The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

A wedding of interest took place Saturday evening when Miss Irene Moore, daughter of Mrs. George M. Moore, 4188 Drexel Blvd., Chicago, became the bride of U. S. Senator James H. Brady of Idaho. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's cousin, Mr. Arthur L. Moore of Ravine Drive, Highland Park. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Calvin Dobson of the Presbyterian church at seven o'clock. Attending the bride were her sisters, Mrs. William R. Jayne of Muscatine, Iowa, Mrs. Henry Suzzallo of New York, and Miss Georgia Moore of Chicago, and Miss Gracia Dugger of Fairbury, Neb., niece of the groom. Little Edith Jayne, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. Dr. Henry Suzzallo of the University of New York, acted as best man. The bride attended the University of Chicago for three years, later graduating from the University of California and is well known in Highland Park, having been a guest frequently at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Moore. After the ceremony the bridal couple left for Washington, D. C. and will be at home after June 15 at 1700 Rhode Island Ave., Chicago.

The Exmoor on Friday night was the scene of the gathering of the fashionable world of Highland Park and many Chicagoans at gay dinners followed by the ever popular Decoration Day dance in the evening. The weather which so far had been unkind to golfers this spring was perfect and the club and grounds in spring attire looked particularly attractive. During the afternoon while the men played golf the groups of women on the screened porches played cards, chatted and enjoyed themselves in general. The tango was enjoyed greatly with many new fascinating steps and is no longer a dance which only an occasional couple indulge in but one would indeed be almost daring to dance the old fashioned two step and waltz. There is of course the waltz music to which the Boston in its three varieties is danced. Speaking of dancing, the Moraine ever up to date in the way of innovations will introduce to this vicinity the dancing teas which means that the two afternoon tea may be had and the guests indulge their passion for enjoying the new steps. It will be most certainly a popular form of entertainment for it has proven such at eastern hotels.

Among the dinner hosts and hostesses at Exmoor Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Dean, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Sampell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert White, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander R. Carqueville, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tapper, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lobdell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Follansbee, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McCaughey, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon B. Chittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hussey, Mr. and Mrs. Burrigide D. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McKenzie, and Mr. Mrs. G. V. Dickinson.

Members of the South Shore Country club of whom there are a number spending the summer in Highland Park are looking forward to the horse show which will take place on Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28 on the picturesque grounds at Seventieth Street and Lake Michigan, Chicago.

On Saturday afternoon, at St. James' Episcopal church, Chicago, Mrs. Lucy Garrett Beal, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Garrett of Cambridge, Mass., was married to Rudolph Byford Flerahem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Whitnev Flerahem, 1435 Dearborn Ave., Chicago. Rev. James S. Stone, rector of St. James', performed the ceremony. The bride is a former Kemper Hall girl and has a number of friends in Highland Park. Mr. and Mrs. Flerahem will be at home at 63 East Division St., Chicago.

Miss Folsom of 502 Prospect Ave., entertained a few friends informally on Wednesday of last week at luncheon to meet Miss Florence Miller of Utica, N. Y., who is her guest.

Mrs. Franklin Hussey was hostess at a tea on Wednesday afternoon from four to six o'clock at her home on Linden Ave. Receiving with Mrs. Hussey were Mrs. Arthur Jerrens and her sister, Miss Emma Morse. Assisting throughout the rooms were the Mesdames Charles W. Buckley, W. A. Alexander, Jacob Porter Smith, R. F. Peyton, Jr., D. F. Kelly, Harry DeFaxon, and Mrs. Samuel Miles Hastings. The living rooms were lovely in their decorations of pink peonies and the dining room in yellow and purple iris.

Misses Martha and Elizabeth Irwin of Maple Ave. had among their guests at a week-end party Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Kennedy of Chicago. A very delightful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Kennedy piano, the Misses Irwin and Hazel Ritchie, mandolin; and Mr. Burns, violin. The program consisted of many of the old favorites such as Rusticana, Melody in F, and College Medley.

Mrs. Gerren Sanford Peabody, who was formerly Miss Alice Parliament, gave a delightful tea from 3 to 6 o'clock this afternoon, on the anniversary of her wedding which took place one year ago at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parliament of 720 Sheridan Road. Mrs. Peabody is now in her own attractive residence, the rooms of which were lovely with a variety of spring flowers. Assisting Mrs. Peabody were Mrs. Gordon Buchanan, Mrs. Clifton G. Alexander, Mrs. William Louderback, and Miss Elsa Somers. At the punch table were Miss Jean Tea Broeck and Miss Mary Sedgwick.

Miss Mildred Sheahan of Central Ave., entertained a number of school friends on Saturday afternoon. Games were played and delightful refreshments served. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Erickson of W. Central Ave. celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary on Saturday evening, May 31. There were about one hundred and twenty-five guests present. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gony and daughters, Marion and Margaret, Mrs. Elliot Postleweight, and daughter Mildred and Miss Sarah Marley of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stewart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Tobin, and Mr. James Hoy of Waukegan. A delicious supper was served, the decorations being very attractive with ferns and lilies of the valley. Dancing was the feature of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson received a number of costly gifts.

Miss Hazel Ritchie of Maple Ave., will entertain Mrs. Wells and party at luncheon Saturday. They will motor to DeLafayette to attend the commencement exercises at St. Johns Military Academy at which Mrs. Wells' son is a student. Mrs. Wells will chaperone the party.

Mrs. Frank Rhea Bott of Ravinia has issued invitations for a tea on Friday, to meet Mrs. Walter Mac Neil who has recently moved into the Geo. W. Carr home on Wade Ave., from Evanston. Mrs. Bott will be assisted by Miss Louise Darby, Mrs. Frederick Wosner, Mrs. L. M. Rutledge and Mrs. Geo. W. Carr.

Little business was transacted at the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees Monday evening, outside of the regular routine. Henry Meier presented a petition for a saloon license which was referred to the license committee. The board had expected to take up the viaduct ordinance but Mr. McGuffin, attorney for the C. M. and St. P. R. R. met with an automobile accident and was unable to be present so the matter was laid upon the table. The village clerk was authorized to extend a vote of thanks to the fire marshal of Highland Park Fire department at the recent school house fire. The meeting was adjourned until next Monday evening.

Mrs. Walen and her daughter Annie of Chicago were the guests of Mrs. J. C. Wolff, Thursday.

The children who made their first Holy communion Sunday in the Holy Cross church were Grace and Gladys Smith, Michael Eback, John Demgen and Ferdinand Troot.

A record breaking crowd turned out Decoration Day to see the local nine play against St. Albans of Chicago, the score was 12 to 7 in favor of St. Albans. Kress pitched well as did Therrien who succeeded him in the sixth inning when Earl was taken out so as to be in condition for Sunday's game, but numerous errors by the infielders coupled with the inability of Mc Caffee to stop the southpaw batters at moments made victory impossible. The visitors brought a 20-piece band out with them and the excellent music rendered, in a measure compensated the crowd which had expected to see a good game. Quite a different story can be told about the game with the "clippers" last Sunday. The Deerfield boys were determined to redeem themselves for the defeat of Decoration Day. The visitors scored two runs in the second inning and three in the fifth. In the sixth inning Deerfield started a batting rally, four were made and five runners crossed the plate before the smoke cleared away. This tied the score and from then on both teams played air tight ball and the game developed into a pitchers battle between Kress and Buckel with honors about even. The ninth inning came and went and still the tie was unbroken. Twice Clipper runners were nipped on home plate once on a beautiful throw from center field by William and our boys threatened to score several times. It was not until the 13th inning that Deerfield scored the winning run, which made the final score 6 to 5. Alex, the first man up singled to right took second and was on his way to third before Clipper, right fielder found the ball, and then came home on the overthrow to third. Much credit for the victory should be given "Kressie" who fanned 15 men and allowed only 6 hits in 13 innings.

Be it resolved by the school directors, District No. 109, County of Lake, and State of Illinois, that whereas the school house having burnt down, and the district is in need of a new school building, therefore, it is ordered that the proposition of voting for the same be submitted to the voters of this District at an election to be held on the 13th day of June, 1913, and that the poles be open from eight o'clock a. m. to five o'clock p. m.

It is further ordered, that the proposition of issuing bonds to the amount of $10,400.00 to be payable One Thousand Dollars each year, when $1400.00 of said bond shall be payable, be submitted to the voters of the District at the same time.

It is further ordered that the clerk post the necessary notice of the same and secure the necessary ballots and poll book.
