Additional Observer Notes

Mrs. Robert Gregory, Mrs. Carl Bul-

Jensen home at Ravinia, as a benefit for Arden Shore Encampment.

Highland Park people are interested in the announcement received this land, of Miss Katherine Gordon Peck, and Mrs. Thomas Clements.

Highland Parkers seem to be more in love with Ravinia Park this season than ever before, and every night and many of the afternoon concerts the lovers of music are in attendance. On Sunday in the boxes were seen Miss Floyd and Mrs. C. C. Jamieson of Hooisick Falls, N. Y.; Mrs. F. R. Mc-Mullin and Miss Sadie Buckley. It is a pleasure to notice Mrs. Crosby, who has been abroad, again in her accustomed place. Without this lady in regular attendance at the concerts it would not seem quite familiar at the park, for Mrs. Crosby has long been a staunch supporter, whose criticisms are always worth observing. Miss St.
Denis, whose dancing is really wonderful, has won a host of admirers and the Ravinia management is to be congratulated upon having secured her for an engagement.

PRIZES FOR FARM BOYS AND GIRLS

R. C. Swift Offers six Awards to be given at Farmer's Institute

Six prizes for five and ten dollars each will be given to Lake county boys and girls under 18 years of age who are now living on farms or who have lived on farms within the past three years. The prizes are given by Mr.
R. B. Swift, and the Farmers' Institute will make the awards at the February meeting and will be awarded as follows: For the best ten ears of corn selected by a boy from corn grown in the county in 1912; for the best quart of oats similarly selected; to a boy for a pint of milk handled by himself showing the best sediment test; a similar prize for the best bacteriological test; to the girl presenting the choicest piece of hand work done by herself in the year previous to the date of award, and to the girl presented the best essay on the theme "How to Make the Farm Home More Attractive."

Missionary Society

An unusual and interesting meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society took place at the Presbyterian church parlors on Monday afternoon and was attended by thirty-five ladies.
The program was elaborate and was in charge of Mrs. Frederick Clow. Mrs.
F. D. Everett led a discussion of "Our New Responsibility as Voters," and she gave a clever talk, pointing out among other things especially, the dignity given to women and the added respect which they must be capable of keeping.

Mrs. Clow gave a brief but clear outline of some of the mission schools in the southern mountains and the work they are doing. Mrs. Everett spoke of the Asheville, N. C., group of schools which she had visited and told of the Normal, the Collegiate Institute and the Industrial Farm school.
Miss Alice Davidson, who is so deeply interested in the Martha Berry school at Macon Ga., told of the work there of Miss Berry, who founded the school for the mountain boys which now has an enrollment of 300. Recently girls have been allowed to enter the school and it is rapidly growing. The school is in need of assistance from all who take an interest in the education of the mountain people.

The last speaker on the program was Miss Moore, a member of the faculty of the mountain school at Rocky Creek, Tenn., and her account of the work in that school was splendidly given.
Miss Marion Mason, who has a lovely soprano voice, sang a solo. Tea was served following the meeting by the hostesses, who were Mrs. William Geell, Mrs. William Millard, Mrs. Oliver Leonard and Mrs. H. P. Davidson.

Obituary

Mrs. Hugh T. Birch. The many friends here of Mrs. Hugh T. Birch of Chicago, formerly of Highland Park were shocked to hear of her death which occurred on Tuesday, July 8, at her residence, 1912 Michigan Ave., following an illness of several months. She is survived by her husband and a daughter, Miss Helen Louise Birch, who at the time of her mother's death, was motoring in England with Mrs. Marshall Field. The body has been placed in a vault at Graceland and the funeral will take place when Miss Birch returns to Chicago which she will do as quickly as possible. Mr. Hugh T.
Birch, of the firm of Galt, Birch and Co., owned property here for many years and a part of it was purchased several years ago by Mr. Ernest Wienhober, who lives in the old Birch residence, Mr. R. S.
Kirchberger and Mr. C. C. Hughes. At one time the Birch family leased Ravinia park for a season and until recent years have been closely allied with Highland Park.

When wars and revolutions have spent and exhausted themselves, when the irridiscent dreams of enthusiasts and radicals have faded to the prosaic colors of reality, the careful observer will notice that the old order resumes its authority. The name of the government may change but the law and regular processes subsist. The farmer returns to the plow, the artisan to the shop, and the business man to his office. Nothing is accomplished, nothing is won by violence. Only thought and education can perceptibly change the course of a nation's life. The orderly processes of society mean industry, thrift and saving. We assist you to save.
