

Ladies!

If you're looking around for something swell
In a tailor made suit, why say!
Don't waste your time a looking around,
But call on us some day.
We can fix you up in no time at all,
In the very latest style,
And send you along on the journey of life
With a satisfied permanent smile.

Obituary

Bernardine Guthrie Conrad, wife of John E. Conrad, died Wednesday evening at ten fifty-five o'clock at the home of her father, Dr. W. E. Guthrie of Bloomington, Ill. Death was caused by a complication of diseases which resulted in the poisoning of the entire system. The funeral services were private and held at the residence of Dr. Guthrie at two thirty o'clock Friday. Rev. Piercel, an uncle of Mrs. Conrad, read the service. Interment at Bloomington cemetery. Mrs. Conrad was born October 21, 1886 in Bloomington where she lived until she became the bride of John E. Conrad of Highland Park two years ago. Her death, though not unexpected, for she had been very ill for a number of weeks, came as a great sorrow to her relatives and friends in Highland Park. During her short residence here she had made many friends and was an active worker in the Highland Park Woman's Club. In accordance with her wish it was requested that no flowers be sent to her funeral. However, some flowers were sent by friends and were distributed among the sick and poor in Bloomington.

Architecture is justly recognized as one of the greatest arts. It realizes substantially what has been planned in the mind. It combines utility with beauty.

It recognizes as the basis for all outer adornment the necessity of deep foundations, strength and solidity. Economic Independence is the only foundation on which the individual can build successfully his life work. Industry, frugality and saving are its stepping stones. We assist you to save.
