ILLINOIS PARAGRAPHS.

CHICAGO—The Illinois and Chicago Civil Service Reform associations forwarded to Governor Dunne a request that, if he calls a special session of the legislature, civil service legislation be included in the call. The leaguers demand a civil service law for Cook county, for the municipal court of Chicago and for the sanitary district of Chicago. The leaguers commended the governor's veto of the bill giving preference in civil service certifications to veterans of the Spanish-American war and the Philippine insurrection. The associations also forward a resolution asking Governor Dunne to reappoint William B. Moulton as a member of the Illinois civil service commission.

EDWARDSVILLE—The roar of a "wind stacker" as it tossed straw on a pile more than twenty feet high caused west end residents to peer from their windows in Edwarsville or send servants to ascertain the nature of the unusual disturbance. A thrashing outfit was in full operation in the 1,000 block on St. Louis street, at the William Steinmeyer place, which fronts 940 feet on the fashionable boulevard and runs far back. The grounds covering twenty acres. Steinmeyer had put in a few acres of wheat back of his vineyards. A little over 200 bushels of grain grown within the city limits was thrashed.

JOLIET—A band of thieves looted the offices of fourteen dentists early in the day, taking every bit of gold filling and all unfinished work in which gold was used. Only Drs. J. P. Mulford and T. J. Ireland escaped. Chief of Police Murphy left for Chicago, where he expects to make an arrest that will clear up the robbery. A peculiar feature of the theft is the fact that five years ago the office of Dr. L. A. Spires was robbed and a bridge made for the use of F. C. Lagans, a local laundryman, was stolen. In the loot taken from Dr. Spires' office was another gold bridge he had made for Mr. Lagans.

CHICAGO—Four persons were drowned in one day at Chicago beaches. A large number of others were rescued with great difficulty, and life savers, both professional and amateur, were given the hardest day's work of the season. The victims were: Mrs. Howe, 5024 Grace street, Chicago, lost trying to save her daughter, Eva; Earl P. Strum of 16 Skokie avenue, Highland Park, a cousin of Eva Howe, drowned trying to save her; Walter Norelund, 18-year-old son of N. P. Norelund of 523 Main street, Evanston; Harry Eckert, janitor of an apartment building at 109 East Chicago avenue.

SPRINGFIELD—The resignation of Justice John P. Hand of the Illinois supreme court was accepted by Governor Dunne and a special election will be called to name his successor. About a year ago the judge suffered a paralytic stroke, from which he has never fully recovered. Ill health is given as the cause of his resignation. At the last term of the supreme court Chief Justice Cook announced that decisions in a number of important cases had been held up owing to the illness of Judge Hand.

SPRINGFIELD—The name of Major E. W. McClaughy, for years warden of the federal prison at Leavenworth, has been presented to Governor Dunne for the position of warden of the Pontiac reformatory. Major McClaughy, who is seventy-four years of age, was for four years warden at Pontiac under Governor Altgeld and later served as warden of the state penitentiary at Joliet, under Governor Tanner. It is said his appointment is being urged by a number of Chicagoans who are interested in prison reform work.

DECATUR—Mrs. May Holdebrand is the first woman to be subpoenaed in Decatur to serve as a juror. The case of an automobile mail collector, charged with violation of the city traffic ordinance, was called in Justice Giles' court, and Mrs. Holdebrand was the only woman summoned. She and five men composed the jury, and returned a verdict of guilty.

ABRORA—Justice Cortez Durtor of this city has adopted an original marriage ceremony which is finding favor with the brides in that vicinity because the word "obey," which since the days of Adam and Eve has been a stumbling block in the matrimonial mart, has been consigned to oblivion.

ROCKFORD—Mrs. Conrad Anderson is dead from injuries received when she jumped from a moving interurban car here. Mrs. Anderson is thought to have jumped from the car to follow her husband. They were coming to Rockford to visit their four-year-old son who is staying here.

PEORIA—"Uncle" Avery Dalton, the oldest man in Peoria county, died at his home in Elmwood at the age of 105 years. Avery Dalton was born in Pennsylvania in 1830. He was the last survivor of the Blackhawk war. He never used tobacco or intoxicating liquors.

CHICAGO—Detectives are searching for Vera and Cora Devoe, sixteen and fourteen years, respectively, who have disappeared from their home in Winona, Ill.

INDIVIDUALITY IN DESIGN.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

The exterior of this house represents individuality in design. The roof treatment gives the appearance of a story and a half bungalow, yet all of the windows are full height. There are four good sized rooms in the first story, besides a large pantry and den. Size, 28 feet wide and 32 feet deep over the main part. Full basement. First story, 9 feet; second story, 8 feet. Finish in best quality of red oak, with birch or southern pine throughout second story. Maple or birch floors throughout both stories. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $3,500.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains about 250 up to date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000.

The Long Distance Telephone Advertises Itself

Wherever men converse, on business, politics or sport; whenever women chat, the word Telephone is often mentioned.

One describes with pride a new and ingenious use he has found for the service. Another marvels at the rapid strides of science. A third gives a cordial invitation to "Call me up."

Of all utilities or commodities there is no other which is so frequently mentioned, showing that it is the Service of Universal Application.
