The Orpheus Quartette of Chicago gave a very enjoyable concert in Anderson's hall Friday evening for the benefit of the manual training fund for the Grammar school. Assisting in the program Mr. Seastrand drew some of the inimitable cartoons; Mr. Lentzner sang a number of solos and Lillian Antes, Edward Therrian and James Leonard gave readings. By request the boys' chorus sang "My Illinois," and the quartette sang the Swedish National Hymn.

American flags and white lilacs and red tulips were used to decorate the Presbyterian church Sunday morning for the Memorial Day services. Miniature flags were distributed to the Bible school, the Senior girls' class also receiving blue and white buttons signifying truth and purity. Miss Woodman and Mrs. Peterson sang a duet, "I'll Prepare a Place for You." Rev. Rosebro preached. The book of Acts will be studied in the Wednesday evening services. "The Ideal Christian" is the subject for the Christian Endeavor service next Sunday evening. Edith Pettis will lead.

The last meeting of the year of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the Grammar school Friday afternoon. The pupils of Miss Craig's room entertained the members with a patriotic program of Memorial Day selections, interspersed with vocal numbers among which were "My Illinois," and "My Own United States." Mrs. Reichelt, 3d, read "The Training of the Will," chapter in Elizabeth Harrison's "Child Nature." The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Richard Supple; vice president, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr.; secretary, Mrs. John A. Stryker; treasurer, Mrs. Jarvis. Mrs. Reichelt, Jr., who has been president for three years, very highly complimented the association on its choice of a successor, reviewing the work of the year and gave a report of the last high school Parents and Teachers' Association meeting when "What we see in other Schools" was given by the educational committee.

Bids for the construction of a new water system were received at the mass meeting Monday evening. It was also decided to issue water certificates to have the water from Highland Park to Deerfield. The question about building a new school house was also brought up and everyone seemed to be in favor of having a large school house which will be a credit to the town.

Those of us who are at all interested, are acquainted by this time with the result of Sunday's game, and it is hardly necessary to mention that the score was 8 to 2, with Deerfield claiming the long end. The team representing the Booth's Fisheries of Chicago consists of a fine bunch of fellows. The battery was clever and the first and second basemen were good players. It may be that the wet and slippery condition of the grounds was responsible for some of the numerous errors. Our boys on the other hand played excellent ball all the way through. Veteran Lang decided before the game that his arm was not in good condition so he relinquished the mound in favor of Earl Kress, after giving the youngster some good advice. This was Earl's first appearance in the box, but he pitched like an old timer. He caused eleven of the visitors to fan the air and allowed but one hit. With experience and training Earl bids fair to develop into a phenomenal pitcher. Mayor Whiting passed the plate and succeeded in inducing the spectators to part with something over $12 which sum nicely met the expenses. The local boys have a game scheduled with St. Albans for Decoration Day. A fast game is anticipated, weather permitting.
