Mrs. Ross J. Beatty was hostess at a delightful musicale on Saturday at her home on Sheridan Road when the well-known composer-pianist, Lulu Jones Downing, Isabel Richardson, a mezzo soprano, and Mrs. Eugene F. Yahr, a contralto, furnished the program. Mrs. Beatty's harp, her clever recitations in French Canadian, and her recitation to music of a little Japanese poem were a pleasure to the guests who also admire her many talents. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Edwin Day, Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean, Mrs. George M. Bard, Mrs. Frederick Bullar and Miss Jessie Chandler.

Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean was hostess at a luncheon for thirty-two guests at her home on Ravine Drive and Forest Ave. on Tuesday to meet Mrs. Charles Deeneen, wife of Honorable Charles Deeneen, ex-governor of Illinois.

Mrs. John Washburne of Highland Park, has cards out for a tea from four to six o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 21, to meet Mrs. Charles Chapin and Miss Chapin of Hawthorne Lane.

So gay is Highland Park that it is quite impossible for every one to accept all the invitations and last week was certainly one of pleasure. The weather man favored the hostesses for the entire week was one of perfect days. On Saturday the charming gathering place for ladies at luncheons and bridge is the Exmoor. Two Highland Park ladies, Mrs. Burridge Butler and Mrs. F. D. Kelly entertained.

The men are enjoying a tournament at Exmoor and so close was the handicapping that five members tied for first place in the eighteen hole medal play event. They will play on through the week for the prizes. Over 100 players competed. The leading scores were: E. Tyner, 84-13-71; R. S. Peyton, 84-13-71; J. M. Tuttle, 83-12-71; S. S. Dingee, 81-10-71; F. S. Sherman, 91-20-71. In the evening came the dinner-dance. Among those entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. C. Mather Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tapper, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McNear, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Swigart, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stearns and Messrs. Boynton, C. L. Woodruff, Arthur Pixley, L. H. Roff, William Plant, and Ellis Faxon.

Mrs. John M. Tuttle was hostess at a bridge party on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Prospect Ave. to meet her sister, Mrs. R. L. Reed.

Mrs. Edwin C. Day entertained informally Monday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Grace McKay.

The J. U. G. club were entertained on Friday evening at the home of Miss Helen Hill of N. Green Bay Rd.

Mrs. Wm. Grant entertained a number of guests last week, all of whom are members of the Scottish societies of Evanston of which Mrs. Grant is also a member.

Mrs. George P. Englehard of the Log Lodge, entertained twelve guests at luncheon on Wednesday of last week.

It has been remarked that June in Highland Park has been a non-wedding season this year which is very unusual. But no wedding could have been more bridal like than the crystal celebration of the George Allen Masons on Saturday evening when one hundred guests including both families of Mr. and Mrs. Mason, the ushers and many of the friends who had been guests fifteen years ago at the wedding in Janesville, Wis., at the old home of Mrs. Mason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phiny Norcross, now of Orlando, Fla. Mrs. Mason in white chignon and satin, carried a lovely bridal bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley and with Mr. Mason received the congratulations of the guests. Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Phiny Norcross, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Norcross, Dr. and Mrs. Edward F. Norcross, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Norcross, the Misses Frances, Martha and Harriet Mason of Riverside, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fenton of Hillsdale, all of whom were week-end guests at the Mason home. The house was a bower of roses, peonies and many other lovely flowers, gifts of friends as was also the lovely collection of crystal. The table was a reproduction of the bridal table of 15 years ago, with the center piece of yellow and white daises in a basket tied with yellow chiffon, while yellow shaded candles added to the attractiveness. Following the reception a dance was held in a gayly lighted pavilion on the lawn. The guests were from Lake Forest, Winnetka, Chicago and Highland Park.

The flag day musicale of the North Shore Chapter D. A. R. was held at "The Moorings," the home of Mrs. George Richmond Nichols. The house and grounds were beautifully trimmed with flags while the table decorations in the dining room were red, white and blue flowers. Mrs. Nichols and the officers who assisted here were in costume. Mrs. Fearing presided at the punch bowl on the east veranda. The musical program consisted of seven groups of songs and instrumental music furnished by Miss Marion Mason, Miss Eva Helen Schater, Mr. Arthur H. Ranous, and Mr. Charles E. Weeks, vocalists; and Mr. George R. Jones, violinist, and Mrs. James Watson, at the piano. Everyone expressed delight at the variety in the program and was loud in praise of each number. Preceding the music a business meeting was held to hear Miss Barlow's report of the 22nd Continental Congress held in Washington April 14-19. Miss Barlow attended the congress as delegate of the chapter. She told very interestingly of the spirited election for president-general which resulted in the election of Mrs. Story on the third ballot. Also of the wonderful growth of the organization, the number of new chapters formed and the splendid work accomplished in every state as shown by the reports of the state regents and the one from Havana, Cuba. Much was said of the work done among the southern mountaineers. Miss Barlow spoke of one school in the mountains where a young girl made a flag from the description she had heard of it. She had for materials a salt sack, a child's blue bib and a red flannel petticoat. It was the first American flag even seen in that part of the country, and it was stated that there are many people today only a comparatively few miles from Washington who have never seen Old Glory.

Mr. Elmer Antes, who has been in Portland, Ore. for three years, returned to his home to be the guest of his parents for a few weeks prior to his marriage to Miss Zuerah Engler of Boone, Iowa.

Miss Ruth Reichelt was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by her aunt, Mrs. Burt J. Dickens of Michigan Ave., Chicago Wednesday. Covers were laid for twenty-four. The decorations were of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley and the favors toy motor cars.

Miss Winifred Supple spent the week at the University of Illinois where she attended the Senior ball.

Misses Mayme and Laura Karch were the guests of their grandmother at Portage, Wis. during the past week.

Seventeen members of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church attended the summer quarterly meeting of the Presbyterial societies for Home and Foreign Missions in the Presbytery of Chicago.

Miss Eitrieda Knaak entertained the graduation class of the Deerfield Grammar school Tuesday evening. The favors were school pennants Deerfield Grammar school 1913 in white on a purple background.

The regular meeting of the village board of trustees last Monday evening was adjourned without any business being transacted as there was no quorum present. An informal discussion was held regarding the proposed sewer from the school yard to the west slough. The Board of Local Improvements authorized the city engineer, Mr. Rossiter to survey and make a plat of the village so as to get data for the sewer specifications. He is to receive $125 for his work. The meeting was adjourned until the next regular meeting in July.

An election for two propositions was held at the town hall Friday. The first, Shall Deerfield Build a School House? carried, 63 voting for and 3 against. The second, Shall District 109 issue $10400 in bonds? carried 63 for and 4 against. Plans for school by a number of architects were on exhibition during election hour. Those of Mr. Gaddis of Vincennes Indiana were accepted. The town is wondering who the two men were who voted against building a new school when the former one had been destroyed by fire.

The A. C. E. business meeting of the United Evangelical church was held at the home of Mrs. Kesper Friday evening.

Miss Annie Quorum of Chicago was the guest of Miss Helen Beckley, Sunday.

Miss Francis Biederstadt will give a recital in St. Patrick's hall at Everett Saturday, June 28. Those wishing to go may go to Everett on the one thirty and the recital will be over in time to get the five eight to Deerfield.

The candle in Mr. Edw. Selleck's window burned sixty-three hours. The lucky guessers were Mrs. Bowles who received a sack of flour; Leo Seiler, twenty pound bag of sugar; A. H. Muhle and Edwin Edstrand each won a basket of assorted groceries and John Willman, a can of coffee.

The St. Paul's Evangelical Sunday school of Deerfield announce their annual picnic to be given July 4 in Knickerbocker's grove 1/2 mile east of Deerfield. A baby beauty contest and the sale of home made candy are the special features of the afternoon. All names for the baby show must be in before 2:30 p. m. A display of fireworks will be shown in the evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

Business men give Banquet and Dance

About one hundred guests were present at the annual ladies night which consisted of a dinner and dance given at Highland Hall by the business men of Highland Park on Thursday night. At the dinner Mr. D. M. Erskine, Mr. Arthur C. Johnson and Albert Larson made brief and clever addresses. Following the dinner a dance was held in the ball room. Fulton's Orchestra furnished the music. O. G. St. Peter, Leo Haak and Charles Zwetow were the members of the committee in charge of the entertainment.

Work of local boys and girls in College

This month has been as usual one of commencements at all of the schools and an excellent showing has been made by the boys and girls from this city who are attending out of town schools. Miss Margot Cushing has been elected president of the Senior class at Vassar as well as secretary for the Inter-Collegiate Conference to be held at Swathmore next year; Miss Margaret Phillips graduated from Vassar in June; Miss Katherine Schumacher was a Freshman member of the Students Self Governing committee at Vassar; Miss Queenie Spencer attended Cherry Chase at Washington, D. C.; Miss Jean Ten Broeck, who has been preparing for college, is entered at Wellesley for next year; George Mosley is one the star athletes at Hill, N. Y., is playing half back on the school team and is preparing to enter Yale; Billie Morgan known at St. Paul's, N. Y., as "Wop" Morgan is captain of the football team and is on the hockey team which plays against Yale. He is also assistant editor of the school paper and plans to go to Harvard and study law; Earl McPherson of the Illinois University graduated with an excellent record; Cleaver Thayer is another Illinois graduate of this year who is an enthusiastic leader in the college affairs; Tom Glass is the envy of all boys because he gets home ten days earlier than the close of the school because of being an honor student at Hill where he is also captain of the baseball team; Nathan Corwith has made a good showing at Andover this year but prefers a business career to college; William Loderback of St. Paul's school will go to Harvard; Robert Hussey and James Pierce attend Hill; Joy Bourne is a Tome school pupil; Edward Knox, who has returned from Exeter was a member of the Hockey and tennis teams and expects to enter Yale in the fall. Everyone is familiar with the many honors won at Williams College by Allen Schaeffer who graduated in June as president of his class, the Gargyle society and the Y. M. C. A.; John Ten Broeck is entered at Andover for next year and Bennet Schaeffer will enter Williams upon his return from a year spent traveling in Europe.
