GENERAL NEWS.

ST. LOUIS, MO.—The will of the late Adolphus Busch, brewer and philanthropist, by which his estate, estimated at $75,000,000, is bequeathed has been filed for probate and names the widow, Mrs. Lily Busch, his eldest son, August A. Busch, and his personal attorney, Charles Nagel, as trustees with a provision that the first vacancy among the trustees shall be filled by his son-in-law, Edward A. Faust.

WASHINGTON.—President Wilson made it known in unmistakable fashion that he is unqualifiedly in favor of the vital principles in the Glass-Owen currency bill—the administration measure which the senate committee on banking and currency is amending.

WASHINGTON.—By most decisive votes, the senate committee on banking and currency eliminated the secretary of agriculture and the controller of the currency from membership on the proposed federal reserve board, as provided by administration currency bill.

SPARTANBURG, S. C.—Senator Benjamin R. Tillman has always favored lynching for assaults of women, he declares in a letter received by the Spartanburg Herald.

TRINIDAD, COLO.—The destruction by fire of the tin mine and office of the Southwestern mine near Aguilar, and an attack by strikers on the Empire mine and the camp of Berwind and Tabasco, is the record of damage due to the coal strike.

NEW YORK.—Nearly one million pounds of mail were piled up in postoffices and railway stations in New York as the result of a sudden strike of chauffeurs of the Postal Transfer service, a corporation which has the contract for the transfer of the United States mail in New York.

MEMPHIS, TENN.—James T. Johnson, negro, formerly a railway mail clerk, was arrested here on an indictment returned by the federal grand jury at Danville, Ill., charging him with robbing the mails.

CHICAGO.—The demands for increases in wages by employees of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad company, involving 3,000 trainmen, conductors and employees of the freight service, who threatened a strike a few months ago, were considered when a board of arbitration began sessions in the federal building.

VERA CRUZ.—There is an undercurrent of excitement in this port and the indications are that there will soon be some sensational arrests. It is again hinted that the government has knowledge that certain prominent men were involved in a plot to overthrow the present regime and that these will be taken into custody.

CHICAGO.—Five troops of the Fifteenth United States cavalry now stationed at Fort Sheridan have been ordered to the Mexican border. This move is one of arm routine and not a war move, according to Colonel David J. Baker, commanding adjutant at Chicago.

DES MOINES, IOWA.—The consuls at Jerusalem has been offered to Father Joseph Francis Nugent, Secretary W. J. Bryan is a personal friend of Father Nugent and the offer came to him in a personal letter from the secretary.

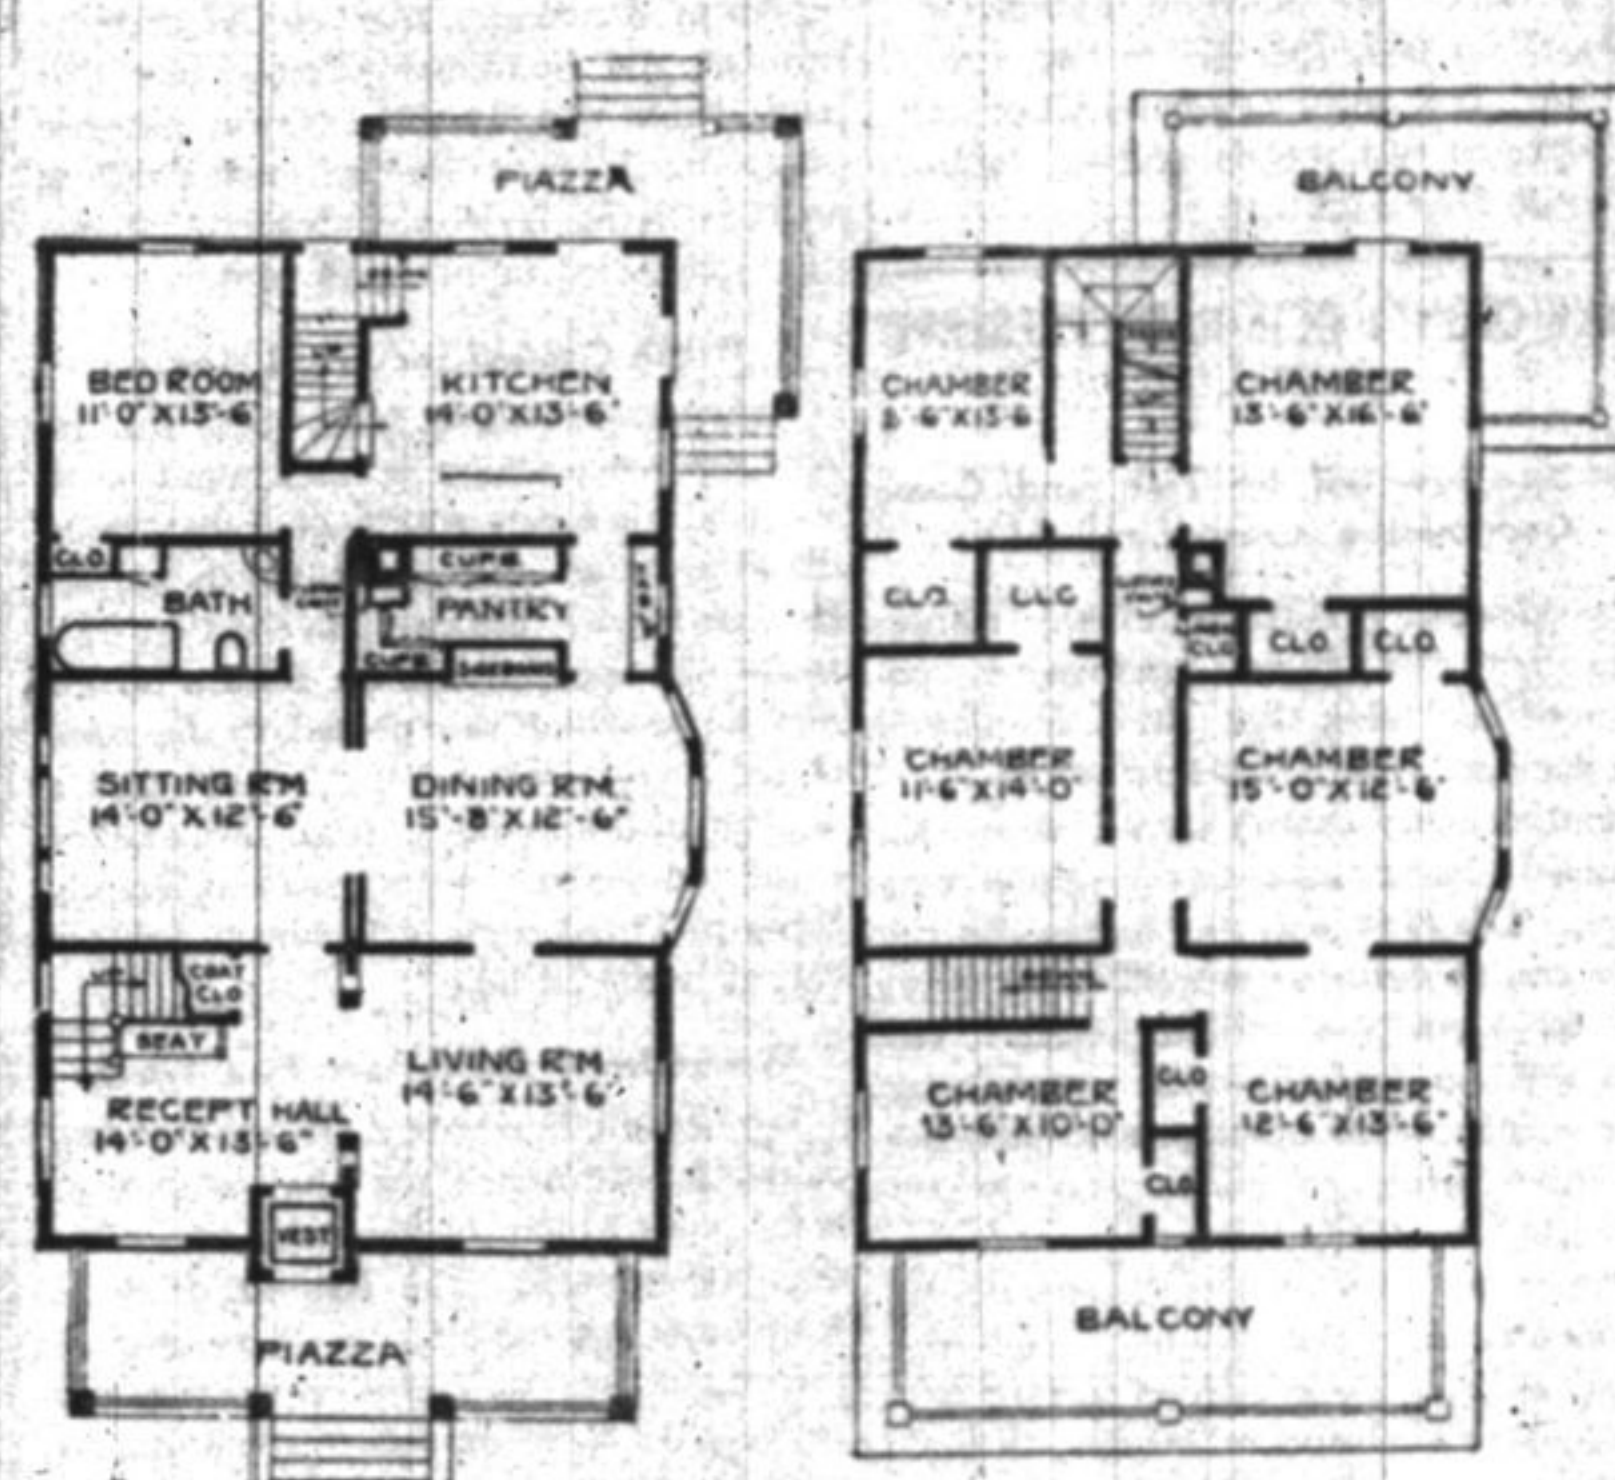

AURORA, ILL.—Three young Aurora motorists, George Rees, Archie Murray and Charles Barnes, are making a 2,000-mile sightseeing trip through Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee and the Virginias.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN. SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

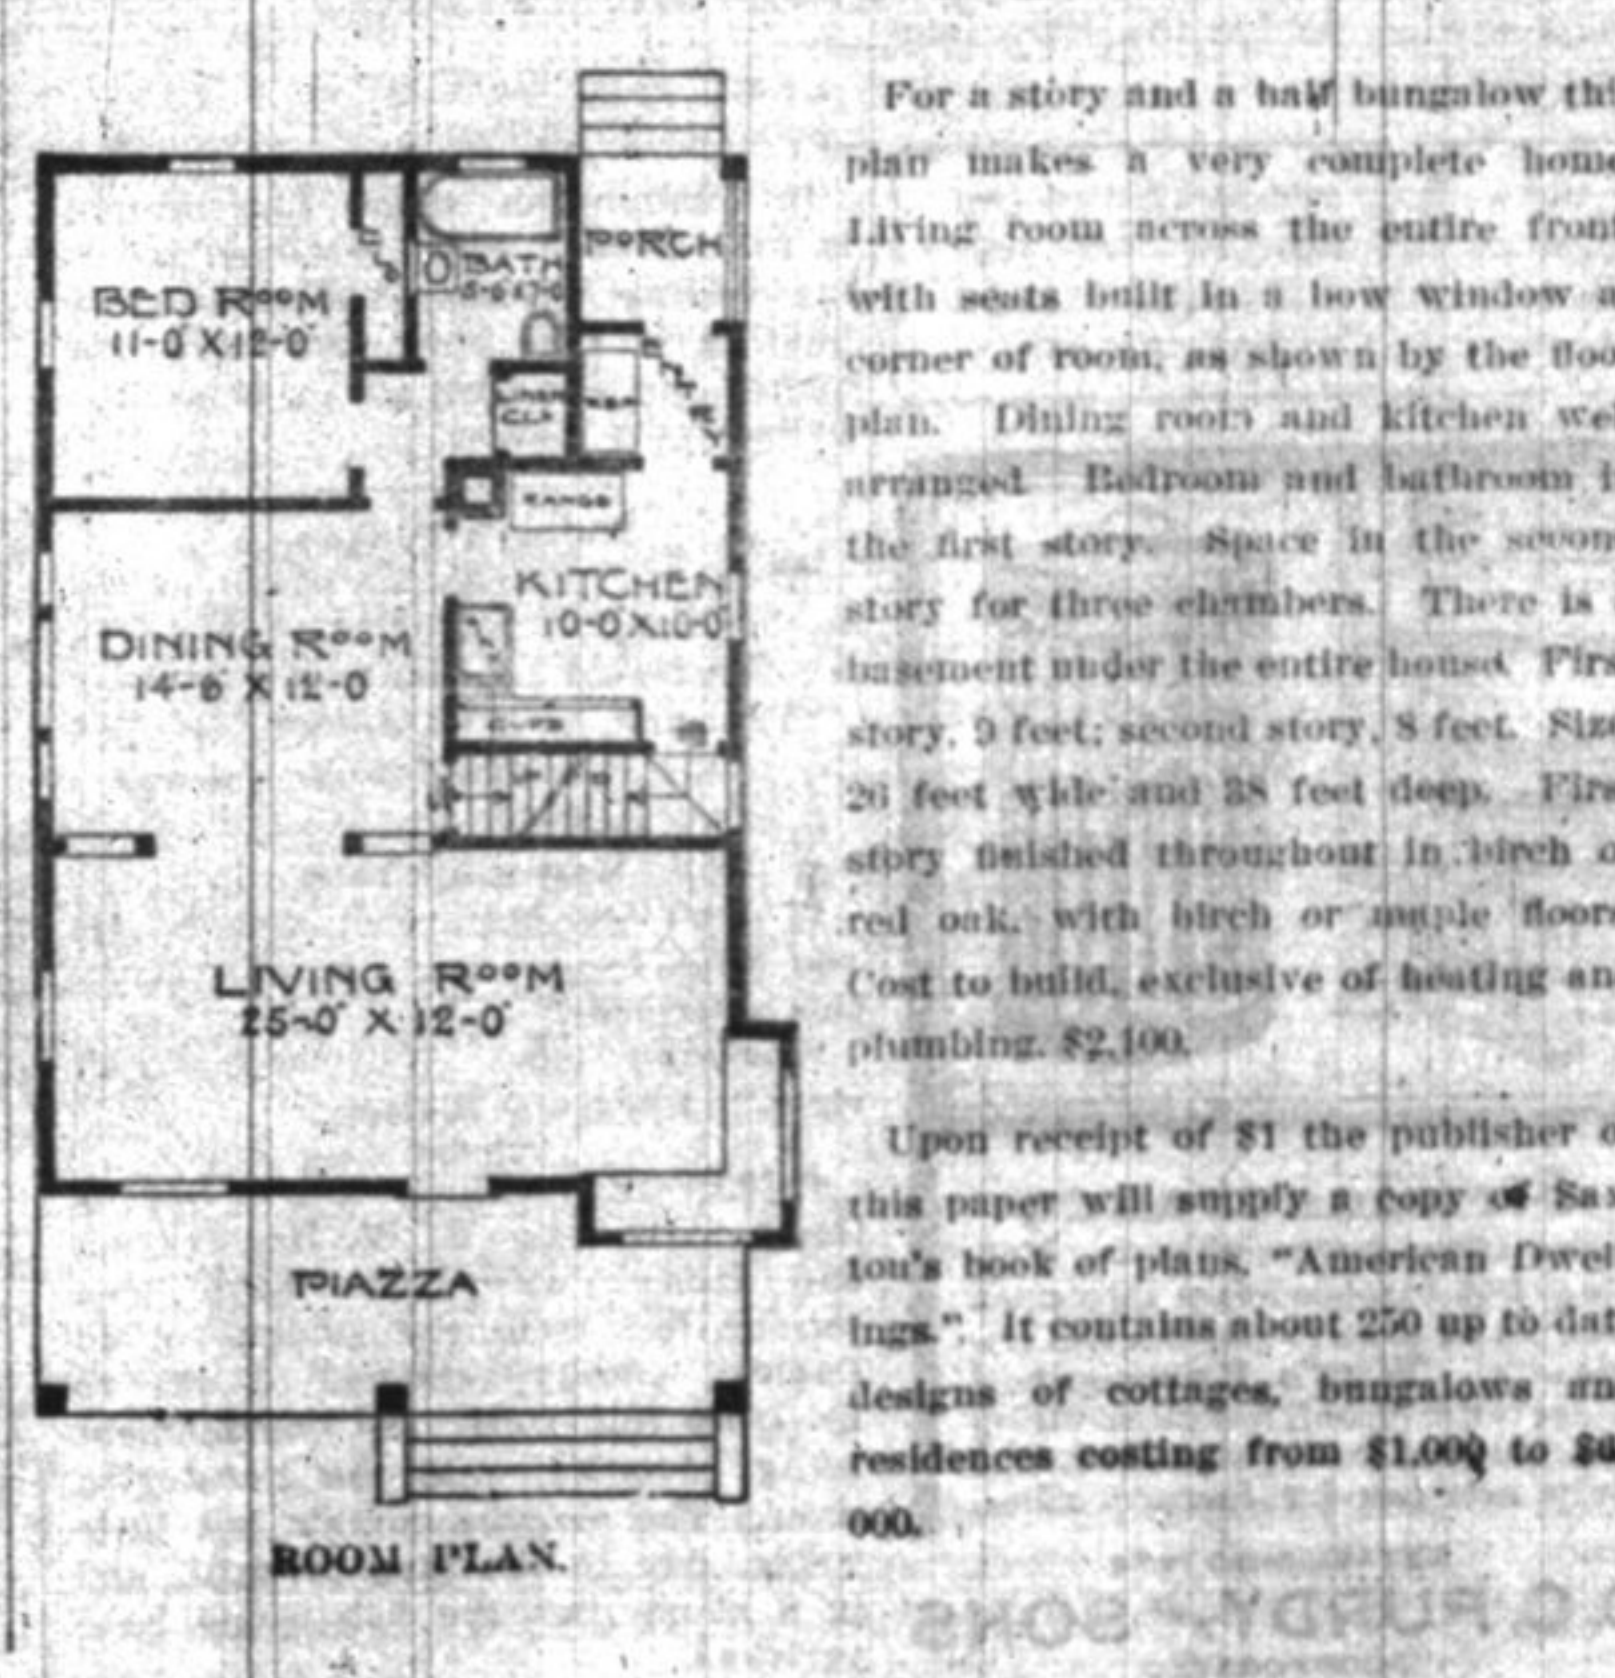

This plan is an exceptionally good design for a large farmhouse or for a family that desires to keep roomers. There are seven sleeping rooms provided for in the plan and space for two or three more in the third story if owner desires. The size of the house is 30 feet wide and 48 feet deep.

BUNGALOW OR COTTAGE DESIGN.

Design 762, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

ROOM PLAN.

For a story and a half bungalow this plan makes a very complete home. Living room across the entire front, with seats built in a low window at corner of room, as shown by the floor plan. Dining room and kitchen well arranged. Bedroom and bathroom in the first story. Space in the second story for three chambers. There is a basement under the entire house.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains about 250 up-to-date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $4,000.
