Mrs. J. Greenville Mott was hostess at a luncheon on Wednesday.

Miss Cecil Vail will entertain on Saturday evening at a dinner.

Mrs. Paul Chapman entertained several friends informally on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Genevieve Mott will entertain at a dance on Tuesday evening at Lake Place End, Laurel Ave., the home of her parents.

Mrs. Elmer Skidmore entertained the euchre club on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Evans of 18 Skokie Ave. announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mabel Evans to Mr. S. D. Christopher of Ammond, Ky. The wedding will take place on the evening of August 23rd.

Mrs. Benjamin Arthur Fessenden will receive tomorrow afternoon, July 11th, from four to six o'clock at a tea given in honor of Mrs. Charles Densen, at her home "Content."

Miss Irene Kelly entertained thirty-six young people at an informal dance on Monday evening in honor of her guests, the Misses Lois and Marie Beft of Dallas, Texas.

At the Moraine on Thursday evening the first cabaret of the season was a great success and Miss Laura K. Kennedy's selection of a program met with approval. At the little tables were many parties and among those entertaining were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Insull, Mr. and Mrs. John Glass, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Marcey, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. D. Mark Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Plamondon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gimble, Mr. W. P. Morgan, Charles Addis, and F. N. Baylies.

So successful was the tennis tournament at the Highland Park Club last year and so great was the interest taken by members that the entertainment committee is arranging for the second annual tournament. The contest will probably be held the second week of August and an informal dance will conclude the week's events.

Mrs. C. Clark entertained a number of guests on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her birthday.

Mrs. Carl Bullock entertained the Ravinia committee for Arden Shore at luncheon, Mrs. Robert Gregory being the guest of honor. The chairman, Miss Louise Darby, presented several plans for raising funds and it was decided to give a garden party the last Saturday in July on the grounds of Mr. Jens Jensen.

Twelve Ladies, members of the Campbell Chapter of the Eastern Star, were guests at an entertainment given in Evanston on Thursday night to the Grand Worthy Matron, Mrs. Cassey Orr of the Evanston Chapter. Among those who were present from here were Mrs. Samuel Levin, Mrs. Henry Clow, Mrs. John Snyder, Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mrs. Elmer Brown, Mrs. Meyers, and Mrs. Sidney Yarbrough.

Mrs. G. N. Easton, who is the guest of Mrs. Lucien M. Williams at "Bobolink Knolls," will be the honored guest at a luncheon on Friday given by Mrs. C. Mather Spith of Circle Ave., and on Saturday evening Mrs. Williams will entertain at a dinner in her honor. On Thursday evening Mrs. Williams entertained sixteen young people at a dinner-dance at Glenview Golf club in compliment to Miss Anna Easton and Walter Easton, the daughter and son of Mrs. G. N. Easton, and her son, Chester Williams, who is at home from Choate, Wallingford, Conn., for the summer.

On Friday twenty of the younger set celebrated the Fourth of July with a picnic given by Cecil Vail and in the evening they attended the Exmoor dance. On Saturday night Miss Margaret Deming entertained the same young people at a beach party. Among the guests were the Misses Cecil Vail, Marjorie Small, Frances Small, Eleanor Starret, Catherine Cushing, Margot Cushing, Catherine Schumacher, Olga Taylor, Jean Forrest, Katherine Prindville, Leonora Hoynes, and Messrs. Roger Vail, Malcolm Vail, and his guest, O. Riller of St. Louis, M. Forrest, Lawrence Erickson, Edward Small and his guest, Donald Griffith, of Boston, John DeMuth, Ellis Faxon, Egbert Spencer, Demaresque Spencer, and Donald Kimbark of Evanston.

A wedding which was celebrated at half after two o'clock this afternoon is the happy outcome of a romance begun in childhood days when the bride and groom as neighbors were playmates. The announcement the latter part of last week of the engagement of Miss Josephine Prall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson F. Prall of Highland Park, to Milton Turnley Lightner of this city was of interest to the young peoples many friends. Mr. Lightner is a graduate of Harvard where he was one of the leading athletes during his college career. The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. Peter C. Wolcott at Trinity church. Only relatives and closest friends were present. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Milton Turnley Lightner left for the west where they will motor in the Rocky Mountains. They will make their home in Monta Vista, Colo.

The past week-end was a gay one for the Fourth falling on Friday made it possible for the majority of people engaged in business to take a day off on Saturday and thus have a joyful vacation trip. The country club, the Moraine and Highland Hall and private homes were gay with house parties while many Highland Parkers went out of town. At Exmoor the day was devoted to golf and the following are the results of the game: Mrs. C. G. Alevander, and H. R. Loudon won the mixed foursome with a card of 80-4-76. Their gross score of 80 was made up of 41 out 39 in, and sets a new mixed foursome record for the course. In the play for the Presidents cup the results: A. P. Van Schaick defeated Evan Evans, 6 and 5; R. C. Vilas defeated N. R. McLean, 4 and 3; J. H. Coulter defeated B. K. Stephenson, 3 and 2. J. F. L. Curtis and his trio of companions won the four ball team contest with a net of 295, their individual contributions being as follows: J. F. L. Curtis, 72; W. D. O'Brien, 74; F. N. Baylies, 75; A. D. Ward, 74. In the evening there was a brilliant gathering at the dinners and among those who entertained were: Miss Marguerite Pollansbee, Miss A. E. Anderson, W. D. Putnam, R. F. Peyton, Jr., Joseph B. Terbell, Irving Randell, F. S. Peabody, John Francis, Eugene E. Andrews, George W. Swigart, E. S. Skillen, E. Tyner, Henry W. Boyd, W. S. Kies, Percy B. Eckhart, W. J. Keene, D. F. Kelly, A. H. Pixley, F. C. Van Ness, W. B. Egan, J. L. Fortune, Jacob Porter Smith, L. S. Gordon, E. M. Bowman, Samuel M. Hastings, A. D. Warren, P. M. Benedict, R. H. Hunter, M. O. Bradley, Robert White, G. B. Burrage, P. E. Faust and H. D. Faxon.

Obituary
Mr. Andrew Briggs, who had been ill for a year with cancer of the stomach, died last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Thos. Duffy. Mr. Briggs served a term of years in the army and until recently he has lived on his farm in Baldwin, Mich. up until last fall when his disease became so serious that he went to the soldiers home in Milwaukee. He became a little better and was visiting on a furlough for sixty days when he was taken sick at the home of John Merriman and seemed to get no better so he came to the home of Mrs. Thos. Duffy in Deerfield, who cared for him during his last days. In spite of the intense heat and his suffering he was patient unto the last when death came to relieve him. He has many friends who will miss him. The funeral services were held at the Holy Cross church, Deerfield, July 4th with burial at Waukegan. Mrs. Duffy wishes to extend her sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted at his funeral.

Mrs. Peter Zahn died at St. Joseph's hospital in Chicago Friday, the result of an operation for hernia. Mrs. Zahn lived in Deerfield forty years and was an active member of the United Evangelical church. She organized the Women's Missionary Society and was the president for sixteen years. Failing health and the feebleness of Mr. Zahn caused them to move to Chicago recently where they could be near their son. Funeral services were held at the Diversey Parkway United Evangelical church Sunday morning. A number of Deerfielders were present. Rev. Schlus preached a memorial sermon in German and the pastor, Rev. Fidler, preached in English. Burial was at Montrose.
