The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Haskin entertained five guests at dinner on Wednesday evening of last week.

Of interest to many people here is the approaching wedding of Miss Grace Dunn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dunn of Marion, Ind., to John Matters of the same city. Miss Dunn has resided in Highland Park for several years and has been an instructor of the violin, giving lessons at the studio of Mrs. Annette R. Jones and residing with Miss Laura K. Kennedy. Miss Dunn, who was particularly popular among the young people, went abroad early in the summer as the guest of friends and it is in Europe that the marriage will take place. The young people are yet undecided in which city the ceremony will be performed. Mr. Matters, who has known Miss Dunn since childhood days, is a graduate of the Chicago University and the author of a number of books.

Among Highland Park people who attended the polo matches at Onwentsia last week were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Millard and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory and Miss Ruth Gregory and Miss Mott.

Ravinia Park held the formal opening on Saturday night and, as is usual at Ravinia, had quite the appearance of a social event rather than a crowd gathered to attend an out of door concert. It seemed as if all Highland Park was in attendance which the other North Shore suburbs were well represented. Mr. Stock had selected a delightful program and the dancer, the Baroness von Rottenthal was received with applause and her beautiful dancing was marred only by an over-hilarious group of people on the exterior of the pavilion who so lacked poise as to be unable to restrain their laughter, a happening most unusual at Ravinia. Mr. George Colburn directed the orchestra for the Baroness von Rottenthal's appearance. Among those occupying boxes were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. McMullin who had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander of Highland Park in the Charles T. Boynton box were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Millard and Mr. Jesse L. Smith and with Mrs. J. McGregor Adams were Mrs. Annette R. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Yoe.

Mrs. A. C. Hill entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Sidley.

Luncheons followed by bridge are quite the fad and are being given as frequently now as teas were in June. Mrs. Richard H. Pickering was hostess at a luncheon for sixteen ladies on Thursday of last week in honor of Mrs. J. McGregor Adams and Mrs. Charles Deneen. The luncheon table with the decorations of pink and white roses and lavender tapers was exceedingly attractive. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean, Mrs. Walter E. Carr, and Mrs. C. Mather Smith. On Wednesday Mrs. F. G. Gardner was a luncheon hostess in honor of Mrs. G. N. Easton of San Francisco Cal., who is visiting Mrs. Lucien Williams and today Mrs. Gardner is again hostess at a luncheon which is given in honor of Mrs. Robert Boak of Hubbards Woods.

A real cabaret, one which is planned to be unusually entertaining, to which Highland Parkers and Moraine guests alike are looking forward to as a splendid manner in which to entertain their guests for the evening preceding the fourth, is to take place at the hotel tonight at 9 o'clock and many of the tables are engaged. Chief among the entertainers who are to appear is Carrol of New York fame. Miss Laura K. Kennedy, who has charge of the Thursday evening entertainments of which this will be the first, promises a successful affair. In the East the cabaret has taken a firm hold upon the people young and old and so it has in Chicago and the Moraine not behind the Eastern hotels, introduces the cabaret here with the most talented of professionals to appear on the program. At the tables the gay little parties will be served with refreshments and at the same time enjoy the program. This will be followed by a dance. Admission to the cabaret will be fifty cents. In the future the price of admission to the Thursday evening affairs will be according to the class of entertainment.

Those who have attended the recitals given by the pupils of Miss Frances Biederstadt during the past year have been impressed with the wide range in the ages of the pupils. Some are tiny tots hardly able to get upon the piano bench without assistance, ranging upward to those of mature years. The progress made by these pupils is distinctly noticeable. At the recital given in Everett at St. Patrick's hall, which was generously opened through the courtesy of Father Quinn, a program of twenty-nine numbers was given Saturday afternoon. Although the heat was excessive, interest in the program did not lag. Miss Margaret Carolan gave two readings, one of which was the story of Miss Hazy's Marriage from "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." Awdal Winter sang a soprano solo "Japanese Love Song". Twenty-four pupils from Shermerville, Deerfield and Everett took part in the program.
