High School Notes

There are 340 students enrolled this year.

An account of so large a number of the students at the Deerfield-Shields High school taking up the Domestic Science course it has been found necessary to drop the Art department of the school to make more room. This is the second subject that has been dropped because of the lack of accommodation. The first work discontinued was machine shop and forge.

Miss Donna Drew, a former graduate of Deerfield and of Lewis Institute has been engaged to assist in the Domestic Science department of the school.

The new tennis courts have been completed and are now ready for use. The tennis players have organized a tournament to take place this fall. The courts are so arranged that they can be used for skating this winter.

Final plans have been completed for the future high school building.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Baker and family after a stay of two years and a half in Glensie, Mich., have returned to Highland Park, where they are now living on N. St. Johns Ave. Miss Alice Baker is a member of the faculty in a private school in Rogers Park.

On Sunday, Oct. 28, the Presbyterian church will hold the Rally Day service at the hour of the morning worship when there will be a special program presented by the children. There will be promotion exercises from the various departments at which time the sacrament of baptism will be administered to children. The following Sunday there will be communion and a reception of members followed that week by a grand social and rally of all of the young people's clubs of the church. The first vesper service will take place on Oct. 5 at 4:30 p. m. These vesper services will be a special feature of the church services for the coming year and it is expected that the music will be unusually fine. The Dorcas Society will commence the winter season with the first meeting to be held on Monday, October 6.

Moraine Hotel Notes

The Moraine will be open all winter as usual and is already receiving applications for accommodations for the late fall and winter travelers. The management offers as reasons why the hotel should be well patronized during the cold months is on account of the short time required to reach Chicago under the new schedule, the facility of reaching the station in the auto-bus which makes the trip in four minutes. The new theatre train leaving Chicago every night at 11:30 and arriving here in 38 minutes, the thorough comfort to be had from the new vacuum heating plant installed last winter, the skating rink, and the home-like surroundings inspired by the general influence of the great fire place in the lobby.

The Saturday night dances will be continued all winter under the direction of Miss Dorothy Bently. Knell's orchestra will furnish the music. It is expected that these dances will be popular.

Among the late arrivals are the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beidler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Chapin and family, John Buckingham and the Misses Alice and Harriet Buckingham of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Neal of Kansas City, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. L. ferings and from the start hit him hard. He was taken out in the sixth after allowing twelve hits, which scored ten runs. Five hits and two runs were made off of Buckman, who succeeded Kennedy. The visitors made five runs in eight innings as the result of fast base running and loose fielding on the part of our outfielders. The score at the last of the eighth was 12 to 5 in our favor and it looked as if all was over, but Torkleson, who had allowed only four hits in eight innings, weakened in the ninth. The visitors started a strong batting rally and things began to look dubious after five men had scored. There were two out, runners on third and second, and a single would have tied the score. Torkleson was taken out and Dussay Duffy, the only available man, put in the box. Duss was equal to the task. He fanned Courtney and so ended the game. It is probable that Highland Park will be scheduled for next Sunday. Kress, who was away Sunday, will probably be back in the game, as will Hutchinson, who has been ill with an attack of appendicitis.
