GENERAL NEWS.

OTTAWA, ONTARIO—The Demolin fisheries experts report a loss estimated at four and five million dollars annually to the British salmon fishing industry and probably the total disappearance of the famous "Big Run" of salmon every four years as one of the startling results of the construction of the new Canadian Northern Trans-continental line through the Fraser river canyon. In August last at the time of the big quadrennial run of salmon up the Fraser river to the spawning grounds, it was discovered that literally millions of salmon were being dammed back from further ascent of the river beyond the narrow pass at Hells Gate, where the C. N. R. construction combined with unusually high water in the Fraser had altered the currents and eddies in the river from previous years. In consequence, millions of the big four year old fish turned back or died without spawning.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.—Joseph Lomax, 2255 College avenue, one hundred and three years old, who is believed to be the oldest Mason in the world, received papers notifying him of his election as a life member of the Kalamazoo (Mich.) lodge. Mr. Lomax joined the organization at Marion, Ind., the date he can not remember and the Marion lodge can not find the records of entry. It is believed that they were destroyed by a fire several years ago. Mr. Lomax was the organizer and the first president of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railway, which ran through Kalamazoo and he also operated a newspaper in that city at one time.

TOPEKA, KAN.—Samuel Crawford, third governor of Kansas, famous as an Indian fighter, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Capper, at the age of seventy-eight. Fighting on the union side in the civil war, he attained the rank of brigadier general of volunteers. He held the office of governor from 1865 to 1869, resigning to lead an expedition against Indians on the Kansas frontier. His promptness in stamping out incipient rebellions on the Indian territory border gave him a place of honor among the Indian campaigners. Mr. Crawford was born in Lawrence county, Ind., in 1835.

KEOKUK, IA.—Many members of the Daughters of the American Revolution from all parts of Illinois, Missouri and Iowa attended the dedication here of the monument in memory of Chief Keokuk of Black Hawk fame, for whom this city was named. Mrs. William G. Story of New York city, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was in attendance and the Iowa members had arranged for the most important conference ever held by the society in this state.

NEW YORK—Miss Martha M. Mitchell of Milwaukee was closely guarded on the steamship Baltic on the voyage because Captain Ransom feared she might make a second attempt to jump overboard. Miss Mitchell, who has been studying art in Europe, had told fellow passengers she believed that if she jumped overboard the Almighty would save her from drowning. "He will let me swim to the horizon," she said, and started to climb the railing.

NEW YORK—Nearly one million pounds of mail were piled up in postoffices and rail way stations in New York as the result of a sudden strike of chauffeurs of the Postal Transfer service, a corporation which has the contract for the transfer of the United States mail in New York, and which handles on an average 5,000,000 pounds of mail matter a day.

RIO JANERIO, BRAZIL—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who is the guest of the Brazilian government, was taken for an automobile ride through the city and later inspected the most important of the public buildings. The colonel could not completely hide his impatience to get into the untrodden jungles.

WASHINGTON—The congress will take action early in the regular session to wipe out hog cholera in this country. Because of the tremendous loss of hogs from this disease in his home state, Senator Kenyon of Iowa will introduce a bill appropriating $1,000,000 for the study of methods for combating it.

CINCINNATI, OHIO—Insolvency Judge Warner appointed Philip C. Fosdick receiver for the harness and leather business of William C. Ellis, under arrest in Chicago after confessing to the murder of his wife. A creditor filed the suit on behalf of all other creditors. Fosdick is a brother-in-law of Ellis.

CHICAGO—Weymouth Kirkland, a member of the law firm of Rose, Symmes & Kirkland, one of the leading firms in this city, with offices in the Chicago Title and Trust building, was indicted in connection with alleged fraudulent bills upon which he collected from the Chicago Railways company.

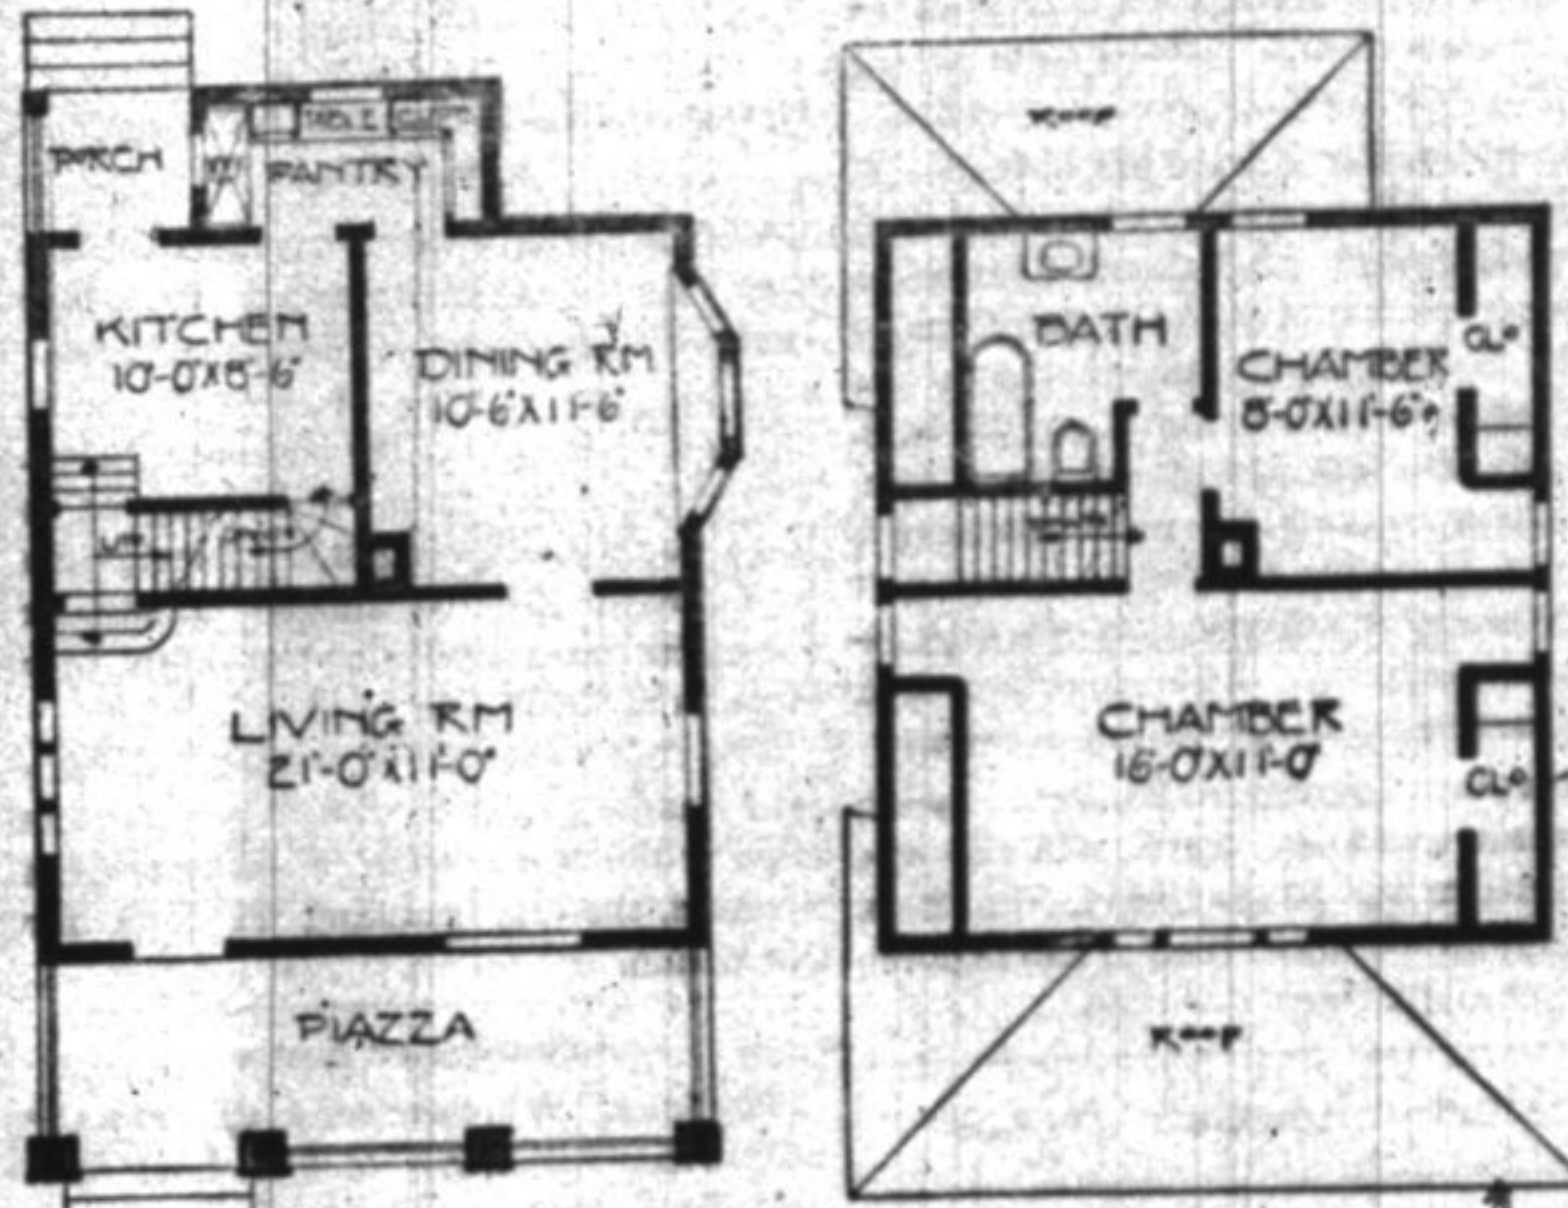

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, living in Long Beach, a wealthy widow and relative of Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States army, announces her renunciation of all church, society, and club work and her intention of entering the Salvation army.
