chairs do need dusting now and then? There are far more important things in the world than an undusted chair, and to shout about it doesn't accomplish the dusting.

It only accomplishes ill feeling, and ill feeling leads to harassed nerves, and harassed nerves lead to the grave just as surely as does cancer or tuberculosis or yellow fever.

It is selfish to make those around us miserable by our petty faultfinding, and soon our very presence becomes a menace.

Constructive criticism helps; destructive criticism injures.

The Spring Motor Girl.

Ruff epouze, or sponge cloth, is the material used for this motor costume. It is in Norfolk style and trimmed with metal buttons and a patent leather belt. The little motor bonnet is of deep cream hemp veiled with buff colored chiffon and adorned with a fancy feather in buff and white colorings.

For the Breakfast Table.

A convenient adjunct of the breakfast table for two is an electric toaster which will toast most daintily two slices of bread in a minute and a half. The price is about $5.

JAPAN GETS REPLY

Neither China's Protest nor U. S. Answer Made Public.

JAPAN WILL NOT BE SATISFIED

Recourse to United States Courts and Invitation to Join in New Treaty Offered Nippon, It is Said—Japan's Attitude Dates Back to Russian-Japanese War.

The United States answer to protest of Japan against the California alien land law was handed to the Japanese ambassador at the state department by Secretary Bryan. The ambassador informed Mr. Bryan he would transmit the note to his government at once.

As soon as he learned Governor Johnson had signed the alien land bill, Mr. Bryan sent for Viscount Chinda. The prompt action was in deference to the urgent wish of the Japanese ambassador that there was no unnecessary delay in dealing with the issue raised by his government. Equally prompt action is expected from the Tokio government after it has received the text of the United States' reply.

Notes Not Public.

Both Secretary Bryan and Ambassador Chinda declined to discuss the United States note. It was indicated that there is no likelihood of either the Japanese protest or Mr. Bryan's reply being made public in the immediate future.

It is understood that the reply of the United States offers to the Japanese recourse to the courts if they feel that the California law deprives them of any of their rights in the United States.

It is likewise understood that Japan is invited to join in the negotiations of a new treaty in which it shall be provided that neither country shall offer to citizens of the country the right to own land in its domain.

Not Acceptable to Japan.

None of these proposals will prove acceptable to Japan, according to the best informed opinion in Washington.

The cause of the present dangerous public sentiment in Japan have their origin partly in the days of the Russian-Japanese war. It is no secret among military men of the empire world that while Japan was nominally victorious in the war with Russia when the fighting ceased she had reached a state of exhaustion, whereas Russia was just finding herself.

Realizing this situation the inner council in the government at Tokio made repeated appeals to President Roosevelt to throw himself into the situation and endeavor to bring about peace. Mr. Roosevelt was finally induced to do so and the Portsmouth peace conference was the result. From the peace conference the Japanese negotiators came away with far less than the nation at home expected them to take from Russia.

Made Roosevelt's Goat.

Unaware of the true situation at the close of the fighting the Japanese were in a rage with their negotiators. To quell popular indignation the government caused it to be spread abroad in Japan that President Roosevelt's interference was responsible for the failure to get at Portsmouth what the nation expected as the fruits of victory.

TRAIN STRIKES AUTO, FOUR PEOPLE DEAD

Victims Carried 200 Yards on Engine Pilot.

Three women and a man were killed and one injured when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio express train at Leavittsburg, O. Four of the five occupants of the car were carried 200 yards on the pilot of the engine.

The dead are: Henry Turner, Mrs. Henry Turner, seventy-five years old; Mrs. W. J. Turner, forty years old; Mrs. Frank Housel, forty years old. All lived here. Turner, who was driving the car, failed to see the train until 100 yards from the crossing. He attempted to stop the car by applying the brake and instead stopped the engine. The car coasted into the track and stopped. The automobile was hurled fifty feet. Frank Housel jumped and escaped being killed.

FIFTEEN DEAD

Gas Explosion Kills Superintendent and Workers in Ohio. Fifteen are dead in an explosion of gas in the Imperial mine of the Gates Coal company at Belle Valley, Noble county, Ohio. The dead are: Henry Dudley, superintendent of the mine; Henry Fairhurst, Clyde Hawkins, Harry Brant, Robert Alton, Mike McVey, John Tinko, Mike Yacho, Mike Bebie, Clarence Brown, John Geoske, Clem Martinsky, Pete Ducky, Pete Robb, Pete Fula.

ILLINOIS PARAGRAPHS

ELGIN—Four or five hundred men and women saved the town of Burlington, eight miles west of Elgin, on the Illinois Central, railroad, from destruction by fire when they fought flames for several hours, carrying water in buckets. Fire started in the plant of the Ira J. Mix company and quickly destroyed the structure with a loss of about $15,000. Adjoining buildings caught fire and the entire population of the village—about 500—rushed out to fight the blaze. Many farmers from the surrounding country joined them.

EAST ST. LOUIS—Several indictments charging rebating and discrimination in sixty-three counts, were returned against four railroads and a coal company by a federal grand jury. Seven counts jointly charge the "Big Four," Chicago, Indiana and Southern railway, and the Grand Trunk, and the O'Garra Coal company with conspiracy in violating the Elkins act of 1902.

CUBA—Harry Clayburg, who is a raiser of fine chickens, tells of a high minded hen in his flock. There is an apple orchard near Mr. Clayburg's, and this hen had doubtless watched the birds building nests in the trees this spring, for one day she flew into an apple tree and finding a hollow place among the limbs began building a nest, where each day she laid an egg.

QUINCY—Ray Pfanschmidt, the youth who was found guilty by a jury of the murder of his father, another and sister and Miss Emma Kaempfen, a school teacher living at the Pfanschmidt home, is a step nearer the gallows, for Judge Guy Williams in the Adams county circuit court refused to set aside the verdict condemning him to death.

CHICAGO—A mother and her three little children were overcome by gas in their home at 5636 South Ashland avenue and hours were passed by physicians in trying to revive them with a pulmotor. Condition of all four was said to be critical. The victims of the gas are Anna Reichstaetter and her family.

JACKSONVILLE—While they were returning to their homes at 8:30 o'clock in the evening the Misses Emma Doying and Mariet Andre were held up by two men, one of them knocking Miss Andre down and escaping with her purse. The police have been unable to apprehend the highwaymen.

SPRINGFIELD—Five or six hundred insurgent Modern Woodmen of America perfected a permanent organization at their first annual meeting to formulate plans to dust present officers of the society. E. S. Smith, an attorney of Springfield, Ill., was chosen permanent chairman.

LA SALLE—At a recent meeting of the LaSalle Driving Park association it was voted to drop out of the Illinois Valley Harness Racing circuit, at least for this season. La Salle was assigned the week of July 4, which was regarded by the local association as unprofitable.

WILMINGTON—A large flock of strange birds, pure white and with large bills, alighted on the Kankakee river here. Veteran hunters declared they were the western pelican, seldom seen east of the Rocky mountains while others classified them as members of the heron family.

SPRINGFIELD—The mooted initiative and referendum resolution adopted of adoption in the hopes by one vote. On the vote which was taken at 1 o'clock in the morning only 101 votes, or one less than the necessary two-thirds, were cast for it.

CHICAGO—The Illinois house at Springfield passed the Juul law amendment by the decisive vote of 140 to 1. Concurrence by the senate and the signature of Governor Dunne are all that are needed to make it a law, effective July 1.

SAVANNA—Charles W. Cooke, a professional clam hunter, found one of the most beautiful and valuable fresh-water pearls ever taken from the Mississippi river. He sold the gem for $1,525.

Value of Merriment.
The more physical act of laughter quickens the circulation and the breath ing, supplies the body with more oxygen and stimulates every organ. Good humor dispels ill health. Our moods or humors affect the health for good or ill. The most potent to the advancement of family quarrels or depressing arguments is infinitely less valuable than the one taken in pleasant company.—Indianapolis News.

Making Buttermilk Cakes.
One quart of buttermilk, one level teaspoonful of salt, two eggs, four to make a thin batter and one teaspoonful of baking soda. Beat up the eggs well, add to them the buttermilk, then add the salt and mix thoroughly. Dissolve the soda in two tablespoonfuls of boiling water, then stir it into the batter. Now gradually add the flour, stirring all the time, until you have a batter that will pour smoothly from a spoon. Give a good beating and bake quickly on a hot, well greased griddle.

You pay a compliment to the intelligence and comprehension of a man of affairs when you transact your business with him by telephone. Moreover, you show such confidence in the excellence of your proposal that he need not fear it will require tedious and fruitless discussion. You seem to say, "This case is clear, and I can state it in a few words. You can understand and decide it at once." Such is the impression made by a telephone call. Successful men convey their impressions in just that way, by the use of the Long Distance Telephone.
