The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Miss Tessie McClory entertained the Euchre Club Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean will entertain a few friends at bridge on Tuesday afternoon.

The Catholic ladies of Highwood entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon in the parish hall.

Mrs. Charles C. Yoe entertained twenty ladies at a luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Edna Hoff, at her home "Yoelands."

There were about fifty guests who attended the weekly luncheon at the Ravinia Park Casino Thursday, given by the members of the Ravinia Club.

Mrs. C. A. H. McCauley entertained at bridge on Monday afternoon for Miss Annie Cobb, who leaves for the East shortly, to be gone the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. James Troxel entertained a few friends informally on Monday afternoon in compliment to Miss Azalyn Adams of Chicago, the guest of Miss Carolyn Shields. On Friday afternoon Miss Shields entertained informally at tea for Miss Adams.

Mrs. J. Schrieber of Deerfield entertained twelve ladies on Friday afternoon in honor of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor Adams entertained five friends at dinner and Wednesday at Ravinia Park casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meeker of Lake Forest entertained a number of friends at dinner at Ravinia Park casino on Wednesday evening and later the party enjoyed the concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. McMullin were host and hostess at a dinner on Wednesday evening to several friends at Ravinia casino and later enjoyed the concert and artistic dancing of Miss St. Denis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Colburn entertained at supper following the Ravinia Park concert on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Frederick Stock and Miss Ruth St. Denis.

The S. C. and O. H. R. societies of the Evangelical Church gave Delmer Clow a surprise party on Friday evening in honor of his seventeenth birthday. Games were played, John Page won first prize in the bird contest while Copper Christmas received the consolation prize. Delightful refreshments were served.

A number of Highland Park ladies are at Exmoor this week where on Tuesday the golf tournament for the women members started. Mrs. George Allen Mason is not playing this season but assists in managing the tournaments. Among the ladies playing are Mrs. Charles W. Buckley, Miss Sadie Buckley, Mrs. Guy V. Dickinson, Mrs. Eugene E. Andrews, Mrs. Richard Pickering, Mrs. C. G. Fernald, Mrs. Royal Villas, Mrs. John Tuttle, Mrs. C. G. Alexander, Mrs. Frank L. Jones, of Memphis, Tenn., and Mr. Charles Foster of Chicago.

With the approach of mid-summer the vogue for dancing increases and the demand for another cabaret after the popular affair given at the Moraine on the night of July 3, is felt in society. The Moraine announces a cabaret for the evening of Saturday, August 2nd. Mr. Fred Sosman, the well known character singer will appear on the program as well as a number of professional dancers. Something in the way of an innovation is that the cabaret will be given on an open air platform on the tennis court and the tables will be arranged on the veranda. The success of the July cabaret at which there was a far larger attendance than had been prepared for or expected has warranted the arranging for the cabaret to take the place of the regular Thursday night performances. Tables are being reserved in advance of the first cabaret in August to take place on the second.

Practically every one in the younger set, friends of Misses Marjorie and Frances Small, were guests at the dance given by Mrs. Eugene E. Andrews at Exmoor on Thursday evening. Miss Small and her sister, Miss Frances, who have recently returned from a trip around the world, when they were away from here for over six months, have been the guests of honor at a number of affairs and are among the most popular of the young people here.

The dance that two Ravinia girls, Miss Marjorie Menefee and Miss Mary Highely gave Saturday evening at the Ravinia school to raise the fund toward assisting in decorating the school and making it into a village house, was a great success. About fifty guests were present and there was an informal and gay air about the entertainment that assisted greatly in its success. The decorations of Japanese lanterns, fans and flowers were very attractive and the orchestra was composed of a violin and piano. There are two musicales and a bridge party now being arranged for and which will take place some time during the next two weeks.

Mrs. C. F. Marber Smith will entertain in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. L. Palmer of Orlando, Fla., at a bridge party for forty-two guests on Monday evening, July 28th. Assisting Mrs. Smith in receiving will be Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean, Mrs. John F. L. Curtis, Mrs. Richard H. Pickering and Mrs. Walter E. Carr. There are a number of affairs being given in compliment to Mrs. Palmer during her visit. On Saturday Mrs. Smith entertained at a luncheon and bridge for twelve guests for Miss Mann Wood of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Palmer, and in the evening Mrs. W. E. Carr entertained at dinner in their honor, and on Monday evening Mrs. H. F. Ross of Evanston entertained at a dinner for twelve guests, followed by bridge at which Mrs. Palmer was the guest of honor.

Certainly the most popular events of the summer are the weekly dances and dinners at Exmoor. In previous years these entertainments took place fortnightly, but the new plan of holding ladies' day on Saturday, followed in the evening by dinners, is an innovation which has been well worth while. On Saturday the mixed foursome tournament formed the special feature of the program and the players were guests at the club luncheon. In the evening dinners were given by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bull, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Carr, Mr. W. E. Egan and Mr. W. J. Keane. On the same evening the dance at the Moraine was well attended and preceding it a number of the younger set of Highland Park were entertained at a dinner in honor of Miss Eleanor Starret, who is the guest of Miss Catherine Cushing. Then too there are the smaller but equally pleasant and enjoyable dances which Highland Hall holds on Saturday evenings and there are dinners given preceding these affairs by guests of the hotel and their friends.

The summer season in society with all of its varied interests is in full swing and every week come entertainments or meetings that have to do with the management and support of Ravinia Park and Arden Shore. The luncheon given weekly at the Ravinia casino for the Ravinia Club committees of the North Shore towns are events which are well attended and of a great interest to practically every one on the North Shore. While nothing of import took place at Thursday's meeting of the club, a plan was launched to be further elaborated and carried out, setting a time for a pageant or carnival to be given on the grounds of the Park early in September. Just what the program will be is not decided, but it is suggested that a dancing pageant be given illustrating the new and the old styles of dancing. The Junior League reported that the Wednesday night dances are successful and well attended and that the playground located where the swing formerly stood directly south of the casino has received the donation of a swing given by Mrs. J. McGregor Adams and a croquet set given by Mrs. Sopman, chairman of the Lake Bluff committee. Through the kindness of Mr. Jesse L. Smith, kindergarten chairs and tables belonging formerly to the Elm Place Grammar School have been secured for the children. The money taken in by this league is in no way appropriated by the Ravinia Company, but goes into the treasury of the league and is used in defraying expenses for the dance, music and the cost of purchasing swings, hammocks, etc., for the children. Donations of any articles which would do for the playground will be highly appreciated. Miss Marion Mason is chairman of the kindergarten committee of Highland Park. A new rest room for the women and children is located in the south end of the stadium. Membership in the Ravinia Club is urged by many of the interested members, for it is well understood that this organization is that which backs Ravinia Park and its membership determines the future success of the Park to a great degree.

ANNUAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

An Ordinance Making Appropriations for the Corporate Purposes of the Fiscal Year From June 1, 1913, to May 31, 1914.
