The Social Side of Life
Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

The Harvest Festival is over after the weeks of rehearsal and society assumes its usual routine of bridge parties, dances and club meetings. The festival gave an opportunity for something in the way of an innovation for the late summer just as the Moraine introduced the cabaret early in July with such success. The Observer is not going to attempt to write an account of the social side of the festival or the dance on Saturday night at Ravinia Park which was so brilliant and well attended for mention of names would be necessary to make the account interesting. In the last issue the Observer omitted so many names that should have been in print and gave prominence to some that it appears had little to do with the real work of the festival that her days were made miserable for her following the publication. To return to the subject of card parties, this week is given up to bridge, and on Tuesday Mrs. Henry Boyd entertained for Miss Anne Seymour of New York and Miss Elizabeth Tyson of Philadelphia; on Wednesday Mrs. Burrige Butler gave a bridge and in the early part of the week cards were received for a luncheon and bridge, a large affair to be given by Mrs. Charles S. Deneen at the Exmoor on Tuesday the 23rd. During last week there were a number of attractive affairs among which was the bridge given by Mrs. Rex Jones on Thursday for her sister, Miss Anne Seymour.

A wedding of interest to a number of Highland Park people will be that of Miss Marguerite White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. White of Rogers Park, to Dr. Floyd Merelle Dondanville of Dwight, formerly of Chicago, which will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The maid of honor will be Miss Florence Hatterman of Chicago and among the bride's maids will be Miss Lucile Hatterman, Miss Evelyn Metcalf of Findlay, Ohio, and Miss Marjorie Mihills of Highland Park. After a four week's trip through the Rocky Mountains the young couple will be at home in Dwight where they have leased a bungalow.

Among those who entertained box parties at Ravinia Saturday were Mrs. Frank R. McMullin, who had with her in her box her son and daughter, Rosewell and Charlotte McMullin, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eckstein, Mrs. William A. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Bolte and sons Guy and Willard Bolte and their guests, the Misses Mary Louise and Doris Russell, Mrs. J. McGregor Adams, who had with her Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willis, Miss Alice Chamberlin and Miss Mable Crawford. Other box parties included Mrs. A. J. Lichten, Mr. and Mrs. Parelli, Mrs. W. S. Crosby, Mrs. M. S. Sickle, Mrs. T. D. O'Brien, Miss Marian Ritchie, and Miss Esther Dyer, Mrs. H. W. Hoyt, Miss Edith Hoyt and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Comes; Mr. and Mrs. George R. Thorne, Miss Elliott Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Donnell and Miss Eleanor Donnelly.

Mrs. Frank R. McMullin of Lake Forest gave a tennis party Tuesday for her son, James C. McMullin. About thirty young people were present several of whom were from Highland Park. Tennis was played at Onwentsia and a buffet luncheon was served later at the Aldis house which Mr. and Mrs. McMullin occupied for the summer. On Saturday they moved to Onwentsia where they will remain for the rest of the season.

On Monday evening at Masonic Hall the Mystic Workers entertained at a reception to seventy guests in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moon, celebrating their wooden wedding anniversary. The couple were presented with a beautiful landscape picture, the presentation speech given cleverly by Mr. Albert Larson. Cards and dancing were the features of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mattie Kutzer, Miss Clara Ochf, J. Carbonardi and Harry Clow. Refreshments were served following the program.

On account of the rain on last Thursday evening the beach party which was to be given by the members of the C. E. of the United Evangelical church had to be changed to an indoor party held in the church parlors on Green Bay Road and Laurel Ave.

The early autumn with its pleasant bracing air finds the summer residents unwilling to return to their city homes, and so far fewer families than is customary at this date have left the suburb. The Highland Park Woman's Club has arranged the winter program and will hold the first meeting on Tuesday, October 7th. The afternoon will be devoted to Vacation Topics. The officers are as follows: Mrs. Charles H. Baker, president; Mrs. D. M. Erskine and Mrs. Frederick S. Noerenberg, vice presidents; Mrs. William Dooley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. Leslie McPherson, recording secretary; Mrs. John Duffy, treasurer. The members of the board of directors are as follows: Mrs. Henry Thayer, Mrs. Maud H. Shannon, Mrs. Charles F. Drake, and Mrs. C. G. Phillips. The Ossoli Club will hold the first meeting on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 23, when Madame Sengawa will give a Japanese sketch entitled "On the Road to Tokio." The officers of the Ossoli are as follows: Mrs. W. J. Fyffe, president; Mrs. Eugene Bourmiquet, vice president; Mrs. R. F. Peyton, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. A. L. Drum, corresponding secretary. The board of directors includes Mrs. Daniel Cobb, Mrs. Rex L. Jones, Mrs. C. C. Hughes, and Mrs. Marshall Sampson.

Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean entertained informally at luncheon on Monday in honor of Mrs. Dusey of New York. The Observer has been asked to announce that not only bridge will be played at the benefit card party to be given on October 3 by the Philanthropy Committee of the Ossoli at the Highland Park club but 500, euchre or any other card game for which a table is made up. Dainty prizes will be awarded. Five dollars a table, not six dollars as published heretofore, will be charged, or one dollar and twenty-five cents for a single ticket. The tables are being engaged rapidly and the committee in charge of which Mrs. Frank L. Wean is chairman, is highly pleased at the interest people are taking in the affair which is a benefit for a worthy cause. The charities to be benefited are the Relief and Aid Society of Highland Park, the Tuberculosis Institute, the Lake Bluff Orphanage and Gads. Hill Center, Chicago.

Exmoor will hold the annual harvest dance on Saturday evening Sept. 27. Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary Goldsmith of Waukegan, and Charles L. Boyd of Highland Park on Wednesday, the seventeenth of September at Waukegan. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will be at home after October first at their residence on Onwentsia Ave.

A beach party is planned for Friday night at which a number of the younger set will be present. Among the guests will be the Misses Elizabeth Schumacher, Constance Shields, Helen Bourmiquet, Margaret Bunnell, Mary French, Miriam French, Dorothy Bastin, Rowena Bastin, Marian Hoess and Gertrude McClaren of Lake Forest, and Messrs. Henry, Leslie and Godrich Schauflier, Samuel Bingham, George Baldwin, Jack Baker, Howard Schumacher, Gray Stubbs, Frances Everett, Edward Knox, Leonard Wolcott, and Thomas Findlay of Lake Forest. Mrs. Ruth Beardley and Miss Bertha Harbaugh will chaperone the party.

A box party was given last Saturday afternoon at the Auditorium, Chicago, at the presentation of "The Whip," by the Misses Elizabeth Schumacher, Margaret Bunnell and Marian Hoess, and Messrs. George Baldwin, Samuel Bingham, and Bowen Schumacher.

Mrs. J. D. Evans will give a luncheon on Friday at the Exmoor Club.

Miss Fiesle entertained the members of the Philathea class at her home in Ravinia Monday evening.

The Sunshine Circle entertained the O. H. B. at a hay rack party Friday evening in honor of Howard Kust who left Monday morning for Le Mars, Iowa, where he will study ministry.

Deerfield Christian Endeavor league of the Evangelical church entertained the members of the Christian Endeavor league of the local church Tuesday evening. The young folks went over to Deerfield in a hay rack.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Supple, the recently elected President of the Parent-Teacher Association, a progressive dinner-dance will be given Saturday, September 26th. The social committee members are Mesdames Fred Haggie, B. H. Kress and William Reay.

Four hay racks will be utilized to transport the guests to and from the different homes, where they will be entertained in groups of twenty-five.

Mrs. Fred Haggie will be hostess for the first course. Suppledale farm will be the scene of the second course. The third course will be served at the home of Mrs. Kress. The beautiful home of Mrs. Reay opposite the Deerfield Park will be opened for dancing at the conclusion of the feast.

Tickets for the evening's entertainment will be $1 and may be obtained from members of the social committee. A large number of out-of-town guests are expected, and are cordially invited. The proceeds of this social affair, which is expected to be the event of the year, will be used to buy equipment for the new school, as all of the valuable maps and books owned by the school were destroyed in the recent fire.

Pupils of the Deerfield Grammar School won first prizes on historical maps, relief maps and compositions at the Libertyville fair. The money obtained will be used to buy books for the library of the new school. Mr. Nelson won first prizes on nine paintings which he exhibited. Mr. Nelson will also exhibit his work at the Walworth County Fair at Elkborn, Wis., this week.

RAMBLINGS OF A CHECK.

Something on the Style of the House That Jack Built.

A man down south made a bet with his wife—which was indiscreet.

The wife won which was foreordained.

The man wrote the wife a check for $5 in payment of the bet—which was sad.

The wife cashed the check at the grocery, but forgot to indorse it—which was natural.

The grocer, despite the lack of endorsement, paid it to a packing house collector—which was careless.

The packing house collector turned it in—which was all in a day's work.

The packing house office man discovered the lack of indorsement—which was good work.

He handed it back to the driver and docked the driver's salary—which was system.

The driver placed the check in his white duck coat and sent it to the laundry—which was unwise.

The laundry mutilated the check beyond recognition—which was to be expected.

Which is why the driver asked the cashier to ask the grocer to ask the man's wife to ask her husband to write a duplicate check. Which is why the man feels like he is paying that bet twice.—Kansas City Star.

NAMES FOR THE KNIVES.

The Small Boy Had Them All Drown For the Preacher.

The small boy of today is often credited with a predilection for saying the wrong thing in the presence of an honored guest. The following true incident shows that he also had to be reckoned with more than seventy years ago.

In the pioneer days of Michigan Deacon Brewster was noted for his large family and his hospitality. One day Elder Allen, the circuit rider, young, good looking and, moreover, a barber, arrived at the deacon's in time for dinner. Presently a bouillabaisse meal appeared upon a board rather scantily furnished. It must be owned, with certain necessities in the way of tableware. After all were seated and the elder had asked the blessing Miss Betty, the eldest daughter, thinking to apologize, blushing began:

"I'm sorry I couldn't find a better knife for you, Mr. Allen. The children carry them out to dig with, you see, and forget to bring them back."

"Why, sister," piped Johnny's shrill voice, "they're all here! The elder's got No Handle, dad bez Butcher and mammy Stub! He'll jest have to take turns eating with the rest of us."—Woman's Home Companion.

Toward the Pole.

The eight feet thick on the ocean and snow falling even in summer—such is the weather experienced in the polar regions. When the air is dry and still it is remarkable how low a temperature can be borne with ease. One explorer tells us that with the thermometer at 9 degrees it was too warm for skating. The summer weather in this region is, moreover, in some respects pleasant and healthful. Within the arctic zone there are wonderfully colored auroras and sunsets to be seen. They are both brilliant and impressive. But the nights are agonizing and repulsive. A rigid world buried in everlasting snow, silent save for the cracking of the ice or the wail of the wind. Travelers in these regions experience many discomforts. The keen air causes their skin to burn and blister, while their lips swell and crack. Thirst, again, has been much complained of, arising from the action of the low temperature on the warm body.

How Zulu Servants Are Fed.

Zulu servants live in a detached house in the yard, and each receives the following rations: A half loaf of bread per day, one can condensed milk per week, one-quarter pound of tea per week, two pounds of sugar per week, two pounds of corn meal per week, fresh meat once a week. This meat consists of a shilling's worth of "boy's meat," probably a pound and a half of beef, which is boiled with vegetables, usually carrots, which the Zulus love. The black servants are known as "boys," and the butchers sell a special kind of meat for them, which is called "boy's meat."—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Home Manners.

Mr. Pester—Mr. Pionstanton has such delightfully agreeable answers. I suppose he acquired them while living at home.

Mrs. Pester—Hardly! Men as a general rule seem to regard home as a place where they don't have to be polite.—Boston Record.

Generally the Case.

"I wish you would mention this to Jinks. It is highly important."

"I'll mention it to him today."

"But how do you know you will see him today?"

"I'm bound to bump into him. I owe him money."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Their Aim.

"I suppose," said the husband, "I suppose that you women want to vote just like men do?"

"Oh, no," replied the wife, "that isn't the point at all. We want to vote a great deal better than the men do."—Chicago Journal.

Turning the Tables.

"How about references?" inquired the mistress.

"Oh, I take your looks, mum," said the applicant for the position of housemaid, "but I won't ask for references."—Philadelphia Record.
