WOMEN TO VOTE

Illinois House Passes Bill by Constitutional Majority.

CAN NOW VOTE FOR PRESIDENT

Victory Gained After Long Struggle—Measure Now Goes Up to Governor Dunne, Who is Certain to Sign It —Women Also Eligible to Vote on U. S. Senators.

At Springfield, Ill., woman and her cause triumphed in the house of representatives when the suffrage bill was passed by a vote of 80 to 58.

Now the bill will go to Governor Dunne for his signature, and when he signs it, as it is believed confidently he will, Illinois will take its place as the first state east of the Mississippi river to give considerable voting power to women.

Equal suffrage, as broad as it is possible to make it without a constitutional amendment, became almost a fact in this state when Speaker William McKinley announced the result of the final roll call on the bill.

Will Vote for President.
 Under the operation of this act women in Illinois will be allowed to vote for all offices created by statute, including presidential electors and United States senators, and on all propositions submitted to the people.

It was not until there had been a hard fight that the bill was taken up and passed, and it marked the end of a long, arduous and intelligent campaign by women and their friends inside and outside the general assembly. The result was greeted with an outburst of applause from the crowded galleries and floor of representative hall.

Women Given Credit.

Members of the legislature gave full credit for the victory to the sagacy of Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the state suffrage organization, and Mrs. Sherman Booth, chairman of its legislative committee, who have been in Springfield throughout the session. Mrs. Antoinette Funk and Mrs. Medill McCormick have been other members of the suffrage lobby during recent weeks.

Mrs. Trout was so affected by the victory that she broke down and cried in the house gallery. The strain was severe during the roll call, as it looked for a time as though the bill had been defeated by a narrow margin.

More Votes Than Needed.

The bill had received only seventy-six votes, or one short of the constitutional majority of seventy-seven, when the roll call was completed.
 Speaker McKinley had cast the seventy-sixth vote. On the call of absentees Representative Barker cast the seventy-seventh vote. Cheers swept over the house. With the victory won additional votes came easily.

Representatives Farrer, Jackson, Harris, Ryan and McCarty were among those voting for the bill after the majority had been obtained. The final vote showed six more votes recorded in favor of the bill than were needed.

Four Men Are Killed and a Number Seriously Injured.

At Racine, Wis., the big boilers on the coal barge C. K. Peck, unloading coal at the Pugh Coal company docks, blew up, carrying the entire deck of the steamer, a mass of debris, into the harbor.

The Peck caught fire and the city fire department fought the fire. Twenty-five men were on board the barge at the time of the accident. Four not been learned. Also the number of injured is unknown. Ambulances
