GENERAL NEWS.

NEW YORK—Bishop Franklin Spencer Spaulding, of Utah, who is a Socialist, told his brother bishops and the clerical and lay deputies to the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church at a mass meeting in the cathedral that the great mass of laboring people are alienated from the church because they believe that it is supported out of the profits of industry and that gifts to the church are made possible through the plundering of the working people. Bishop Spaulding said he was not sure that the wage earner would thank him for pleading his cause and quoted "Big Bill" Haywood, who was heard to say at a meeting of workmen: "Have nothing to do with the preachers. They are all advocates of darkness, surmise and superstition. They have weakened every labor movement they have been allowed to enter."

NEW YORK—William Sulzer, just put out of the governorship, is the Progressive party's assembly candidate in the Sixth assembly district, a territory that lies between East Houston street and East Tenth street and Avenue A and the East River, where three voters out of four are Jewish. F. W. Bird, the Progressive county chairman; Theodore Douglas Robinson, the state chairman, and William M. Chadbourne, the representative of George W. Perkins, sat in the hall, and never uttered a word while the district leaders and voters took the bit between their teeth and rushed the Sulzer nomination through.

CLEVELAND, OHIO—Rev. Gerard Patterson, rector of the Church of the Incarnation here, and former pastor of Adrian, Mich., was granted a divorce. The cross petition of Mrs. Patterson was dismissed and the freedom of the husband granted. It was believed that Mrs. Patterson was in Europe, where she went after the Van Voorhees-Lloyd divorce case, in which she was named as co-respondent. The vestry of Rev. Patterson's church adopted resolutions recently supporting his action and pledging its loyalty.

WASHINGTON—President Wilson and the entire cabinet discussed the Mexican situation and the naval policy of the United States at the first cabinet meeting since last June. Notification was sent by Secretary Bryan to John Lind and Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy that the United States does not and will not recognize the Huerta plans for the proposed election and that it will not recognize any one chosen at such election.

NEW ALBION, IOWA—Miss Ruthie Howes, who is dead here at the age of sixty-six years, was reputed to have been the smallest perfectly formed woman in Iowa. She was thirty-seven inches in height and weighed sixty pounds. Not deformed in any way, Miss Howe was a remarkably beautiful and attractive woman in miniature.

NEW YORK—James J. Frawley, who was chairman of the senate committee which prepared the material upon which Mr. Sulzer was impeached, said that the first suggestion of impeachment came from Wm. Barnes, Republican state leader, who published an editorial to that effect in his Albany newspaper last February.

CHICAGO—William C. Ellis, a wealthy Cincinnati leather merchant was held to the grand jury, charged with the murder of his beautiful wife, after he had dramatically confessed to the coroner's jury that he had killed her in bed, instead of trying to join her in a suicide pact, as he had at first stated.

WHEELING, W. VA.—Major Matthew M. Neely, a Democrat, by a plurality of nearly 3,500 is returned a winner in the special congressional election, held to name a successor to Hon. John W. Davis, recently appointed solicitor general of the United States. The district is normally Republican.

PARIS, FRANCE—Official announcement was made of the victory of the American balloon Goodyear in the international race for the James Gordon Bennett cup. The American aeronauts also secured second place with the balloon piloted by Captain H. E. Honeywell. Italy was third.

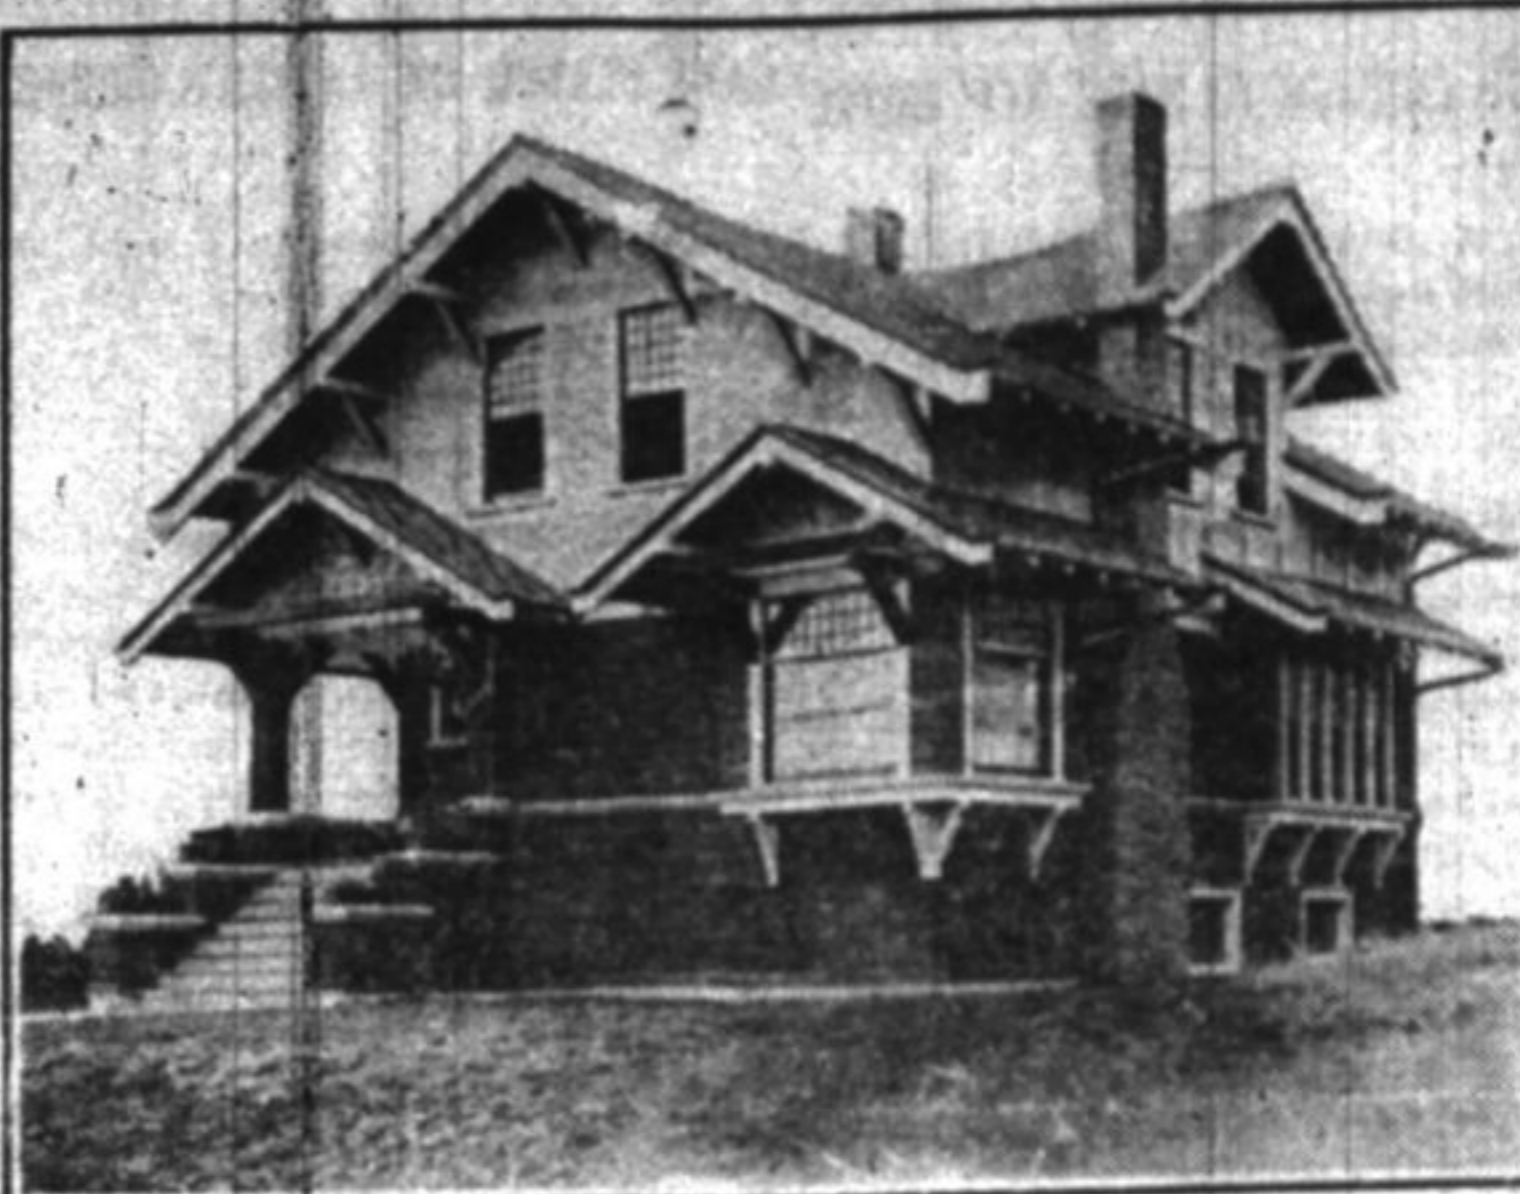

TOLEDO, OHIO—A young women's class in carpentering, with eighteen enrolled the first day, has been organized in connection with the manual training department of the public schools. Several married women have been admitted with the girls.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—A license to marry was issued here to Miss Ernestine V. Roedelheim, sister of the wife of William Sulzer, deposed governor of New York, and Walter M. Friedenreich, Edge Hill road, Cleveland, O.

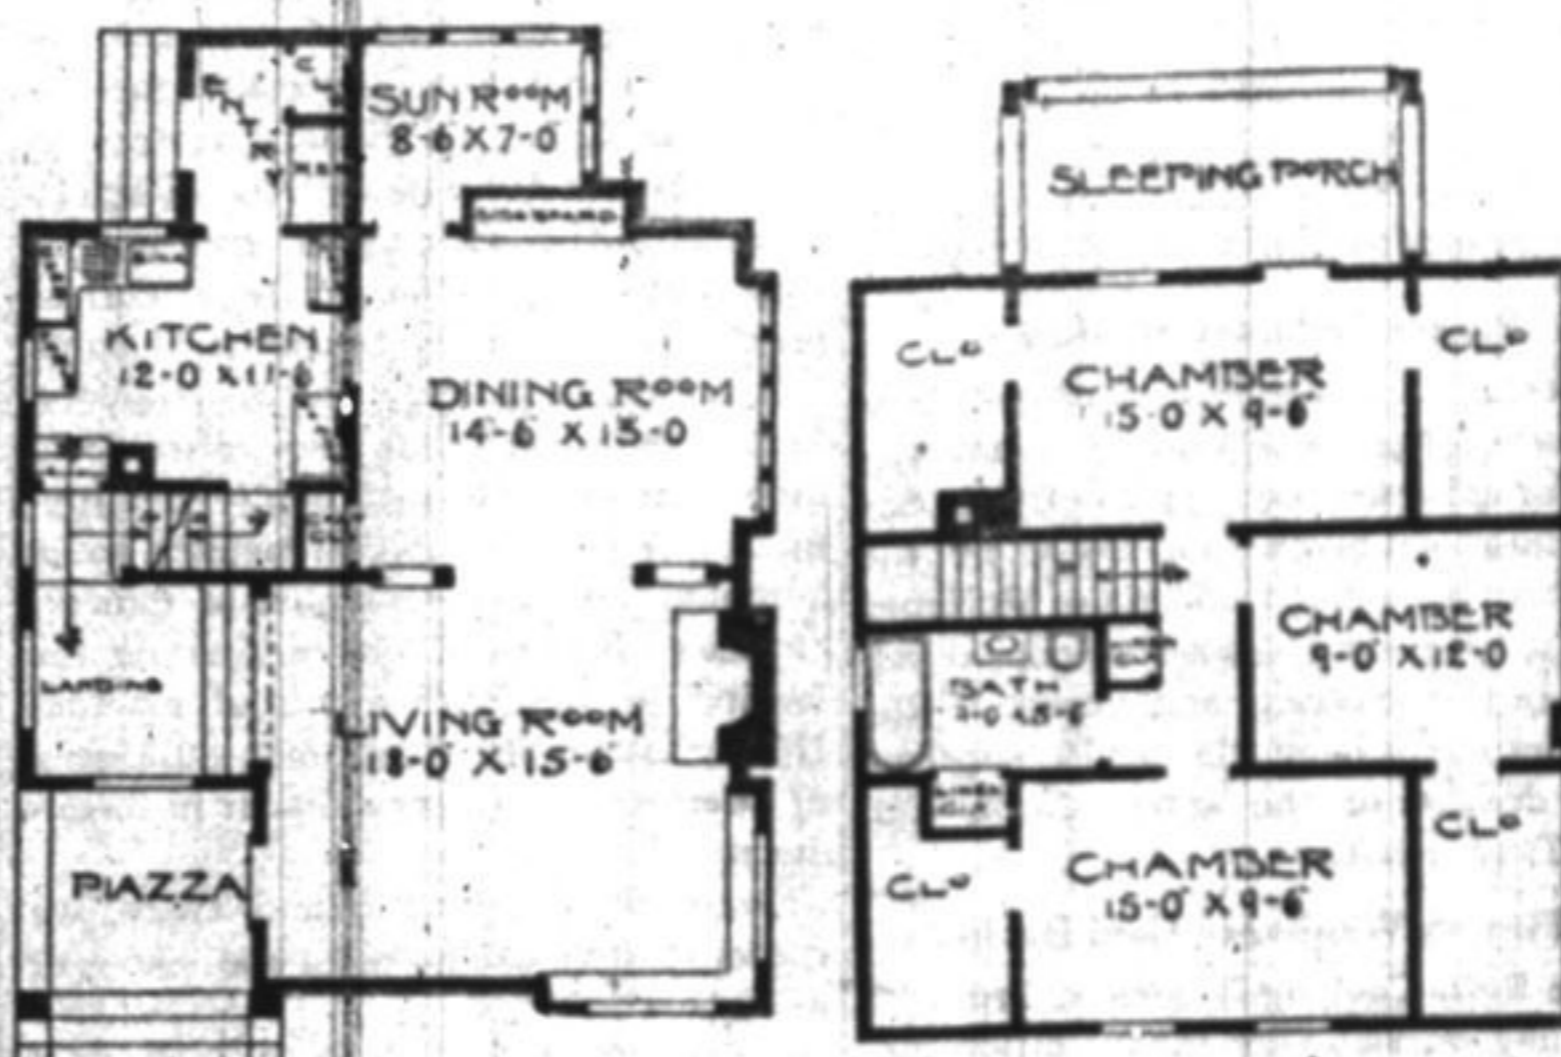

CHICAGO—After he had officiated at the dedicatory ceremony at the new Masonic temple, Delmar D. Darrah retired from office as the grand master of the grand lodge of the Illinois A. F. and A. M.

CLAPBOARD AND ROUGH CAST.

Design 764, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

The exterior of this house is made very attractive by projecting bays and roofing with wide open eaves. The house is clapboarded from the base course at grade to a belt line between the first and second stories; above the belt line rough cast and half-timber. The main cornice is supported by heavy sawed brackets, giving a very good appearance to the exterior. The first story has a large living room, open fireplace and a wide landing for the stairs. Dining room with projecting bay window; also a built-in sideboard, with small sun room in the rear of same. There are three chambers in the second story, roomy closets, good sized bathroom and two linen closets; also a sleeping porch. Size, 33 feet wide and 39 feet deep. Full basement. First story, 9 feet; second story, 8 feet. These heights all finish in the clear. Birch or red oak finish throughout the first story, pine to paint in second story. Birch or maple floors throughout both stories. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $3,000.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains about 250 up to date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000.

ENGLISH HALF TIMBER DUPLEX.

Design 770, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

ROOM PLAN.

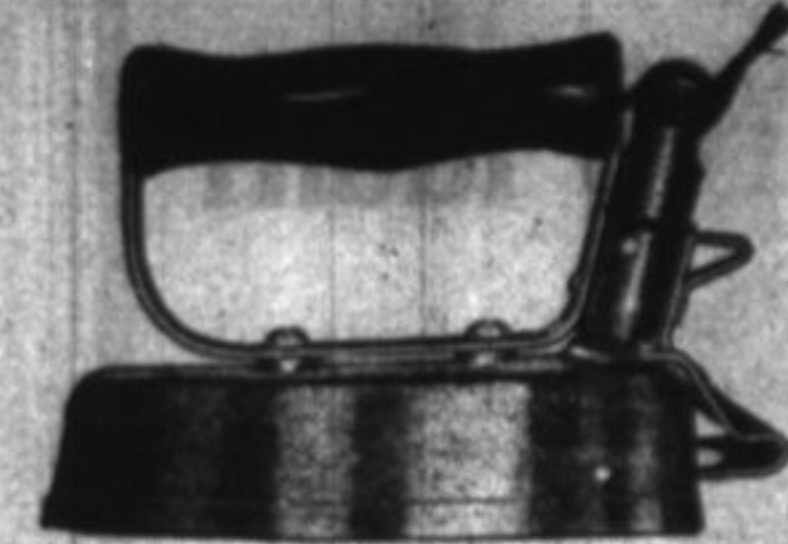

This duplex dwelling would be a credit to any town or city suburb, giving two roomy apartments under one roof. Size, 35 feet wide and 60 feet deep over the main part, exclusive of sun rooms and sleeping porches. The floor plan is self explanatory. The arrangement throughout is as near perfection as possible for a plan of this description.

Full basement. First story, 9 feet in height; second story the same. These are the heights in the clear. Birch or red oak finish and birch or maple floors. Beamed ceiling in living room and dining room.

Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $11,000.
