Obituary

Mr. Louis Krueger

Perhaps one of the saddest deaths known to us for several years is that of Louis John Krueger, whose marriage to Miss Pearl Arnold was to take place Wednesday evening, Jan. 28th, and who died suddenly on Friday morning at five thirty after an illness of four days of malignant scarlet fever. He was born February 8th, 1890 in Highland Park and had lived here all his life.

Honest and upright as a boy and man, Louis, or "Louie" as he was known to his friends, attended the public schools here and held various boy positions until he learned the trade of candy maker in the employ of F. W. Schumacher and others. His health failing him he was forced to give up his occupation and he later purchased a part interest in the Central Theatre which he retained until the new Schumacher Candy Co. was organized in November and he became its manager. Under his guidance the business was rapidly growing and it was with a bright and happy future before him that he contracted the illness which brought his sudden death. Owing to the nature of his disease funeral services were private, interment being in Waukegan, where Rev. J. Foster Van Evera read the service.

Mr. Henry Freie

A second old settler to depart within the week was Mr. John Henry Freie who died Sunday, Jan. 25th, at his home on So. Second St. Born in 1822 Mr. Freie was 91 years of age at the time of his death which had been expected for some time as the aged man was very infirm. Services were held at the Ebenezer church Wednesday afternoon, interment being in Rose Hill.

Mr. August Guron

Mr. August Guron died at the age of sixty-three years, at his home on Washington St., Highwood Monday morning. He was ill two weeks with pneumonia. Funeral services were held Wednesday at two o'clock at St. James church, Highwood, interment being in Ft. Sheridan with military honors. He leaves to survive him a wife, two daughters, Florence and Mrs. M. Richardson, and one son, Leo Guron.

Catherine Marjorie Gibbs

Catherine Marjorie Gibbs, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Gibbs of Highwood, died Monday morning after an illness of two days of acute bronchitis. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at St. James Catholic church, Highwood, interment being in Lake Forest. Many beautiful floral pieces were in evidence, among them a lovely cross sent by her little schoolmates.

Mrs. Harriet Moreton

Mrs. Harriet Moreton died Monday, Jan. 25th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Brown on So. Second St., old age being the cause of her death. Mrs. Moreton was born Dec. 16, 1830, making her eighty-three years old last December. Funeral services were held Tuesday at two o'clock at the house. Rev. Herbert Evans officiated. Interment was at Lake Forest.

Mr. William Gannon

Mr. Wm. Gannon of Lake Forest, died at his home at five-fifty o'clock Wednesday morning after an illness of the grippe and heart trouble. He was seventy-nine years old. Funeral services will be held Friday morning at ten o'clock at St. Mary's church in Lake Forest, Rev. Father Berry will read the services. Interment will be in Lake Forest. He leaves to survive him three daughters, Mrs. John Sheahan of this city, Mrs. Herbert Martin of Chicago, and Mrs. Charles Richards of Lake Forest, and two sons, William of Lake Forest and James of Portland, Oregon.

Mr. John Middleton

In the death of John Middleton, Monday, Jan. 19th, Highland Park lost one of its oldest and most esteemed citizens. Mr. Middleton was born in New York City June 19, 1822 and came to Chicago in 1855, establishing himself in the building and contracting business. He became a resident of Hyde Park in the late 50's and took an active interest in the affairs of that town. In 1874 he came to Highland Park.

During the years of 1877 to 1879 he served as Mayor of Highland Park and was first President of the Board of Education after the control of the school was surrendered by the Highland Park Building Association. He was one of a committee of thirty-one citizens that presented a petition in 1874 to Bishop Whitehouse to establish Trinity church.

He was a life member of A. O. Fav Lodge 676, also of Apollo Commandry No. 1, and Oriental Consistory, being a 32nd degree Mason.

Long known for his high character and sterling integrity he won the confidence and respect of his fellow citizens. He is survived by one son and daughter.
