Miss Dorothy Fessenden, who has as her guest, Miss Pauline Brooks, of Detroit, entertained at a luncheon on Thursday of last week.

"Content," the home of the Benjamin Fessenden family, was the scene of one of those rare and enjoyable teas of which Mrs. Fessenden possesses the secret of making successful. Mrs. Charles Deneen, who has been so feted since her arrival in the suburb, was the guest of honor. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Edwin Lobdell, Mrs. D. F. Kelly, Mrs. Louis Louer of Chicago, Mrs. Edmund A. Russell of Lake Forest, Mrs. Charles Pope of Evanston, and Mrs. Frank L. Wean. A number of the younger set, friends of Miss Dorothy Fessenden, assisted in the dining room.

Miss Gertrude Clark entertained a few friends at a beach luncheon on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sasch of Green Bay Road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gertrude Sasch to Mr. Harry Clarkson of Rose City, Penn.

Mrs. Frank R. McMullin entertained at dinner at her home in Lake Forest on Wednesday evening, later taking her guests to the concert at Ravinia Park.

Miss Genevieve Mott entertained at a dance on Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Greenville Mott of Laurel Ave.

Although report has it that Newport has put a ban upon the tango and similar dances because of the hold it has upon the people in the lower walks of society, it is certainly gaining in popularity in Chicago and vicinity. But then it must be taken into consideration that it was all the rage in the east months before the middle westerners took it up. Whether the tango teas will grow in popularity at the Moraine remains to be seen, but the prospects are good for the hotel at least.

Miss Dorothy Bentley, the attractive and graceful leader of these Saturday afternoon teas in the big ballroom, is the daughter of Mrs. M. E. Bentley of Dearborn Ave., Chicago.

Exmoor is unusually gay this year and every Saturday the club house and the links are well filled. On Saturday luncheons were given by Mrs. Walter E. Carr, Mrs. T. N. Thomas, Mrs. F. J. Dennis, Mrs. Samuel M. Hastings, and Miss Katharine Prindiville. Following the luncheons the guests played bridge. A number of large dinner parties were given preceding the dance in the evening and the following entertained: J. H. Hopkins, Thomas Clements, Trigg Waller, Alfred Plamondon, James Prindiville, Lucien M. Williams, John Norcross, Ford Carter, J. C. Jeffery, and C. N. McNear. The golf score for Saturday's playing is as follows: A. P. Van Schaick won the 18 hole medal play handicap with a card of 82-13-69. Results of matches played in the third round for the President's cup were as follows: A. P. Van Schaick defeated E. L. Lobdell, 7 and 6; W. V. O'Brien defeated W. R. McWhipney, 4 and 2; R. M. Shayne defeated R. A. Bard, 4 and 8.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Drum and the two children left Wednesday for New York where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

A pleasing diversion for the lawn fete to be given by the Ravinia committee of Arden Shore Encampment will be a performance of Cosmo Hamilton's "Soldier's Daughters." This feature is under the direction of Miss Anna Morgan and the players will be Miss Harriet Blackstone, the well known portrait painter; Miss Jessie Harding, an instructor in Miss Morgan's studio, and Miss Lillian Fitch, a cousin of the late Clyde Fitch.

Boys of the Sunday school and girls of the Sunshine class, of Ebenezer church participated in a surprise on Delmar Clow Monday evening in honor of his birthday.

Mrs. Neis N. Nelson of Oakwood Ave. was hostess at a Monday afternoon card party in honor of Mrs. Andrews of Chicago and Mrs. F. Wallin. Prizes were won by Mrs. Chas. Freberg, Mrs. Wallin, and Mrs. Roy Simmer.

Miss Catherine Cushing will entertain at a dinner preceding the Saturday evening dance at the Moraine, in honor of her guest, Miss Eleanor Starret.

A pretty luncheon for fourteen guests was given on Wednesday at Hyrscote, the home of Mr. Walter C. Hatley, by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Gordon Hatley. Luncheon was served at small tables on the veranda and the flowers used in decorating were from the Hyrscote garden. Among the guests were Mrs. J. McGregor Adams and her house guests Mrs. A. Payson Hoff, Miss Edna Hoff, Mrs. Dwyer and Mrs. Drake. Others were Mrs. Annette R. Jones, Mrs. Eleanor Stewart, Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean, Mrs. Archibald McBean, Mrs. George McBean, Mrs. Charles C. Yoe, and Mrs. Edwin Lobdell.

All those who are interested are cordially invited to attend a dance to be given at the Ravinia school house on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock by Miss Marjorie Menefee and Miss Mary Highley as a benefit for the fund being raised to be used in decorating the new village house. Admission is twenty-five cents.

Mrs. Eugene E. Andrews will entertain the younger set at a dance at Exmoor tonight in honor of Miss Marjory Small and Miss Frances Snjall.

Mrs. George Robert Jones was hostess at one of the most delightful entertainments of the season on Tuesday afternoon. A musical program was presented by Miss Edna Hoff who has a lovely soprano voice as well as a pleasing personality and accompanying her at the piano was Mrs. Annette R. Jones. Several cello selections were splendidly played by Mr. Adolf Hoffman, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hoffman. There were several out-of-town guests among whom were Mrs. Frank R. McMullin of Lake Forest; Mrs. Frances North of Winnetka; Mrs. Edmund Henry Eitel of Indianapolis; Mrs. A. Payson Hoff of New York; Mrs. Eleanor Stewart of Evanston, and Miss Eleanor Starret of Pittsburgh. Receiving with the hostess were Mrs. Henry Atwater, Mrs. Edmund Henry Eitel, Mrs. Carleton Vail, Miss Marion Mason, Miss Blanche Mason, and Miss Edith Lobdell.

Deerfield News Items

The Daisy Circle met at the home of Miss Elizabeth Knickerbocker Friday evening. Miss Phoebe Beckman won both prizes in the guessing contests.

A meeting of the Jewel club was held at the home of Miss Mildred Biederstadt Saturday afternoon. The guessing game prize was awarded to Miss Mildred Knickerbocker.

To celebrate the fortieth anniversary of her birthday Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr. entertained at a family dinner at which four generations were present.

A union picnic given by the United Evangelical and Evangel Association churches and the Presbyterian church will be held at Schiles grove Saturday, July 26th. Conveyances will leave the churches at ten o'clock.

Miss Beatrice Duffy will teach in the new consolidated school at Everett next year.

Mr. J. W. Gaddis, the architect, and the directors of the Deerfield school held a meeting in the town hall Saturday afternoon where at two o'clock all bids by contractors for the construction of a new school were opened and Fred Noerenberg of Highland Park awarded the general contract.

Miss Anna Peterson was a week-end guest at the home of her uncle, Mr. Charles Jacobs.

Mrs. G. W. Pettis and Miss Edith Pettis have returned from a short visit at Crystal Lake.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Ralph Knickerbocker Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. D. Young and two sons, Nathan and Judson, of Chicago, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stryker.

Miss Laura Wessling is very ill.

Mrs. George Beckman returned Tuesday from Texas where for the last six months she has been nursing her brother, Alfred Ott, who died of tuberculosis last Tuesday.

The Misses Grace, Bessie, Margaret, and Fannie Carolan, accompanied by their guest, Mrs. Philipps took a boat trip to Milwaukee Wednesday.

Miss Gladys Miller of Chicago was the guest of Miss Eleanor Meyer last week.

Mrs. H. Zoehler of Waukegan was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. P. Hutchison last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Love were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. F. Gunkle of Galesburg last week.

Mr. J. Cahill and Mr. W. Kirkwood of Milwaukee were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hagge and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Lord, of Chicago Sunday.

Mrs. Clark is visiting her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Clark of Irving Park, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Olbrick of Austin, Ill. were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Pettis.

Miss Mildred Skiff of Grand Rapids, Mich., is visiting with Miss Beatrice Carolan.

Mrs. Philipps of Alagon, Mich., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Carolan.

Mrs. W. Galloway entertained a number of her friends at a dinner party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Marie Parson of San Francisco, Cal., who is the guest of Mrs. Mabel Schaffer. An enjoyable evening was spent in playing charades.

Mrs. B. H. Kress was hostess at a delightful five hundred party Saturday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Ficht of Sapulpa, Okla., who has been her guest during the past week; also for Mrs. Keefe of Oswego, N. Y., who is visiting with Mrs. Eugene Ende. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and playing cards. Mrs. W. A. Whiting was awarded the first lady's prize of five hundred; Mr. Oscar Beecham, the first gentlemen's prize, and Mrs. Eugene Ende and Mrs. Keefe won the consolation prizes.

The local team had no difficulty in defeating the Don Carlos last Sunday by the score of 9 to 6. As usual, the home team started scoring in the first inning, three hits and an error netting them two runs. The visitors however, found Kress for three hits in the second inning and these coupled with a walk and an error enabled them to score three runs. They did not hold the lead long because Deerfield, by hard hitting in her half of the second inning, succeeded in bringing in five more runs and thus sustained her reputation of coming up from behind. Two more runs in the sixth inning seemed to clinch the game for the home team. The visitors had a rally in the eighth inning which looked serious for a time. Three hits were made and three runners scored before the side was retired. The Pettis brothers proved to be the heavy hitters of the game each obtaining three hits, two of C. G.'s being two baggers. A fast double play was made in the third, Duffy to Pettis to Hutchison. This was the first double play made this season by the infield and it seemed to show that the present arrangement is the fastest possible with William, third, Duffy short and Pettis second.
