HIGHLAND HALL BALL TEAM

Highland Hall News

The recently organized Highland Halls made their first initial appearance on Saturday afternoon and scored a 8 to 6 victory over the Crescents. However, it was not the regular Crescent line up that participated in the game. With two exceptions, the five regulars that took part in the contest played out of position. Fossbender officiated in the box, Fred Glader was on first, George Glader on second and Greenslade and Baker were in the outfield, while Flinn took charge of first base in the eighth inning. The remaining positions were taken care of by High School players and White as catcher, played a fine game. Maroney on third, Cobb at short and Bloom in the outfield and on second did creditable work.

The Highland Halls lined up as follows: Muehlbach, catcher; Bourgeois, pitcher; Gallagher, first baseman; McNamly, second baseman; Shields, third baseman; Conrad, short stop; Pettit, left fielder; Schwalbe, center fielder; and Rasmussen, right fielder. Conrad was the batting star of the day, and he also fielded his position perfectly. Shields, too, shone, especially at bat and on the bases, while Bourgeois, except for the seven walks he issued did well as a box artist.

If the playing of the Highland Hall team Saturday is a criterion of their standard, it is predicted, with the advance of the season, that some very fast ball will be offered to the followers of the game. Under the management of Bourgeois "A-1" teams will be brought to Highland Park to oppose Highland Hall and "Baseball" will be made keen and interesting for everyone. On next Saturday Highland Halls will play the Chicago Warren's at 3:30 p. m. Score by innings is as follows:

 Highland Halls 1 0 1 0 3 0 3 0 0-8 11 3
 Crescents..... 0 0 0 2 2 0 0 2 0-6 8 6

About fifty couples were in attendance at the first dance of the season at Highland Hall Saturday evening. The hall was artistically decorated in shaded lights and various spring flowers. Among the out of town guests were the Misses Marjorie and Madaline Baillie, Lillian Petersen, Mr. D. Payne and Mr. Rudelius of Evanston; the Misses Mary Weyl, Helen Groves, Helen Cady, Lucile Mezler, and Mrs. Mezler of Wilmette.

Among the guests who arrived at the hall this week are Mrs. Ranolds, Miss Ranch, Miss M. Reedy, Miss G. McDougough, Mrs. Herman of Chicago, and Mrs. M. Ash of Dallas, Texas.

Among the week-end guests at Highland Hall last week were Theo. Gehlke and a party of friends, Messrs. H. Muehlebeck and L. Harney of Chicago, and Mrs. S. E. Tynell and a number of friends who toured from Oshkosh, Wis.

Obituary

Mr. Lew's B. Hibbard died on May 13, in Des Moines, Iowa, at the age of seventy-eight years, from heart trouble and pleurisy. He had been suffering from leakage of the heart for twenty-five years. Mr. Hibbard is well remembered in Highland Park where he was among the oldest residents and was for years Justice of the Peace and at one time was the publisher of the News Letter. His home was situated where the S. M. Hastings now live. Surviving Mr. Hibbard is his widow. The funeral took place at the Forest Avenue Baptist church. The remains were sent to Davenport for cremation. Mr. Hibbard was closely associated with, and a member of the Baptist church of Highland Park in which church he was greatly interested and gave a great deal of assistance in its growth.
