MUNICIPAL PAWNSHOPS.

in the Mont de Piete the Parisian Has a Model Institution,

The story of the Mont de Piete, the great pawashop of Paris, reads like a romance. It is the survival of an old bank conducted by a religious order established to bght usury. This benevotent enterprise was given up to be started afresh under the direction of the government in 1801, when Napoleve was near the height of his glory. The profits up to the state and to char ity - to the Enthic aid department and to the hospitals of Paris. . These charltles benefit about $70,000 a year

The storage facilities of the Mont de Plete are admirable. The Frenchman may may no wn his feather bed When it comes back to him it, as well as mattresses, blankets and all bed furnishings, bus been thoroughly disinfected The rate of interest on loans is small. and it encourages by all means the redemption of the goods on which money has been adianced. As the Mont de Piete advances money only on a conservative valuation as a rule to the value of two thirds of the article pawned there is generally a surplus to go to the pawner if the pledge is sold. Municipal priwnshops in Berlin charge 12 per cent, in Brussels 7 per cent and

MANAGERIAL ABILITY.

If You Think You Possess It Here Is

a Test You Might Try. Any one who has to manage n things must be able quickly to bring order out of confusion. Test your friend's taient in this respect by writing on your paper five words of a speclai cines, such as the names of five flowers or of five animals or of five famous poets, with the first letter always in the right place, while the order of the other letters is changed

The person on whom you are experimenting knows only to which class the words belong-whether they are the names of animals or of flowers or of poets See now long it takes him to write the five correct words in place of the misspelled ones.

The animal card may read, "Tetrul, etalenph, dykeno, serdip, gailiro," and the vegetable card, "Velito, diloffad, melap, moroshmu, cuttnesh." Some persons will be able to read at once. Turtle, elephant, donkey, spider, gorilla," and the other card, "Violet, daffodil, maple, mushroom, chestnut."

Others who have no talent for rearranging the elements of a confused sitnation will stare at the words, unable to make any sense of them.-Hugo Munsterberg in Youth's Companion.
