to every municipality through which it runs are so large as greatly to over-balance any possible disadvantages. It will attract new residents who will build attractive homes, thereby increasing taxable property; it will create more work for builders, mechanics and laborers, and bring more customers for merchants; it will increase values of real estate not only on Sheridan Road but on other streets in every town through which it passes.
We trust that the people of Highland Park will urge upon Mayor and Aldermen favorable action in this matter in the near future.
May we count on your favorable co-operation in helping the work along?
Yours very truly,
EDWIN L. LOBDELL
President, The Sheridan Road Improvement Association.
